

Another Big Prize Is Offered In Campaign

Times and Tribune Add a Ford Coupe to List of Prizes to Be Given Away In Their Campaign.

NEXT EIGHTEEN DAYS IMPORTANT

Ford Will Be Given to the Person Turning in the Most New Business During Next Vote Period.

Will wonders never cease? After having some weeks ago announced the opening of a campaign in which they are now giving away $10,000 in four big automobiles and thousands of dollars in cash, The Concord Tribune and Times today announce a new campaign within the bigger one in which they will give absolutely free of anything but effort a brand new Ford coupe, of the very latest model. It is one of those dark green new coupe products of the Ford factory, a dashing looking and dependable acting enclosed car with all the conveniences dear to the motorist. It has been purchased from The Reid Motor Company of Concord and even carries with the reputation of that live selling organization for service.

New One Way Win. And this wonderful coupe is to be the property of some worker in the Tribune-Times already famous campaign, one already entered and working for one of the original prizes, or it may be won by a brand new candidate who has never done a thing in this contest. All this will be accomplished by some one in the short period of 18 working days, or a period of time extending over the third and fourth periods of the campaign—November 2 to 21, inclusive. Just stop and figure that this means $35 per day to the ambitious person who sees this thing through and wins the Ford coupe.

Then here is another, wonderful thing about this competition for the Ford coupe. It is not impossible, nor even improbable that the one who wins it will also capture one of the original grand prizes of the campaign, for every subscription to The Tribune or Times, which must be by to count for credit of the Ford coupe, will be counting regular votes on the regular prizes and at the same time will be summing up what are to be known as points toward the Ford coupe.

All Start Out Even. It is a two-fold opportunity, one in which someone stands to win, not only a wonderful gift as a $210 Buick Buick, a $1410 Studebaker Phaeton, a $1335 Hudson Coach or a $938 Chevrolet Sedan, but also can win to any one of these, or any of the other original prizes, the amount of $621.15, which, by the way, is what this wonderful little Ford coupe costs. And everyone is starting out today on an absolutely even footing for this special prize. No one has a lead now.

Here is an unexpected chance for late starters, or even brand new contestants, to make up for the regrets many have felt for putting it off, or not even starting at all. No one has any advantage on you and you will be building up a vote score for one of the regular prizes while you are striving for the Ford coupe. No, there is not a single prize that is impossible of attainment in this campaign, even now. Maybe you are one of those people who remember of having read some such statements of this made earlier in the campaign and were so long in being convinced of their sincerity that here it is the first period before you want to believe and get your share of these prizes. Here is your last chance to ever start on an equal basis with all the rest and it can mean a brand new wonderful Ford coupe for you in only three weeks.

Even Greater Generosity. We have believed all along that The Tribune and Times were more than generous in the dazzling array of prizes they offered in the first of the campaign, even more generous than it seemed they were justified in being for the response that resulted. Yet here we are with the announcement of an added automobile, a new Ford coupe, to the already large list of awards, and this latest to be won in only 18 days of effort. Think of it! That means $35 a day to the winner. It is worth striving for when you have the extra urge of knowing that all the time you are working for The Ford you are also piling up votes toward The Buick, The Studebaker, The Hudson, The Chevrolet, or one of the purchase of $200 or $100 in gold.

Chance For Regretters. Again we wish to call the attention of all those who have regretted not having entered this campaign to the fact that here is the opportunity to set your conscience at rest. Here is the chance to do something for yourself, the time to get into the competition while there is genuine opportunity for making at least $35 a day for yourself for the next 18 days. There are loads and loads of people who are not now on the subscription lists of The Tribune and Times whose business will count you double value toward the Ford coupe and one of the original prizes offered. Let's go now, at top speed, for the next three weeks and be riding in our own car at the end of that brief time.

TURKISH TROOPS MOVING ON MOSUL

It is Reported the French Have Given the Turks Permission to Cross Syrian Territory.

London, Nov. 2.—(AP)—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Beirut, Syria, says large bodies of Turkish troops are moving toward Mosul from Turkey. The Daily Express has a similar report. It put the number of Turks at 5,000 and alleged that the French had given them permission to cross Syria. The report said Great Britain had protested to the French government. The suggestion is that the French command in Syria are favoring the Turkish preparations to check British action against the Mosul boundary.

