IT COULDN'T BE DONE

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
But he, with a chuckle, replied
That "maybe it couldn't, but he would be one
Who wouldn't say so 'till he'd tried."
So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin
On his face. If he worried he hid it;
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done—and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that,"
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,
And the first thing he knew he'd begun it.
With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done—and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,
There are thousands to prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you, one by one,
The dangers that await to assail you.
But just buckle right in with a bit of a grin,
Then take off your coat and go to it.
Just start to sing as you tackle the thing
That cannot be done—and you'll do it.
