GUERRILLA WARFARE REPORTED IN SYRIA. Villagers in Damascus District Join in the Fighting.

London, Nov. 2.—(AP)—A message from Jerusalem to the national political league says that guerrilla warfare has spread over vast areas in Syria between Damascus and Hama, eighty miles north of Damascus on the railroad, and is shaking French control of the mandated region. Another message says that all villages in the Damascus district have joined the guerrillas who are besieging four towns.

Jerusalem reports also say that foreigners and native women are leaving Damascus by the thousands but that native men are forbidden to leave.