JOHN SPRINGS MYERS DIES IN CHARLOTTE

Prominent Citizen of Queens City, Passes After Long Illness. Charlotte, Nov. 1.—John Springs Myers, father of Mrs. George Stephens, of Asheville, and a prominent citizen of Charlotte, died this afternoon at 5 o'clock at his home in the city after a long illness. He was a son of the late Colonel and Mrs. W. R. Myers, of Charlotte, and was born November 1, 1847, at the home of his maternal grandfather, John Springs, at York, S. C.

He survived by his widow, and five children: Mrs. Stephens, of Asheville; R. A. Myers and Rawlinson Myers, of Charlotte; Mrs. Harold C. Dwell, of King's Mountain, and Woodard Myers, of Conely Springs. Also surviving him are three sisters, Mrs. Hamilton C. Jones, Sr., Mrs. C. L. Hunter and Mrs. W. P. Myers. He served as a soldier for 20 years and was the first citizen to donate land for a park in Charlotte. For 50 years he was a vestryman of St. Peter's Episcopal church, being senior warden. He was the first to vision Myers park, and which had belonged to his father, and which was named for the family. He served in the legislature in 1883. He married Miss Mary Rawlinson, of South Carolina.

Take "Beauty" Out of Barber Shops. Hartford, Conn., Nov. 2.—In Connecticut a man may no longer have the pretty manicure fix up his nails while he is getting shaved and having his hair bobbed, nor can the flapper have her hair bobbed to cabaret accompaniment. Under a ruling of the state board of hairdressers and cosmeticians effective today, barber shops must henceforth remain barber shops and beauty parlors must be something else again. Manicuring or hairdressing shops must be in an entirely different room from barber shops, and if operated by the same proprietor must have separate outside entrances.

We say it is worth it and find ourselves wishing at times that we were on the other side of the fence so that we could get out and work for one of the handsome prizes. And we don't mean maybe.

Here Are the Conditions. So that you can thoroughly understand the conditions of this competition for the Ford coupe, let us state all angles. It is to be understood first of all that nothing but NEW subscriptions to The Concord Tribune and Times will count points on the Ford. All renewal business or old subscriptions, however, will be counting votes on the regular list of prizes just the same as ever, under the schedule of the period in which they are turned in. By points we mean the system of credits that has been arranged under which the Ford coupe will find its ultimate owner. This system of points will be found in the full page advertisement which appears on another page of this issue in which the announcement is made.

A word to those candidates who have been carrying on in this battle of votes is here in order. This added special prize, the $921 Ford coupe, to the already large list of awards, and this latest to be won in only 18 days of effort. Think of it! That means $35 a day to the winner. It is worth striving for when you have the extra urge of knowing that all the time you are working for The Ford you are also piling up votes toward The Buick, The Studebaker, The Hudson, The Chevrolet, or one of the purchase of $200 or $100 in gold.

Chance For Regretters. Again we wish to call the attention of all those who have regretted not having entered this campaign to the fact that here is the opportunity to set your conscience at rest. Here is the chance to do something for yourself, the time to get into the competition while there is genuine opportunity for making at least $35 a day for yourself for the next 18 days. There are loads and loads of people who are not now on the subscription lists of The Tribune and Times whose business will count you double value toward the Ford coupe and one of the original prizes offered. Let's go now, at top speed, for the next three weeks and be riding in our own car at the end of that brief time.

BUS WAS NEAR ITS DESTINATION

Was Crossing A. C. L. Tracks Near the School House in Mahunta, Ga., When Accident Occurred

Mahunta, Ga., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Six were killed and at least 24 children injured when the Atlantic Coast Line fast New York to Florida train No. 81 crashed into a loaded school bus at a grade crossing here shortly after 8 o'clock here this morning. The bus, which collected rural children in the vicinity, was nearing its way to school when it was struck in section by the train. The force of impact scattered the children about the track and road.

