New Sleeve

Behold here a new sleeve that Paris finds very interesting for a change. The upper part keeps to the narrow shoulder line that makes for slenderness, while the lower part is full and flowing and makes for becomingness. It is particularly lovely in velvet or satin.

Surprise Birthday Dinner

On October 9th, Misses Lillian Graham and Louise Irvin gave their aunt, Mrs. J. C. Johnston, in No. 3 township, a surprise birthday dinner. The occasion was her 58th birthday anniversary. About 11 a. m. they gathered in with well filled baskets of dinner, which was greeted by all about 57 persons being present. Those enjoying the occasion were: Rev. and Mrs. Barnes, of No. 3 township, Rev. R. S. Arrowood, of Concord, D. A. Lowder, Frank Boone, Mrs. T. M. Irvin, Otho Irvin, Mrs. Maude Xancey, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Irvin, and family, Mrs. J. L. Irvin and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Irvin and children, Mrs. A. H. Irvin and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Jarvis and daughter, Mrs. O. R. Gardner and daughter, Mrs. Minnie Irvin Johnson and daughter, Mrs. Laura Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Will Irvin and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Graham and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Graham and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnston and Miss Katherine Bradford Johnson.

Sifford-Morton

A beautiful yet simple wedding ceremony was performed Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Morton, of China Grove, when their daughter, Nellie, became the bride of Mr. Luther Sifford, of Suggers.

The ring ceremony of the Methodist Church was performed by Rev. Mr. Harris, of China Grove.

Only the members of the families and a few close friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Sifford will make their home in Portsmouth, Virginia.

Auto fatalities in 1924 were only 11.0 per 100,000 inhabitants as compared with 13.2 in 1923, in spite of the increase in the number of automobiles.

PERSONAL

Herman Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Moore, returned home Wednesday night after spending three years in the Hawaii Islands. Misses Beattie and Essie Carpenter and Eva Shires, of Lincolnton, Miss Vera Woford, of Gastonia, and Shelton Hasty and Claude Rhyme, of Gastonia, were the guests of Miss Lillian Hamilton Sunday.

F. R. Hill, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. W. L. Hopkins on West Depot street, left this morning for Richmond, Va. Mrs. Hill will remain here for a few days, then she will join her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fisher have returned from visiting their uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fisher, of Washington, D. C., and cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Will Manning, of Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. A. Jones Yorkie has returned from Baltimore, where she took her mother, Mrs. L. P. Best, who has been ill for some time. Mrs. Best's condition is very much improved.

Clifford Porter, of Black Mountain, is in Concord visiting relatives.

Adam Klutz, of Mt. Airy, is spending several days in the city visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Klutz.

Miss Delma Hesperger, of Jamestown, N. Y., arrived in Concord Monday. She will have charge of kindergarten and expression work.

KINDERGARTEN TO OPEN WEDNESDAY MORNING

Miss Hesperger Makes Plans For Year's Work in This And in Expression.

The Kindergarten and School of Expression will open Wednesday at the Y. M. C. A., the Kindergarten holding its first sessions at 9 o'clock and the Expression Class meeting at 3 in the afternoon. Miss Hesperger has already arrived in the city to take charge of the work.

In the kindergarten class, Miss Hesperger plans to introduce very simplified expression work and also some dramatic work. There will be parties every two weeks, especially on holidays and special events.

A preliminary meeting of the Kindergarten was held this morning at which time a number of the children were present with their mothers to meet Miss Hesperger and to talk over the work for the coming year.

Monthly recitals will feature the work in expression, at which time only the parents and friends will be present. There will be two large recitals, however, which will be open to the public. The classes meet daily from 9 to 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

SLIPPERY PAVEMENTS CAUSE AUTO ACCIDENTS

Report of Serious Smash Near the "Tourist Inn" When Studebaker and Truck Collide.

Slippery pavements, given an oily coating as a result of this morning's rains, were responsible for more than the usual number of daily auto crashes today.

Although very little definite information could be secured, reports brought to the city by persons coming here from Charlotte indicated that there had been a wreck near "Tourist Inn" at Harrisburg, of a serious nature. It was stated that a truck and a Studebaker automobile collided, with the Studebaker getting the worst of the smash.

The Studebaker, it was declared, was smashed almost beyond recognition and the persons in it were badly injured. This last rumor could not be verified, however. The injured persons were taken to a Charlotte hospital.

In Concord, Bell and Harris corner, a favorite place for smashes, was again the scene of a wreck, a tourist car and a local car running together in rounding the turn. No one was injured and the cars were able to pull away after a brief argument on the part of their owners.

All over the city there were small damages to cars when light collisions occurred when brakes failed to stop the automobiles. There were no reports of any damages further than bent fenders.

