IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

PAVLEY-UKRAINSKY INIMITABLE DANCERS

Two Russians Stand Out as Leaders in Ballet.—Girls Compared to Great Pavlova.

Andreas Pavley and Serge Oukrainsky, two Russians who came to this country some years ago and established themselves as premier dancers at the Chicago Opera and as directors of a successful ballet school, have become international favorites. After ten seasons of brilliant achievements in the sphere of terpsichorean art, their organization now stands supreme among traveling ballets. Scheduled for an appearance in Concord on November 24th the Pavley-Oukrainsky Ballet Russe with principals, corps de ballet and symphony orchestra will be seen in all its glory with the two stars at the head. Pavley inherits his love for dancing. As a pupil of famous European ballet masters, he combines rhythm and technique to such a degree as to be almost unbelievable. He is not only one of the most finished and noted dancers of the day but distinguished for manly strength and beauty, grace and agility, as well as a rare creative imagination. Moreover, he is a remarkable producer. As head of the Ballet Russe, he not only trains his small army of artists but supplies many of the dances and writes not a few of the divertissements. His associate, Oukrainsky, is likewise a great dancer and organizer, and is said to be the only person in the world able to perform on his bare toes.

The Pavley-Oukrainsky Ballet Russe is presenting this season, following brilliant appearances with the San Carlo Grand Opera Company in New York, Boston and Philadelphia, a series of captivating ballets and divertissements which are claimed by critics to be of bewildering beauty and sumptuousness, exquisite in detail and artistically conceived. Moreover, the company is composed of lovely American girls trained by experts and forming a corps de ballet unsurpassed in grace and beauty. Principals, too, whom artists have likened to the great Pavlova, are developments of the Pavley-Oukrainsky ballet school, which was created for the purpose of supplying finished dancers for the Chicago Opera ballet and which now is taken far and wide as the Pavley-Oukrainsky Ballet Russe, traveling hither and thither, from one country to another, as the call may come. Such wondrous ballets, so inimitably presented, have stirred the larger cities of both continents to a greater appreciation of the choreographic art.

EQUIPMENT OF STREET RAILWAY IS REMOVED

Poles and Wires of N. C. Public Service Company Being Removed by the City.

Acting under recent orders of the board of aldermen, city employees are removing poles and power lines of the North Carolina Public Service Co. in this city. The aldermen were advised that the equipment had become a public menace and for that reason it is being removed.

The work is being done under the supervision of L. A. Fisher, head of the Water and Light Department of the city. The work is being done, however, under instructions of the city officials and not under instructions from the Water and Light Board. Mr. Fisher was asked to supervise the work because of his knowledge of electrical equipment.

Already wires of the public service company have been removed on several streets, and some poles also have been taken down. The work will be rushed to completion, it is said.

The street car line was abandoned here several weeks ago and the aldermen, apparently working on the assumption that the line will not be used again, ordered the equipment removed when J. E. Smith and Frank Hand, city officials, recommended that such action be taken due to the fact that the public service company would not repair the equipment which they considered dangerous.

County Market to Open October 31st. The County Market which was run last winter will again open on October 31st in the county building on Church street. This market which we can point to with pride, has been the means of our town women having a place where they can buy everything fresh, also sold on a guarantee, and our county women a place where they can convert their surplus into cash. The county women who are our best supporters are the ones who won most of the prizes at our county fair.

Beginning October 31st, our market will be open every Saturday at 8 o'clock.

One of the most successful of the growing band of society shopkeepers in London is Mrs. Arthur Coke, a daughter-in-law of the Earl of Leicester. Unlike most of the society women in trade, however, Mrs. Coke did not go in for millinery or gowns, but opened a retail grocery store.

Crippled and unable to walk as the result of an accident in early infancy, Miss Anna Pugh is nevertheless one of the most active women in her home town of Granite Falls, Wash. Miss Pugh fills the office of city treasurer, serves as city librarian, and in her spare time keeps books for a transportation company.

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT COURT HOUSE TODAY

Service Held in Honor of Late T. D. Maness, Prominent Attorney of the City.

A memorial service for the late T. D. Maness, prominent member of the Concord bar for a number of years, was held today at 12 o'clock at the court house. The program was arranged by members of the Concord bar, the noon hour being designated by Judge Henry P. Lane, presiding at the present term of Cabarrus court, as the hour for the service.

Several members of the bar, men who labored for years with Mr. Maness, spoke briefly at the service, extolling the virtues and deeds of their departed comrade. Judge Lane also spoke.

The following resolution drawn up by a committee of the bar association, was read at the service:

Whereas, God, the great giver of life, has ended the earthly life of Tola D. Maness, a prominent member of the Concord bar, and

Whereas, we, the members of the Concord bar desire to record our deep regret at his passing and to give proper appreciation of the life of our deceased brother,

Therefore, Be it Resolved by the members of the Concord bar assembled in the Superior Court of Cabarrus County, at October Term, 1925,

First: That in the sudden death of Mr. Maness in the prime of life we are forcibly reminded that, our lives are in the hands of the great ruler of the universe, who is infinitely wise, whose mercy endureth forever, and that we meekly bow to the will of the Creator who giveth life and hath power to take it away.

Second: That in the death of Mr. Maness the Concord bar has lost an able and energetic advocate, whose zeal for his client was unsurpassed; the city of Concord has lost a leader in civic reforms and improvements; his church has lost a member who was loyal to the work of his denomination and gave liberally to the support of the church and its causes.

Third: That we tender our sincere sympathy to the bereaved widow, the aged father, the brother and sisters in their hour of grief.

Fourth: That a page of the minutes of the Superior Court be inscribed with these resolutions in token of our appreciation, and dedicated to the memory of our deceased brother.

Respectfully,
FRANK ARMFIELD,
L. T. HARTSELL,
MORRISON CALDWELL,
Committee.

EAT TOO FAST

South Carolinian Took Black-Draught For Indigestion, and Says He Could Soon Eat Anything.

Ballentine, S. C.—Mr. W. B. Souknight, of this place, gave the following account of his use of Bedford's Black-Draught.

"Just after I married I had indigestion. Working out, I got in the habit of eating fast, for which I soon paid by having a tight, bloated feeling after meals. This made me very uncomfortable. I would feel stupid and drowsy, didn't feel like working. I was told it was indigestion. Some one recommended Black-Draught and I took it after meals. I soon could eat anything any time.

"I use it for colds and biliousness and it will knock out a cold and carry away the bile better and quicker than any liver medicine I have ever found."

Eating too fast, too much, or faulty chewing of your food, often causes discomfort after meals. A pinch of Black-Draught, washed down with a swallow of water, will help to bring prompt relief. Bloating, sensations, eructations, bad breath and other common symptoms of indigestion have disappeared after Black-Draught has been taken on several days. NC-164