The bodies and the injured children were placed on board a special A. C. L. train and hurried to Waycross where they were sent to a hospital. L. Roy Strickland, 18, the driver of the bus, is said to be seriously injured. Up until 9:30 o'clock the families of the children were unaware of the tragedy. Parties were being organized here to call on the families who live from two to seven miles away to inform them of the crash.

BARN BURNED TO HIDE A MURDER?

Headless and Footless Charred Body Recovered as Alibi.

Albemarle, Nov. 1.—The headless, footless and charred body of a white man lies today in a local undertaking parlor, with no evidences of its identity. The body was found on the old Mabry place, about two miles north of the city. All present evidences and circumstances point to the fact that the man was murdered, and placed in the barn and the barn set on fire. Sheriff Furr and his deputies have spent the day in an attempt to learn something of the identity of the body and some clue to the person or persons who committed the crime, if crime it is. The body presents nothing by which it may be identified. The head is gone. Some shell-like bones may have been parts of the skull, the feet and hands and arms are gone. Loaves of both legs are severed, just above the knees. Sheriff Furr, who helped recover the body, says that in his opinion the body was mutilated and packed into some kind of container and carried to the barn.

At the knee, where the leg was bent, the flesh was not charred, and it was thus learned that the person was white. The body was found in the shed, where the heat could not have been so intense, it is said. No one lives on the farm but the owner of the barn states that the main barn was locked.

No word has come from any section roundabout of any person being missing. No suspicion rests on any local person for having committed the crime. The only clue found by Sheriff Furr are footprints of some persons leading to the building across fields. But this gives no clue of the person making the footprints. The trunk, legs and stubs of arms indicate a body of a rather small man. All circumstances point to a chasty murder, undertaken to be covered by arson.

It is stated that the body will be held a short time for possible identification.

No improvement is reported today in the condition of Mrs. D. L. Platt who is confined to her home on McGill Street by illness.

THE COTTON MARKET

Opened Steady Today at Advance of From 8 to 14 Points. New York, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The cotton market opened steady today at an advance of 8 to 14 points on covering and trade buying. Over-Sunday selling orders were readily absorbed, the market soon selling up to 18.54 for January contracts, or about 18.54 to 34 points net higher on active months. The disposition to take profits on short contracts after the big break last week probably was prominent by the proximity of the election day adjournment and the relatively steady showing of Liverpool. The comparative activity of trading for delivery next October featured in early dealings today, being the first trading in that delivery. Cotton futures opened steady: December 19.00; January 18.30; March 18.64; May 18.73; July 18.35.

MAN BEING HELD IN MURDER CASE

W. M. Pyrtle Held in Connection With Death of Pearl Childers Green in Hickory Suburb.

Hickory, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Pearl Childers Green, 21, known through this section as Mrs. Green and Miss Childers, was shot and killed last night while in her room at the Martin boarding house in Brookford, a suburb of Hickory. W. M. Pyrtle, an employe of the Brookford Mills, was arrested and is being held without bond on a charge of murder of the woman. The preliminary hearing is set for 2 p. m. tomorrow before City Recorder M. H. Yount.

Three witnesses testified before the coroner's jury which was assembled yesterday afternoon that Miss Childers had told of threats Pyrtle had made against her life. Pyrtle testified that he was in her room a few minutes before he heard the shot and said when he rushed back he found her on the floor dying.

OTHER OFFICIALS TO BE CALLED

Name of President Coolidge Did Not Appear on List of Witnesses the Defense Wants.

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Col. Wm. Mitchell, on trial by court martial as a result of his criticism of the conduct of the government air services today asked the court to summon Secretary Davis, of the War Department, and Secretary Wilbur of the Navy Department as witnesses. Several other high officials of the two departments, several members of Congress and more than sixty army and navy officers also were named by the defense in a list of those it would like to question. The name of President Coolidge did not appear on the list. The Colonel and his counsel after assessing the legal obstacles that would stand in the way of a subpoena for the President, had made up their minds not to try to summon him. It was apparent from the Colonel's action in seeking to bring cabinet officials and members of Congress into the trial that he hoped to thresh out in court the whole range of issues involved in the air controversy and thus present a justification for his charges that the air services had been administered with criminal and almost treasonable negligence. Whether the court will admit that procedure is questionable. The court proceeded with the actual opening of the trial without indicating whether it would summon those named on Col. Mitchell's list as witnesses. Another motion by Mitchell's counsel to dismiss the charges on the ground that the court had no jurisdiction was quickly rejected. Then the prosecution called to the stand as its first witness A. W. Yeager, reporter for the San Antonio Texas Light, to whom Col. Mitchell gave a copy of his San Antonio statement containing the accusations that led to his court martial.