Johns Hopkins was a Baltimore merchant, bachelor and Quaker. He founded the university that bears his name because he believed only two institutions would endure—a university, for there will always be youth to train; and a hospital, for there will always be suffering to relieve.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. REGISTER

Great Outpouring of Friends For Beloved Woman's Funeral.

Charlotte Observer. Scidion has so sincere and extensive a tribute been paid here to the memory of a departed citizen as that rendered Sunday afternoon to the memory of Mrs. E. C. Register, Tryon Street Methodist Street church was filled to capacity with hundreds of persons from Charlotte and other communities, youth joining with old age in expressing to a small degree the genuine grief felt in the passing of a beloved woman.

Representatives from many organizations attended in a body, among them being Confederate veterans, in whose behalf Mrs. Register labored long and lovingly, returning affection for affection. Exquisite floral designs attested in a mute way the love and esteem in which she was held in many places. The church at the church was hidden beneath the fragrant tokens while the burial plot was banked high with flowers after the body had been tenderly returned to the bosom of Mother Earth to await the final call of the Omnipotent.

Church Crowded

The body was brought from Concord, where Mrs. Register died Saturday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Sherrill, after a brief illness, an hour before the funeral services and was placed in the church. Friends and acquaintances who had felt the touch of her tender hands and heard the kindly voice began gathering early, and by the hour for the service every seat was occupied and many persons were standing, others being unable to get in. Rev. J. H. Barnhardt, pastor of the church in whose service she was diligent for 38 years, gave a beautiful eulogy of the life and works of Mrs. Register, speaking of her sympathy and vision, of her lofty spirit and abounding love for her neighbor. The choir rendered "Rock of Ages" and "Abide With Me" and Mrs. Lillian Homesley Bott sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go."

The funeral cortege from Concord was met at Sugar Creek church by several automobiles and was escorted to the church. A great throng gathered about the grave in Elmwood cemetery following the church service, rendering the final homage. Mr. Barnhardt conducted a brief service. The autumn sun was low in the west when the last design of flowers had been placed on the grave and many friends remained to shed a final tear and offer up a silent prayer for the rest of a great and noble soul.

Many delegations. Attending the rites were delegations from the Mecklenburg chapter, D. A. R.; Stonewall Jackson chapter, U. D. C.; Mecklenburg camp, United Confederate Veterans; Susanna Wesley Bible class; Y. W. C. A. board of directors; circle No. 7 of the Tryon Street Methodist Women's Missionary society, and the United Home.

Organizations sending flowers were the Stonewall Jackson chapter, U. D. C.; Julia Jackson chapter, Children of the Confederacy; Mecklenburg camp U. D. C.; circle No. 7, Susanna Wesley Bible class, the rooms at Mrs. Register's home; boarders at Mrs. Brantley's house, where Mrs. Register boarded; directors of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A.; Mixpath chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Charlotte Woman's club, Mecklenburg chapter, D. A. R.; directors of the Old Ladies' home, James Lane chapter, U. D. C.; directors of the Mecklenburg home, "Blks" club, directors of the Associated Churches; and many other floral tributes were paid by Pettus the florist and other individuals.

Visitors Here. Among the out-of-town persons here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sherrill, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Correll, Mr. and Mrs. William Sherrill, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Archibald, Mrs. J. H. Whitespoon, W. J. Montgomery, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Houston, Miss Mt. Adams, Miss Lucy Richmond Leatz, W. R. Odell and C. B. Wagoner, of Concord; Shakespeare Harris, of Cabarrus county; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Laney and Mrs. Cheatham Winchester, of Monroe.

Mrs. Register suffered a stroke of paralysis Saturday morning at her sister's home and died soon afterwards. She was almost 63 years old and had lived many years at Charlotte, being prominently identified with many phases of the city's activities.

To Protect Honor

Lexington Dispatch. It is a rather queer twist of logic that one man will kill another to protect the honor of a third person, yet the public at large takes the view that this is not infrequently done. The trouble of it is that such killing rarely protects the honor of anyone. Why don't we be fair enough with ourselves to admit that if we should kill under similar circumstances it would be because we felt so outraged that we were willing to kill to avenge ourselves, to appease our wrath, if you please?

After the killing is over it is usually the case that no scandal is too grave to drag out and parade before the whole world in order to save the life or liberty of the killer. The instinct of self-preservation after all is based as the impelling motive. One is willing to put another out of the way to protect the honor of himself or a member of his family sometimes, but is also willing to advertise the whole story to the world to save his own hide. If "honor" killings really accomplished their purpose, instead of aggravating the wounds they are supposed to heal, then there might be more sense to them.

