Legion Auxiliary Meets Monday Evening

An interesting meeting of the Legion Auxiliary was held Monday evening in the Legion club rooms, being one of the best held recently.

Reports from the sale of sandwiches at the fair were heard and the amount cleared was given. It was decided that a banquet should be held in November for the purpose of stirring up interest among the members and also in stimulating interest in new members.

It was decided to send the ward of nurses, which the local Auxiliary helps at Oteen, a box of favors on Halloween. In this connection it was reported that the victrola which sent them some time ago had been paid for.

Future meetings of the Auxiliary are to be held at the homes, the next one to be held with Miss Addie White.

War Mothers in Regular Meeting.

The War Mothers met in regular session Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of Mrs. John L. Miller, on South Spring street. Twenty-five members braved the chilly winds and gathered around the blazing hearth to discuss matters of interest to all. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. J. L. Hartwell.

The treasurer reported $39.50 received from the concert given by the Kitchen Orchestra. This amount has been added to the Chimes Fund. The sale of forget-me-nots was very successful, $130.40 having been received. The money received all over the county from this source is used for the benefit of our sick and disabled soldiers.

Because of many urgent requests the War Mothers voted to repeat the concert recently given. It will be given in the High School Auditorium October 28th.

2. No cut in rate on incomes below $10,000.
3. Repeal publicity clause of present revenue act.

5. A Constitutional amendment to prevent States and cities from issuing tax-exempt securities.
6. Repeal theatre and all admission taxes.
7. Reduce present automobile taxes by $25,000,000, substituting a method to make automobiles "pay their way."

NEW ATHLETIC FIELD READY FOR USE FRIDAY

Gastonia Game Will Be First Played on Remodeled Ground.—Cost Over $1,500.

Friday's game of football between the locals and Gastonia will mark the opening of Concord's remodeled athletic field at the high school. Although no christening ceremonies have been planned, it is probable that the players will do their bit toward making a suitable opening.

The field is now a real A-1 ground. Last year, the first time it had been put to such use, it was one of the best in this section of the state. A naturally hard soil with a fine sand covering and excellent drainage insuring a dry ground, all contributed to its above-par condition.

There were some few objections which have been removed and it is now easily an outstanding field in high schools of the state.

Running, as it does, adjacent to Academy street, there was always the difficulty of collecting money from spectators. They could step off the street on to the field. A cyclone fence, of the type used for mills and other manufacturing plants, has been erected. The fence is strong its steel posts having been placed in concrete foundations. On top is a projecting projection of barbed wire to keep off climbers.

Then too the field has been enlarged. The hill leading up to the high school building has been cut back for a distance of about forty feet, giving plenty of space for a baseball diamond in the same location it was last year. The fence does not run at the foot of the hill but is placed a short distance up the hill which will mean that aspiring home run hitters will have to shoot hard to get one over.

Wide gates will make sufficient entrance and egress for spectators at the games. A higher fence at the back of home plate will allow fewer foul balls to find a resting place in the branch than is customarily the case.

The fence, which is the most expensive item in the newly constructed field, was purchased at a cost of over $1,500. It was decided at the August meeting of the school board to erect this fence and work was rushed to completion.

Although no grandstand will be constructed in the immediate future, plans are underway to build one to accommodate spectators next year. Members of the school board declare that in several year's time, Concord may boast of as good a field as is found at any place in North Carolina.

LOCAL HARDWARE STORE HAS INTERESTING WINDOW

Stuffed Birds and Animals Make the Ritchie-Caldwell Display Unique.—Pheasant Featured.

One of the most interesting window displays which has been seen in Concord recently is that shown at present in the Ritchie-Caldwell Hardware Store, featuring a number of stuffed birds and animals.

The scene depicted is a woodland picture with birds and animals arranged in positions very true to life.

The floor of the window is covered with leaves. Playing under an oak sapling is a rabbit, the cottontail half covered with leaves and evidently hiding from nearby dogs. In another corner of the window is a small covey of quail, seemingly in the act of feeding.