ORDER TROOPERS TO THEIR ABODE

Asheville Cavalry Will Be Held in Readiness for Trouble at Trial.

Asheville, Nov. 1.—Members of Troop F, Cavalry, North Carolina National Guard, were tonight ordered to their armory to be ready for call in the event Adjutant General Metts or Sheriff E. M. Mitchell thinks their service is needed tomorrow morning when Alvin Mansel, negro, goes on trial on a charge of criminally attacking a white woman on Sunset Mountain, near this city. Indications tonight were that there would be no necessity for calling out the troops, but authorities said that everything would be in readiness should the slightest disposition be shown to cause trouble.

Judge A. M. Stack, of Monroe, who will preside over this week's term of Superior Court, arrived in the city this afternoon and was in conference with Solicitor J. Ed Swain tonight. Following this conference, it was said that Mansel will be placed on trial tomorrow. The negro is held in the Mecklenburg county jail at Charlotte and is not expected to be brought to Asheville before the opening of court tomorrow morning. Adjutant General Metts was expected to arrive in the city from Raleigh tonight and go into conference with Major E. F. Jones, who will be in command of any troops which may be called out. Major Jones is the cavalry troop commander.

TROOPS READY FOR EMERGENCY

Negroes Are Charged With Attacking Two White Women near or in Asheville Recently.

Asheville, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Surrounded by a detachment of National Guard troops and deputy sheriffs, Alvin Mansel and Preston Neely, negroes, charged with criminal attacks on white women were arranged in superior court here this morning. Shortly after Judge A. M. Stack took his seat on the bench, he ordered the crowded auditorium of the court room cleared, and told deputy sheriffs to readmit the audience one by one after they had been searched for weapons. Every precaution is being taken to prevent violence against the prisoners. Members of Troop F, N. C. National Guard, under command of Major E. F. Jones, mobilized at their armory yesterday and remained under arms all night. The troops passed through the business section this morning and a detachment of ten troops went to the jail to accompany the prisoners into the court room. A half dozen deputy sheriffs swelled the bodyguard. All were heavily armed. The method used in returning the prisoners to the city was not disclosed, but it was learned this morning that both Mansel and Neely were in the local jail. Mansel had been held at Charlotte and Neely was kept at Greensboro whence they were taken to thwart mob attacks. Judge Stack charged the grand jury this morning that it is to investigate the case wherein Neely is alleged to have attacked a woman in West Asheville section on Thursday, October 22. A special venire was ordered for the trial of Mansel who was indicted several weeks ago. As the crowd was readmitted no weapons were found, other than a few pocket knives of large size, which were confiscated by officers. In charging the grand jury Judge Stack said he intends to see that the defendants receive an impartial trial. If a defendant is found guilty when it is manifest to the court he is not guilty the verdict will be set aside. The judge said, Judge Stack said the time has come when the law must assert itself, and no infringement upon the scope or dignity of the law will be tolerated. The court ordered a special venire of 100 men from which the jury to try Mansel will be chosen. This jury is ordered to report in court at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, at which time Mansel's trial is expected to open. After the prisoners had been brought into court this morning three guardsmen seated themselves about the negroes. Other troops were in the auditorium. The soldiers are equipped with Springfield rifles and ammunition while officers are armed with pistols. Veteran attorneys said today this is the first time in their memory that troops have been used in a local court room to protect a prisoner. Mansel is slight of stature and is only seventeen years old. Neely is 23, black of skin, and ordinary size. Lyle Jones was appointed by the court to assist the defense of Mansel and Colonel B. S. Lusk was named to represent Neely.