If there is anything to be said on the side of the "honor" killings it is that they are signposts to warn fools to keep off of forbidden ground. They should warn those who do not regard the sanctity of a man's home, the honor of his family, that there is a penalty that hangs over their heads that may at any time be loosed by the desire for vengeance on the part of the wronged.

LOCAL MAN INSTALLED PASTOR IN BALTIMORE

Rev. C. P. MacLaughlin Spends Day in Concord After Preaching Sermon Sunday.

Rev. C. P. MacLaughlin, former pastor of St. James Lutheran Church and now pastor of an Atlanta Church, spent Tuesday in the city, making a stop-over here on his way back from Baltimore, where he was present Sunday at the installation of Rev. O. F. Blackwelder, a native of Concord, as pastor of Christ Church.

The installation services were unusually impressive. Mr. MacLaughlin, who was pastor of St. James Church at the time Mr. Blackwelder decided on the ministry, preached the sermon to the congregation. Rev. Edward Paley, of Salisbury, who confirmed Mr. Blackwelder, preached the sermon to the pastor. The words of installation were spoken by Dr. L. A. Zimmerman, former pastor of Christ Church. A congregation of 1500 persons was present.

Mr. Blackwelder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Blackwelder, of this city, and has been heard here a number of times. He is a graduate of Roanoke College and has served only one congregation since he finished at the seminary. His work in the Virginia Heights Church was unique and it was from there that he received his call to the Baltimore congregation.

The Christ Church congregation is one of the largest Lutheran congregations in the city of Baltimore. There are 1800 members with a large field for increase. There is no adult Sunday School because of a lack of space. The church was founded and presided over for 38 years by Rev. L. A. Zimmerman, the retiring minister.

THOUSANDS SEE FIRST RACES AT THE FAIR

Maggie Lacy Won Pace Race While First Place in Trot Event Went to Jackie. Fully seven thousand persons witnessed the opening races at the fair grounds Tuesday afternoon, the program offering the 2:19 trot and the 2:22 pace.

In the former first money went to Jackie, owned by H. Upshur, of Eastville, Va., and driven by Scott. Second money went to Ray Woodland, owned by Lee Smith, of Birmingham, and driven by Smith. The best time of the race was 2:15 3-4. Other entries in the race were Senator Symbol, owned and driven by Dale Beck, of Denver, Col., and Baron Knight, owned by E. T. Cannon, of Concord, and driven by Rogers.

The best time in the 2:22 pace was 2:19 1-2, the race being won by Maggie Lacy, owned and driven by S. Smith, of Birmingham. Second place went to Muzzle, owned by H. L. Upshur, of Eastville, Va., and driven by Scott. Other entries were Bonnie Bell, owned and driven by M. S. Hodgen, of Atlanta, and Leroy O'Connor, owned by H. A. Goodman, of Concord, and driven by Poage.

A pony race, won by Joseph F. Cannon, Jr., was an added attraction of the races. First place in this race was bitterly contested for, the winner's nearest rival being "Jimmie" Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Cannon, of Charlotte.

The race program each afternoon will begin at 1:30 and the fastest races of the week are planned for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Sunday School Institute at Cold Springs

We will hold our Sunday School Institute for No. 9 township at Cold Springs Church on next Sunday, the third Sunday in October. Song service by the different choirs at 2 o'clock, institute proper at 2:30.

Let every Sunday school be well represented, in order that we may have the most enthusiastic, best, and largest institute ever held in No. 9.

All the departmental superintendents will give us ideas of the work in the different departments of Sunday School work which they represent.

PRICES

Tut! Tut!

Last week came a man who "doesn't have to watch his pennies" but who owns barrels of them—because he makes every one count.

"If your prices are not too steep, I'll buy a suit today—but I won't pay a farthing over $40," was his speech to us.

"You don't even have to pay $40—for we have cabinet after cabinet of fine suits to fit you sir, at $32 and $35," we replied.

Prices—tut, tut,—at BROWN'S—they are too reasonable to reason with.

Roberts-Wicks Suits ----- $25.00 to $45.00
Roberts-Wicks Top Coats ----- $25.00 to $40.00

Concord and Kannapolis Gas Company

Chats With Your Gas Man

Customers sometimes ask us: "Why is the heating value of gas so much higher in summer time than it is during the cold winter weather?" They seem to think that gas like everything else gets cold in winter.

The fact is that the heating value of gas is actually higher during cold weather than it is during hot weather. The reason for this is that the heating value is increased one per cent. for each five per cent. decrease in temperature of the gas.

However, the starting temperature of the food and water that must be heated in cooking will be colder in winter than in summer; therefore, a larger quantity of heat will be needed to bring the food or water to the boiling point. This explains, briefly, why more gas is used for cooking in winter than in summer.
