LOCAL MENTION

The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The condition of Mrs. David L. Potts, who has been confined to her home on McGill street, is reported today as not being improved.

Miss Margaret Ford, county tuberculosis nurse, is confined to her home on Loan Street on account of illness.

S. O. Eddleman, formerly with the Concord & Kannapolis Gas Co., is now with the Reid Motor Co. He began his new duties November first.

Continued improvement is reported in the condition of Mrs. R. J. Phillips, who underwent an operation in a Salisbury Hospital last week.

The condition of Mrs. Ernest Hicks, who has been ill for some time, is reported now as improved. She was able to sit up for several hours Tuesday and again today.

Frank Mund, city building inspector, states that eleven building permits were issued in October for work aggregating $34,735.

Many laymen and ministers of the Methodist Protestant Church are in High Point for the 100th annual conference of that denomination in North Carolina.

Guy C. Miller has sold to C. W. Ritchie for $213 land in No. 8 township, according to a deed filed Tuesday.

Persons going to the Star Theatre today will be aiding the Crossroad School, for all proceeds at the theatre today go to the school.

The pipe line to the underpass on the Kannapolis highway, which is to be paved at once, has been laid out.

Only two cases are scheduled to be tried in re-arrest court this afternoon, police officers state.

Mrs. M. Colgin arrived in Concord this afternoon and will begin practicing tonight for the musical comedy, "Roseline," which is to be presented at the High School next week.

It is reported that several matters of importance will be presented to the aldermen of Concord when they meet at the city hall tomorrow night for their November meeting.

Clouds which brought threats of rain to the city during most of Tuesday disappeared during the afternoon and the weather during Tuesday night and today has been clear and cold.

C. county Agent R. D. Goodman and a number of Cabarrus farmers are planning to attend the sale of cattle which is to be conducted at Garibaldi farm, two miles from Charlotte, Thursday afternoon.

The great picture being shown at the Star Theatre today will be for the benefit of the Crossroad School. It is "The Great Diamond Mystery," featuring Shirley Mason.

Local cotton mills will not close at 6 o'clock tonight until Saturday noon as they have been doing for several weeks, the latest order of the Southern Power Co. allowing them to operate until noon tomorrow.

Volleyball enthusiasts are asked to meet at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 7:30 o'clock for an abridged conference in regard to setting a suitable hour for play.

Officials of the county health office are still trying to obtain the names and addresses of all children in the county who are crippled.
