LOCAL MENTION

P. G. Cook is confined to his home on account of illness.

Rev. W. C. Lyeerly, pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, will preach to the boys of the Jackson Training School Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. R. J. Phillips, who underwent an operation in Salisbury some time ago, is recovering nicely, reports from the hospital state.

Regular church services will be held at Central Church Sunday, with the morning and evening service by Rev. R. M. Courtney, new pastor of the church.

Dr. S. E. Buchanan has finished moving and is now living in her newly constructed home on South Union street a short distance below Tribune street.

Mrs. Marshall Teeter, who returned from Wats' Hospital in Durham Sunday, has been sent to the Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte for a blood transfusion. She is said to be in a serious condition.

Graham Prince and his Victor Recording Orchestra proved a pleasing innovation Thursday at the Concord Theatre. This group of musicians was among the best jazz artists appearing in the city in recent years.

We were wrong in our deductions about freezing temperatures Thursday morning, several persons inform us. One man said there was ice at his home in large quantities and he also reports temperatures of 28 degrees early Thursday morning.

The condition of Mrs. R. J. Phillips, who underwent an operation in a Salisbury hospital Wednesday, is reported today as improved. Mrs. Phillips has been resting very comfortably since the operation and a speedy recovery is predicted for her.

Police officers this morning stated that no session of the recorder's court will be held this afternoon. Several cases have developed since the last session of the court Wednesday but all have been continued until Monday afternoon.

According to a deed filed at the court house Thursday, E. J. Wine-coff has sold to R. V. Caldwell, Jr., property in No. 4 township for $24,500. The property is located in the neighborhood of the Winecoff High School.

Temperatures here rose a little during the night, but they dropped again during the day. The weather prophets continue to predict 'falling' weather for the week-end, and there were many signs of snow here early today, although none fell. Continued cold weather is promised for tomorrow.

Rev. Boyce Talbirt, former resident of this city but at present a resident of Rock Hill, S. C., will preach at the First Baptist Church here Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Talbirt has many friends in Concord and he undoubtedly will be heard by a large congregation when he speaks Sunday.

Nevin Sappienfield, star quarterback for the Davidson football team, who suffered a broken leg in the first game of the season several weeks ago, returned to his home here this week. Following the accident he was carried to a Charlotte hospital, where he underwent treatment. His condition is reported as greatly improved.

While the regular detour starts at the China Grove Farm Life School and continues on to Salisbury, many persons are using the old stage road from Concord to Salisbury while the regular highway is being paved from China Grove to Salisbury. The old stage road is said to be in fair condition.

Extensive changes and improvements are being made to the parsonage of Central Methodist Church, the work being under the supervision of the women of the church. Rev. R. M. Courtney, new pastor of the church, will move his family to Concord until the repair work has been completed.

The 'Trip to High Point College,' arranged by the young people of the Methodist Protestant Church, will be staged tomorrow night from 7 to 8 o'clock at the home of D. A. McLaurin. All members of the Methodist Protestant Church and others interested are invited. Hallowe'en stunts will be provided. There will be no admission charges.

Spooks, goblins, witches and other weird figures will be prominent on the streets of Concord tonight on the eve of Hallowe'en. Most of these ghost-like figures will make the Y. M. C. A. their headquarters for there the big Hallowe'en carnival will be in full swing. The festivities started at the Y this afternoon and will continue late tonight. You are invited to take part.

After two years of watchful waiting, residents of the city were startled to learn today that the State Highway commission had finally decided to pave the short stretch of road under the underpass on the Concord-Kannapolis Highway. Announcement has been made that work will begin Monday and will be completed by Saturday. Traffic will be detoured on the old roadway.

DR. TORREY WAS ONCE IN DARROW'S CLASS

Famous Evangelist Once An Antagonist But Now Firm Believer. Charlotte, Oct. 27.—That he was once in Clarence Darrow's class, an agnostic, was admitted by Dr. R. A. Torrey, the noted evangelist, in the foreword to his sermon last night on "Way I Believe the Bible to Be the Word of God," delivered before an audience that filled the auditorium of the First Presbyterian Church.

"I did not always believe the Bible to be the word of God; I sincerely doubted that it was," said the speaker. "I doubted that Jesus Christ was the Son of God. I was not an infidel, I was a skeptic; I was not an atheist, I was an agnostic."

Thus spoke the evangelist who is here to conduct a two weeks' service preaching every afternoon at 8:30 o'clock and every evening at 7:30. "The most important question in religious thought is this, 'Is the Bible the Word of God?'" said Dr. Torrey. "If the Bible is the word of God, an absolutely trustworthy revelation from God Himself, then we have a starting point from which we can proceed to the conquest of the whole domain of religious truth."

"I am going to give you some reasons why I believe the Bible to be the word of God. They will prove conclusive to any candid seeker after the truth. They will not convince one who is determined not to know the truth, or who is unwilling to obey it. If one is searching for the truth, no matter how completely he is in the fog today, he can be led into the truth."

