MARTIN BOST CASE IN CABARRUS SUPERIOR COURT

Prominent Farmer Being Tried Again For Death Last Year of Jesse Vandenberg.

The second trial of Martin Bost, a well known farmer of this county, charged with the death of Jesse Vandenberg, his neighbor, started in Cabarrus Superior Court Tuesday morning, the entire day being taken up with the presentation of testimony.

Bost was found guilty of killing Vandenberg when tried in Superior Court here last year, the Supreme Court granting a new trial.

Schlichter Zeb V. Long announced in open court Tuesday at the beginning of the trial that the State does not ask for a verdict of first degree murder, but asks for a verdict of second degree murder or manslaughter.

The State rested its case Tuesday after introducing several witnesses. Bost was the principal witness introduced by the defense, his testimony being similar to that he offered at the first trial. He said he shot Vandenberg when the latter advanced on him with an axe.

The tragedy occurred at the home of Bost south of Concord, Vandenberg having spent the entire day of the homicide with Bost. The State sought to prove in the first trial that Bost shot without provocation, and in the present trial the State supports the same contention.

Hayden Clement, of Salisbury, and M. B. Sherrin, of Concord, are assisting with the prosecution. The defense is represented by Hartsell & Hartsell, J. Lee Crowell and H. S. Williams. At the first trial the prosecution was aided by John M. Ogleby, now Superior Court judge, and T. D. Mauss, who died several weeks ago.

The jury hearing the case is composed of W. M. Petrea, G. S. Winecoff, R. L. Burrage, L. D. Moore, G. A. Beaver, W. H. Cox, B. W. Durham, E. D. Arrowood, R. L. Yow, J. F. Hahn, T. F. Whittington and Walter Yost.

SEVERAL ARRESTED AS RESULT OF ROBBERY

Three Men Charged With Having Part in Robbery of Cochran & Brown's Store.

Police officers report that several arrests have been made in connection with the recent robbery of the Cochran & Brown store at the Roberts Mill, and other arrests were made impossible by the departure from the city of several other men.

Clarence Teeter, it is reported, was the first man arrested in connection with the case, and he is still in jail, being unable to give bond. Jess Poplin was arrested Tuesday by officers and is charged with receiving stolen goods, the officers charging that tobacco they found in his store on Franklin Avenue came from the Cochran & Brown store.

Officers also report the arrest of Ed Kellough in connection with the case, he also being charged with receiving stolen goods.

Four other men who are said by officers to have had a part either in the robbery or in the disposal of the stolen goods, left the city several days ago.

Cochran & Brown's store was robbed on the night of October 9th, goods valued at $700 being taken.

KANNAPOLIS CUTS OUT HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Takes Too Much Time From School Work—Planning to Get Busy on Basketball.

Kannapolis will be without football, according to information received in Concord, for the rest of this year.

Much weeping and gnashing of teeth have accompanied the elimination of the sport from the list of that high school's activities and athletically inclined students will have to turn their attention to basketball.

Reports about the cause of the taking football out of the schools are somewhat vague. The one which has gained most credence is that the authorities were loath to have their charges miss as much work as would be necessary if the schedule were carried out in its entirety.

It seems that half a day holiday was needed for the members of the team to use in journeying to the places where they were to play. There was some question whether or not this was justified and so the sport was stopped.

Kannapolis had a very successful season up to the time the fall sport was stopped. Their last game, with Belmont Abbey, resulted in a tie with the score at 6-6 which was considered a moral victory for the high school team.

Basketball will be started at an early date and it is thought that the Cabarrus county boys will be able to be among the serious contenders for state championship this year.

Back in 1892 Martin Costello and Alex Gregains, two heavyweights of considerable reputation, fought 80 rounds before one of the Coney Island clubs for a purse of $2,000. The fight lasted more than five hours.

SOUTHERN POWER BIDDERS TURBINES FOR STEAM PLANT

Officials of the Southern Power company at Charlotte, Thursday afternoon announced the letting of a contract for 120 50,000-horsepower steam turbines for the recently announced new steam-electric plant of the company to the General Electric company of Schenectady, New York.

This order is the first to be placed for the equipment for the huge new steam-electric plant plans for which were estimated upon two or three weeks ago at a conference between the late James B. Duke, Vice President and Chief Engineer W. S. Lee, and Vice President and General Manager Chas. I. Larkholder of the power company at Mr. Duke's summer home at Newport, R. I.

It is interesting to note that the new plant is to be of 100,000 horsepower instead of 80,000 horsepower as was originally planned, the executives of the company evidently deciding that a 100,000 horsepower plant would fit better into the completed Southern Power system than the 80,000 horsepower plant considered at first.

Negotiations are already in progress for the other equipment and apparatus that will be necessary for the proposed plant which, it has been announced, will be of the most modern and efficient design. The steam turbines ordered this afternoon will be among the largest machines of this kind in service in the country, there being few steam plants utilizing machines of larger size or of this size.

The announcement made by the officials of the Southern Power company is regarded as the first concrete evidence of the purpose of the various Duke enterprises to "carry on" as though the late chief were still alive and in harness. No one has doubted that it would be otherwise, as Mr. Duke had made the statement, himself, before his death that his passing would in no way effect the development planned for the various enterprises in which he was interested.

While definite announcement of the location of this gigantic steam plant has not been made it is understood here that an option recently taken on the Love Honbar farm, just across the Yadkin River in Rowan county was secured with a view to locating this plant.

Charlotte had understood the plant would possibly be put on the Catawba river, but inasmuch as the company has no steam plant east of Charlotte the probability of its location on the Yadkin is believed to be increased.

The Western Display company of St. Paul, Minn., again gets the contract. The corporation furnished the
