Members of the club are Miss Margaret Ritchie, Miss Mary Belle Cannon, Miss Ruth Cannon, Miss Bertie Louise Willeford, Miss Lois Crowell, Miss Catherine Haynes Carpenter, Miss Virginia Reed and Miss Annis Smoot. Miss Alva Goswick, of Winston-Salem, was an invited guest Friday evening.

Party at Y. M. C. A. For Teachers an Enjoyable Affair.
The party which was given Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A. for the teachers of the schools in Concord proved to be a delightful affair. As was remarked by one of them, "an athletic evening was enjoyed by all."
Contests were held between the two sides which were chosen from the guests. These contests included games with the large playground balls and various stunts. At the conclusion of the evening refreshments were served.

To Join New England With South.
Boston, Mass., Oct. 10.—To further the economic cooperation between New England and the South, centering in a great coastal trade through Hampton Roads, a party of forty or more commercial and industrial leaders of Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina will tour New England for a series of conferences next week as guests of the State Chamber of Commerce and more than 150 other business associations.
The tour will begin Monday in Connecticut, where the party will spend three days, visiting Bridgeport, Danbury, Waterbury, New Haven, Hartford, New London and a number of other industrial centers. Then will follow a visit to Providence, Pawtucket and other places in Rhode Island. For two days the visitors from the South will be guests of Fall River, New Bedford, the Cape Cod Chamber of Commerce, Plymouth, Boston, Lexington and Concord. The city of Portsmouth will entertain on behalf of New Hampshire and the trip will be finished at Poland Spring and Portland, Maine.

MRS. E. C. REGISTER DIES SUDDENLY HERE

Death Caused by Stroke of Apoplexy.—Funeral Services in Charlotte Tomorrow.

Mrs. Lavinia Montgomery Register, of Charlotte, widow of the late Dr. E. C. Register, died here this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Sherrill.

Mrs. Register suffered a stroke of apoplexy about 7 o'clock this morning while dressing and never regained consciousness. Her right side was affected by the stroke.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock from Tryon Street Methodist Church, Charlotte, of which the deceased was a member. Interment will be made in Elmwood Cemetery beside the body of her husband.

Mrs. Register was 63 years of age, being a daughter of the late Judge W. J. Montgomery, of this city. She spent her girlhood and young womanhood here, moving to Charlotte soon after her marriage to Dr. Register here on January 5, 1887.

Surviving are one brother, Dr. J. C. Montgomery, of Charlotte; one sister, Mrs. Sherrill, of this city; two half sisters, Mrs. Fred C. Correll and Mrs. Hazel Witherspoon, of Greensboro; and two half-brothers, W. J. Montgomery, of Concord, and C. R. Montgomery, of Greensboro.

Mrs. Register was actively identified with the social, civic and religious life of Charlotte for thirty years. Perhaps no other woman in Charlotte was more widely known or more universally beloved and many measures of sympathy have been received by relatives here since the announcement of her death was made.

Mrs. Register came to Concord Thursday to attend the district D. A. R. meeting, remaining over after the meeting to visit Mrs. Sherrill. She planned to return to her home in Charlotte this morning.

For a number of years Mrs. Register had been suffering with high blood pressure but there were no indications when she retired last night that her condition was serious. When called this morning she responded that she would be ready in a minute. Later she was found in an unconscious condition in the bedroom.

Mrs. Register was actively identified with the U. D. C., the D. A. R. and other women's organizations, and for a number of years she had devoted much time to the Confederate veterans of Mecklenburg county.

During her residence in Charlotte she was a member of Tryon Street Methodist Church, being recognized by all as one of the most prominent and most influential members of the church.

CONCORD ELEVEN TIES SALISBURY IN 7-7 SCORE

Locals Make Touchdown Score After Game Starts When Recover Salisbury Fumble.

Concord High played Salisbury to a 7-7 tie Friday afternoon in an exciting match at Salisbury.

According to reports brought back from that city, the locals gained approximately three times as much ground as did the Rowan eleven but the freak decisions kept Concord from scoring more than seven points. However, after taking the ball over for a second touchdown, fumbled behind his own goal line, a Salisbury player recovering. The ball was then taken up to the twenty yard line for some unknown reason, it was said.