"I believe the Bible to be the word of God, first, because of the testimony of Jesus Christ, to that fact. He has set the stamp of his authority upon the entire book, and if we accept his authority, we must accept all that upon which he sets the stamp of his authority. "As to Christ's endorsement of the Old Testament, turn to Mark 7:13. Jesus has just quoted from the law of Moses, not merely from the Ten Commandments, but from other portions of the law of Moses as well. He has set over against the teaching of the Pharisees and the Scribes, and in this verse he says, 'You do make the word of God of none effect through your tradition.' Here he distinctly calls the law of Moses the word of God. It is often said that the Bible nowhere claims to be the word of God. Here Christ Himself distinctly asserts that the law of Moses is the word of God. If, then, we accept the word of Jesus Christ we must accept the law of Moses. Of course this only covers the first five books of the Old Testament, but if we can accept this, we will have little difficulty in accepting the rest. For it is over this portion of the Bible that the hottest battle is being fought today."

"In Matthew 5:18 Jesus says, 'Till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law until all be fulfilled.' In John 10:35 Jesus says, in quoting from one of the Psalms, 'The Scripture cannot be broken,' thus setting the stamp of His authority upon the absolute irrefragability of the Old Testament. In Luke 24:27 you will read that Jesus, beginning at Moses and all the prophets, expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself." In the 44th verse of the same chapter he says, "All things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses and in the prophets and in the Psalms." In Luke 16:31 Jesus says, 'If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one be raised from the dead,' thus, in the most emphatic way, endorsing the truth of the Old Testament.

What Is the Motive of Crime?

It is interesting in these days when everybody is discussing the widespread prevalence of crime and how it has become a matter for national consideration to inquire into the reasons behind all of the stupefying and staggering array of statistics tending to show how vastly has increased the criminal practice among the people of this country.

Definite statistics are furnished by the warden of Sing Sing who bases the information as to the motive of criminals upon his investigation among the 2,200 inmates of that institution, but it is reasonable to assume that what is true with the prisoners there would be generally true with all of them throughout the country.

The fact that 777 of these men were total abstainers from liquor and only 440 indulged does not show that crime is not caused by drink. It merely shows that in 777 cases it was not. It is rather a shock to find that 888 of them were native born, while only 329 were aliens. Still, comparing the total number of native born residents of New York state with the a ten population the proportion favors the native born.

One set of figures seems appropriate; 670 were single as against 502 married. Significant also is the fact that 785 were employed and only 432 were idle; many social students have long contended that unemployment was not a serious crime cause.

The most distressing concern the large number of first offenders; 733, as against 423 criminals. That means that the ranks of criminality are being augmented at fearful speed. The figures do not include the average age of first offenders or their previous environments. They would have been helpful to penologists.

An Impossible Task.

SC. MARRS (Ohio) Evening Leader. We are often wish that we might be able to run this newspaper in a manner that would conform to the ideals of everybody or of all the diversified elements which make up the newspaper's clientele. What a happy condition of mind and body it would be to know and realize that nobody is calling us names, that nobody is picking flaws in or finding fault with the policy of the paper. It would be like a heaven on earth, to be sure. We try, in our weak way, to treat people fairly; to do those things and to print those things which tend to bring the least pain and sorrow to fellow-beings; as a fact, to spread sunshine in as many dark places as possible. But it is impossible to please everybody; it is impossible to avoid creating antagonisms; impossible to run the paper as everybody would have it run.

Those who imagine that the running of a newspaper is "one grand, sweet song" of peace and happiness; those who imagine that they could run the paper without stepping on somebody's corns; those who imagine that they could make a success in the field of journalism without expressing opinions that run counter to some other people's opinions; those who imagine that they could run the paper in a way that would please everybody, ought to get astride the editorial tripod and try the experiment. It may be possible that they have missed their calling and that the Supreme Architect of the Universe, when He blew into their nostrils the breath of life and they became living souls, really intended that they should be editors. It may be that the men, including the writer of these lines, who have spent almost a lifetime at the editorial desk trying to please everybody, are mistaken and have mistaken their calling. Who knows?

Smaller Towns Furnish Students.

Greensboro, Oct. 30.—(AP)—Indicative of the fact that the majority of the students at the North Carolina College for Women come from the smaller towns and rural districts is the fact that only 378 of the more than 1,000 students come from the ten North Carolina cities from which enrollment is greatest. The ten cities having the largest representation, with the number from each, follows: Greensboro 144; Salisbury 99; Asheville 98; Wilmington 94; Charlotte 90; Goldsboro 90; Raleigh 21; Elizabeth City 16; Winston-Salem 15; and Gastonia 13.

CHATS WITH YOUR GAS MAN

If an inch were cut off the bottom of every Chinaman's shirt it would reduce the price of cotton a cent a pound, it is said. If as much care were given to gas ranges, water heaters and other appliances as is lavished on the family fivver, there would be a noticeable reduction in gas bills.

When the cylinders of your automobile become filled with carbon you have it removed. But when your range or heater burners clog with carbon, dust and lint, you often go on using them just the same. Poor combustion and higher gas bills result.

Remove and boil gas range burners once each month. Thoroughly clean all gas heater burners before winter and several times during the heating season. Gas is the most efficient fuel on earth, if rightly used. How clear are your appliances?
