LOCAL MENTION

Regular weekly moving pictures are to be shown tonight at the Y. M. C. A. An unusually good program has been prepared for the occasion.

The contribution of the First Presbyterian Sunday school tomorrow has been designated to go to the support of Barium Springs Orphanage.

The public is invited to hear Rev. C. Herman Trueblood, of Thomasville, at the First Baptist Church here tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The regular monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held in the Legion Club rooms Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Police officers of the city this morning stated that they had no new business to report. No cases were docketed for trial in recorder's court Friday afternoon and business with the officers has been very quiet during the entire week.

Officers stationed at the fair grounds have had little to do this week. A few arrests have been made, the defendants being charged in most instances with being intoxicated, but no serious disorder has been reported and the conduct of the crowds has been exceptionally good.

Two township Sunday School Institutes will be held in the county tomorrow. The first will be held at 2:30 P. M. in Cold Springs Church for No. 9 township and the second will be held at 3:30 at the Lutheran Church in Mt. Pleasant for No. 8 township. The public is invited to the institutes.

Arrangements have been completed to have the boys' harmonica band, of Salisbury, appear in Concord on the Halloween celebration which is to be staged here October 30th. Teams will also be sent from Salisbury to compete in the various athletic events on that day.

The extension work which is to be given in Concord this winter under the direction of North Carolina College for Women, will begin Monday when Prof. L. B. Hailey will take charge. The course is to be in Shakespeare and is to be given at Central Graded School.

A district meeting of the State Teachers Association for 20 counties in this section of the State will be held in Charlotte next Friday, Friday night and Saturday. A large delegation of teachers from this city and county expect to attend the sessions of the meeting.

Mrs. Mittie E. Tomkinson has sold to H. C. Ridenhour property on East Corbin street for $6,000, according to a deed filed Friday at the court house.

Two other deeds filed Friday record the sale of property on the Concord-Charlotte highway by the Concord Bonded Warehouse and Realty Co. to H. D. Fowler for $276 and $306.

There are no football games of much interest in the State today. Davidson and Presbyterian College meet in Rock Hill in a game that will draw a big crowd. Furman and Georgia play at Augusta in one of the biggest games in the South. In the east two games stand out—Yale and Pennsylvania, and Notre Dame and the Army.

Sheriff R. V. Caldwell, Jr., states that he has everything in readiness for the October term of Cabarrus Superior Court which will convene here Monday morning with Judge H. P. Lane presiding. Court will be in session for two weeks, the first week to be devoted to the trial of criminal cases.

Public schools of the city closed at 12:30 Friday afternoon so the students could have another whole afternoon at the fair. The schools observed a holiday on Tuesday when educational day was observed, and on other days classes were dismissed a little earlier than usual for the benefit of the children who wanted to go to the fair grounds.

Press Pretty Much In Accord as to Cole.

Raleigh Times. Comment by the press of North Carolina on the verdict in the Cole case ranges all the way from placid acceptance to vehement denunciation of it as a mockery of justice and an invitation to a citizen who can secure able counsel to shoot his way out of personal harassment. There is almost no commendation for the jury, however, and the few papers who announce themselves as content with the verdict are not markedly enthusiastic. With a unanimity that is most unusual, the daily press voices the conviction that the law and the evidence were disregarded and the jurors failed to discharge their sworn duty.

There is no abuse of Cole and no attempt to maintain that a poor man could not have got away with it. The fear is expressed that almost any sort of man could have done the same thing and been acquitted. There is no time wasted in berating the lawyers; the editors generally feel that the fault lies in the attitude of the whole citizenship toward law, which is reflected more accurately by a jury than by any other agency in the administration of justice.

Nobody contends that the verdict points the way toward prompt and efficacious treatment of the offenders against society. But then nobody has discovered a way to do anything about it, either.

A Good Trade Is a Cash Asset

A good trade is a cash asset. The printing trades need more workmen. There is a shortage of more than 5,000 linotype operators in the industry. Machine compositors earn from $35.00 to $60.00 per week. The Southeastern School of Printing, Nashville, Tennessee, teaches linotype or monotype operating and mechanism, by intensive methods in from six to ten months; also hand composition and press work. No previous knowledge of the printing trades necessary. Only school of its kind in the South endorsed and accredited by the American Newspaper Publishers Association. Young men and young women are enabled to earn a good wage by taking this training. Send for large illustrated catalogue with full particulars. Southeastern School of Printing, 508 Union Street, Nashville, Tennessee. 15-tf.

TOM SIMS SAYS

Our prediction of the coldest winter ever is based on the fact that all winters are that cold.

It takes a pair of dreamy eyes to keep a man awake.

Some men tell their wives every thing that happens, and some even tell them some things that don't happen.

A man is a person who gets mad when the barber doesn't guess how he wanted his hair cut.

Perhaps a third of our cuss words were invented by men while washing it was payday.

If you only knew it, the man at the bottom of a lot of things spends most of his life up a tree. (Copyright, 1925, NEA Service, Inc.)

Muscle Builder for November a Macfadden publication, holds "The Fifty Thousand Dollar Muscles in My Fingers" of Harry Gardiner, known as the "human fly" and who at fifty-five plans to climb up the outside of the Woolworth building, in New York City. "How Boxing Helps Me Keep My Job at 53" by Arthur Leslie, world's champion strong man of his age, who tells why boxing should be mixed with business. There is another chapter in "Stealed by Struggle" "The Muscle of Matt McGrath" tells how New York's star traffic cop and champion at shotput and hammer-brow built his brawn.
