The Magic Carpet.

Once upon a time in the mystic land of Persia, there was found among the treasures of a king, a wonderful carpet. One had only to sit on it, wish to be somewhere, and away the carpet would fly till the wished-for place was reached. For hundreds of years it carried kings and princes upon the most amazing adventures. No one knows what finally became of it, but it may be that its last threads went into the makee-up of the first Youth's Companion. For, like the Magic Carpet, The Companion for 1920 carnies you to the land of your heart's desire—up into the Maige woods with the lumbermen; out on the western plains where the warlike Na

A GROUCH NOT WANTED.

These is nothing so harmful to success as being a grouch. Stomach, liver and intestinal trouble make one grouchy. Mayr's Wonderful Remedywill help overcome these and usually gives complete results.

Our advice to everyone troubled in this way, especially when accompanied with bloating in the stomach, is to try this remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which caused practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. At the Gibson Drug Store and druggists everywhere.

Charlotte, Oct. 20.—Dr. J. E. Abernethy, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, in his sermon Sunday morning, severely denounced anarchy and scathingly rebuked all forms of law-lessness, as evidenced by matters of court record—the statistics of which is enumerated, showing a crime wave, which he sahl was astounding. He laid the blame on the spirit of anarchy abroad and the failure of officers and courts, in some instances, to bring the guilty parties to justice; the lack of exercise of the responsibility of parents, the press, schools and the charches. The speaker rapped the moving pictures. It many instances, he stid, pictures were shown that excited the youth. "A few pictures are all right, but a very large percent of them are only evil continually," he said.

One of the prime causes of law-lessness and anarchy, thouga the speaker. One is liberty to be right and liberty to do right.

In conclusion, Dr. Abernethy said that if all this be true, the obligation that rests upon us as a people are great beyond measure and great beyond degree. First, the great responsibility of parpents, and, while the world is making frogress along many lines, yet our family government appears to be retrograding. There are many young people who seem to know no law and have no respect for government. Children should be taught that was the sessential, and taught the spreame importance of obeying all laweing the family government, the sapene importance of obeying all laweing the property of the sapene importance of obeying all laweing the family government, he said.