The locals scored soon after the beginning of the game. A fumble by Salisbury on the thirty-yard line gave Concord a chance to score which they did on straight line plays. Point was made after touchdown by McInnis on a place kick. The Concord line failed to hold Salisbury and they made a touchdown later in the game.

TENNIS MATCHES ARE CLOSE AND HARD-FOUGHT

Easley Beats Arrowood in Surprise Victory and Nims Takes Leslie Bell Into Camp.

Tennis matches at the Y. M. C. A. Friday were among the best ever seen on the local courts. With the completion of Friday's games, the first bracket was finished to the semi-finals.

In the morning, Livingston Easley upset dope and defeated R. S. Arrowood in a contest which took an unexpected turn. Mr. Arrowood took the first set 6-4. Easley won the second 6-4 and in the final set, Mr. Arrowood had five games to Easley's none when Easley staged a comeback and took the set 8-4.

Horace Nims beat Leslie Bell, former champion and last year's runner-up, Friday afternoon in a hard-fought match which went to the three-set limit. The scores were 6-4, 3-6, 6-3. Games in the second bracket will be played early next week.

WAR MOTHERS GIVE DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

The Girls Get Together and Show the Town Just What an Original Entertainment Is.

You can't down those War Mothers. When things were getting a bit dull in the old town for the want of a box supper, a lawn party, or a home talent play, they concluded it was about time that they pulled off some entertainment, and therewith turn an honest penny for their chimes fund, or their hospital fund, or for whatever fund they are raising money at the present time.

The War Mothers are not lacking in originality. It is not for them to follow after others in producing amusements. They pulled off something entirely new and presented their "kitchen orchestra" to the delectation of their audience. The affair was a howling success.

Those who were not present can hardly visualize a score of elderly women, many of whom have silver hair, getting up before an audience and blowing diligently for a period of an hour on the gazoo. Not only did they blow their gazoos but they had them all decorated, made to look like regular orchestra instruments. Some had coffee pots on their gazoos, others had flour sifters, dippers, egg beaters, funnels, and quart cups. It was truly a rare sight.

The girls entered from the rear of the High School Auditorium in march step, blowing "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" as they filed down the two aisles. After reaching the stage, they gave an orchestration of Dixie. They went through the program without a hitch, showing the effects of the diligent practice of last week.

Not all of their program was funny, however. On one occasion, when the Mothers sang the chorus of "Old Black Joe," there came a hush on the audience. The sweet voices of the silver-haired ladies made a distinct impression on the listeners and at the conclusion of the song, there was a brief pause before the burst of applause.

Visiting artists also assisted with the program. Miss Lois Crowell and R. E. Ridenhour, Jr., gave a delightful rendition of the old ballad, "Keys of Heaven." Mrs. C. B. Wagoner was effective in two selections; Miss Helen Patterson was charming in negro spiritual numbers; and Mrs. H. G. Gibson sang beautifully a group of songs. Mrs. H. S. Williams delighted the audience with two readings.

War Mothers included Mrs. John K. Patterson, who, costumed in a gown reminiscent of colonial days, sang, "When You and I Were Young, Maggie;" Mrs. J. C. Fink who gave a "cornet" solo, "Juanita," and Mrs. John Ritchie, who gave a delightful reading.

The program and personnel of the orchestra was as follows:
Professional: Tramp, Tramp, Tramp—Orchestra.
Duet: Keys of Heaven—Miss Lois Crowell and R. E. Ridenhour, Jr.
Orchestra: Old North State.

COTTON IN ADVANCE OF LAST YEAR'S CROP
County Statistician Gives Figures Showing That 6,723 Bales Have Been Ginned to Date.
Proof that the cotton crop is far in advance this year over last year's crop was given this morning when it was learned from George Lee, county cotton statistician, that prior to October 1st this year, 6,723 bales were ginned in Cabarrus while to the same date last year only 745 bales were ginned.

Owing to the excessive drought of the past summer cotton was advanced noticeably, the ginnings giving indication of how great an advance was made. It is declared by farmers that the crop will be short, there being only one picking on most of the stalks.
