LOCAL MENTION

Receipts have been made out and the tax books are now open to the public, according to Charles N. Fields, city tax collector.

Judge John M. Oglesby spent the week-end in Concord, returning to Asheville where he will preside at the sessions of the Buncombe County Superior Court for the next two weeks.

Dr. James A. Baggle left Sunday night for Baltimore and Richmond where he will attend clinics this week. He will return to Concord during the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Clifford Klutz is recovering nicely from the operation which she had performed last week for the removal of her appendix. She is in the Charlotte Sanatorium.

The Citizens Bank and Trust Co., commissioner, has sold to J. W. Stallings for $5,565 property on North Union street, according to a deed filed Saturday. Another deed records the sale of property in Ward 2 by M. W. Lyles to D. A. McLaurin for $4,000.

Devey and Marvin Mayberry, of Elkin, charged with violating the prohibition law, will be tried in recorder's court here this afternoon. They will be tried by a jury. One other case, in which the defendant is charged with being intoxicated, will be tried this afternoon.

One more victory will give Washington the baseball championship for the year. By defeating the Pirates Saturday and Sunday the Senators ran their string of victories to three, with Pittsburgh having but one victory. The teams are playing in Washington again this afternoon.

A telephone has been installed at the fair grounds, the number being 804. Persons wishing to confer with fair officials during the week can get them most of the time during the day by calling this number. A Western Union office will be opened at the grounds tomorrow.

Carolina found Duke easy Saturday, running up to 41 points and holding Duke scoreless. South Carolina defeated State 7 to 6 while Davidson was defeating Guilford and Wake Forest was winning from Lehigh-Rhine. Georgia Tech defeated Penn State at New York, showing a fine brand of football.

Fall weather seems to be here to stay. The low temperatures which became evident several days ago continued over the week-end, making overcoats and other wraps very necessary. Snow in the mountains is believed to have brought the colder weather, the mountains in the western part of the state being covered with two inches of snow.

Persons who filed with Dr. T. N. Spencer a list of rooms for rent during fair weeks are requested by him to rent the rooms when persons call for them. "I haven't time to call everyone and tell them I have sent strangers to them for rooms," he said, "but I give the strangers the addresses and persons who want to rent rooms will please do so without further orders from me."

Sentiment here seems about evenly divided on the Cole case. Those persons who wanted Cole to be freed based their arguments on the "unwritten law" while those who wanted him convicted argued that juries in North Carolina should make their decisions on the law and not on sentiment. Most persons heard discussing the case today expressed the belief that Judge Finley will not hold Cole for insanity.

The Star Theatre will on Wednesday and Thursday, October 14 and 15, show "Dante's Inferno," the pictureization of the greatest book on earth. It carries an all star cast. Through hell with Dante on the road to happiness. A spectacle of drama and beauty. It's a Fox special. This picture should show for 25c and 50c, but this theatre is only charging 10c and 25c admission. Don't miss this one.

Marriage licenses have been issued to the following couples: Alfred H. Backwelder, of Route No. 5 and Miss Annie Pless, of Bost Mill; Henry Burr and Miss Gladys Parker, both of Kannapolis; Robert Lee Mullis and Miss Annie McGinnis, both of Route No. 6; David G. Thought They Knew Lord's Prayer. Col. Henry Hall, the veteran Washington correspondent, tells an amusing story of the remarkable ignorance of two congressmen of fundamental religious matters. They were out in the lobby after the session had adjourned and Jack was joshing Mac on his very religious strain of the last speech he had inflicted on the house. "I'll bet you $5," said Jack, "you can't repeat the Lord's Prayer now."

"Done!" cried Mac, and thinking a moment he began: "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep; If I should die before I wake I pray the Lord my soul to take." "There, I told you I could," "Well, I give up beat," replied Jack, paying over the money. "I wouldn't have thought you could do it."

Jackson—"The idea of letting your wife go about telling the neighbors that she made a man of you! You don't hear my wife saying that." Johnson—"No; but I heard her telling my wife she had done her best."