In the center of the stage, occupying the position of honor, is a ring-necked pheasant, a bird of brilliant plumage. Around its neck is the ring of green and purple feathers while the general color of its body is a sort of golden brown. Its tail is sweeping, with graceful curves at the end of the feathers.

This bird, according to M. F. Ritchie, was killed in Pennsylvania. Although a very beautiful creature, it drives out other birds and for that reason is little desired in any section by sportsmen.

In the oak tree are two squirrels while on the stumps beneath are a hoot owl and a hawk. The persimmon tree has its opossum, as would be expected. A dove is also perched high on one of the twigs of the oak tree.

Mr. Ritchie's first gun, a battered muzzle loader, is lying in the window alongside some of the newer guns placed there for advertising purposes.

OVERMAN RARY BURIED TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Kannapolis Youth, Killed Sunday in Auto Accident.—Negro Held For Preliminary Hearing.

Funeral services for Overman Rary, 17-year-old Kannapolis youth, who was killed Sunday when motoring on the Concord-Salisbury road, were held Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at a church in Rowan county near Salisbury.

A negro named Townsend is held in connection with his death, it being said that the black has confessed to being the driver of the Cadillac which struck the car in which Rary was riding. A preliminary hearing of the case will be held Thursday in Salisbury, Townsend being held for this.

According to reports in Kannapolis, the negro declared that he was driving for a white man from Charlotte whose identity was unknown. The white man has not been caught.

Although the racing season in the North is drawing to a close, there will be no letup in the sport during the Winter months. Florida, where the sport was introduced on a first-class basis last year plans an even more ambitious program for the coming winter, while extensive preparations are being made for the customary meetings at Havana, New Orleans and Tijuana, all of which begin about Thanksgiving Day. According to an announcement the stake offerings at Tijuana will set a new high record for the Coffroth track.

Willie Hoppe's showing in his early-season exhibition games indicates that he has lost none of his master of the ivories.

EDUCATIONAL DAY AT THE COLORED FAIR

Splendid Address by Dr. N. S. Harris, Pastor A. E. Zion Church

Dr. N. S. Harris, pastor of the Zion Hill A. M. E. Zion Church, delivered a masterful address at the Fair Grounds Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock.

The occasion was the opening day of the third Annual Fair of the Colored Association of Cabarrus County. The address was indeed a masterpiece, timely, instructive and inspiring to the hundreds of negro youths holding prominent seats in the grandstand as guests of the association. Frequent applauses and "Amens" were heard from the audience who gave assent to the speaker's views as he proceeded.

Selecting as his subject "Education Our Economic Salvation," Dr. Harris discussed it under the following "topics": Instructive, Speculative, Operative and Moral Education.

The speaker emphasized the need of the Negro to think out a plan or proposition before acting. "Action without forethought is like an untrained horse rushing into a furious battle without a rein to guide him." "Civilization is the outcome of education, whose zenith is enlightenment." The speaker then called attention among other things to the importance of the elementary schools and the large appropriations made by the state for Negro education. He would have the colored people take advantage of educational opportunities. He saw, further, the need of better rural schools, longer terms, better teachers, paid better salaries and above all keeping the children in school.

"Nowhere in the world can a people show their good breeding and usefulness to their country more advantageously than they can in their home and church life. The speaker then emphasized the building of better homes and churches.

Speaking of Moral Education, Dr. Harris said: "It is the supreme quality of humanity." "It is that which put the finishing touches on one's life and fits him for leadership." He then pleaded for honest, clean, industrious and trustworthy citizenship.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. F. T. Logan, who was introduced by Rev. H. Wilson, Master of Ceremonies.

The Fair will continue all week. A football game Thursday afternoon between J. C. Price High School and Badin High School, the former of Salisbury, the latter of Badin. This will perhaps draw another big crowd to the fair grounds.

REV. H. WILSON.

Quite a number of free dowries for prospective brides are distributed annually in England. One of the best known is the Bute Marriage Portion, which amounts to about $250. It represents the interest on a fund set aside by the Marquis of Bute to commemorate his silver wedding. The recipient must be a girl of good repute, engaged to some worthy young man, but unable to get married owing to lack of means.
