LOCAL MENTION

Fourteen pages today—two sections.

Marriage license was issued Friday by Register of Deeds Elliott to Joe E. McMannus and Miss Beatrice Wilson, both of Midland.

Plumbers are engaged now in installing a toilet for women employees of the court house. The work was authorized at a recent meeting of the commissioners.

Rev. W. C. Lyster, pastor of the Trinity Reformed Church, has been secured to preach to the boys of the Jackson Training School Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

An extra program has been prepared for tonight at the Y. M. C. A. Six reels of pictures will be shown and mass games for the boys and girls will be played. The program begins at 7 o'clock.

The October meeting of the county commissioners will be held at the court house Monday, beginning at 10:30 o'clock. So far as is known now no matters of unusual interest will be presented to the board at the meeting.

Rally Day will be observed at the First Presbyterian Sunday school tomorrow, at which time every member, both old and new, is expected to be present. A contribution will be taken for the benefit of Sunday school extension work.

Police officers chosen by the aldermen Thursday will be sworn in next week by Mayor Barrier. As all of elected to serve two more years they are working now under the oaths they took when they started their duties. The chief is the only officer required to give bond.

Don't forget that we will give 10 per cent. discount for cash with order on all orders for engraved Christmas cards received before December 1st. We have in stock a beautiful new line of these caps. Call and see them. Orders delivered within a few hours after receipt.

A light rain fell in Concord and many parts of Cabarrus county Friday afternoon. The rain was only a drizzle for the most part and did not thoroughly wet the ground. However, signs of rain above this city were indicated by a rise in streams near this city.

All members of the Junior Order in the county are invited to meet with the Cannonville Council, No. 25, Monday evening, October 5th. Special business of interest to each one is to be transacted and at the close of the business session, refreshments will be served.

Tennis matches in the City Tournament which were to begin Friday afternoon, had to be postponed on account of the rain and will be played this afternoon and early next week. It is expected that the greater part of the week will be required for the play-off.

All Sunday school teachers of No. 1 township, and other interested persons, are invited to attend the Sunday School Institute to be held tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the Harrisburg Church. Departmental secretaries of the county association will have charge of the work conducted at the institute.

The latest power schedule of the Southern Power Company does not affect cotton gins which use the company's power. The gins must stand two days a week under a ruling of the company made several weeks ago, but the new schedule announced this week does not apply to gins, it has been announced by company officials.

A large number of local football fans went to Charlotte this afternoon to see Davidson and Wake Forest in action. The Baptists are expected to win the game although Davidson is said to be in fine shape for the contest. While these teams are playing in Charlotte Duke and State will be playing in Durham.

Public schools of the city completed four weeks of work Friday afternoon. During the first two weeks the work was interrupted somewhat by excessive heat but regular schedules have been maintained during the past two weeks and the work is moving off smoothly now. The teachers received their first pay checks of the year Friday.

Cotton Goods Markets.

New York, Oct. 2.—Print cloths sold in fair quantities today for October delivery at 30 cents for 38 1-2 inch 64's, and 10 5-8 cents for January-February deliveries of 68x 72's, the highest level for the current cotton year. Sheetings, print cloths, and convertibles were steady. Business was more active on napped cottons. Ray silk advanced on large sales at Yokohama. Silk goods were quieter. Burlaps were very strong following a further advance in June, bringing prices for the latter to the highest point in three or four years. Cloaks are beginning to sell more freely as winter approaches. Waxed lines of men's wear in specialty nans were have sold well in several mills.

TOM SIMS SAYS

Scene from "THE COMING OF AMOS" RELEASED BY PRODUCERS DISTRIBUTING CORP. At Concord Theatre Monday-Tuesday

In doing the Charleston you throw all caution to the winds and let St. Vitus be your guide.

There are ways of learning the Charleston. One way is hunt a collar button in your bare feet in a lark room.

If you have a corn on every toe, put on some tight shoes some damp hay and you are doing the Charleston.

The Charleston was invented by some timid soul jumping from a snake and landing on a porcupine.

Watch dad when he gets the bill for wife's fall hat. He will do a Charleston step.

Look closely next time you bump a pedestrian with your auto. You may learn a new Charleston step. Copyright, 1925, NEA Service, Inc.)
