WHITE HALL.

We are having some wet weather around White Hall and on Route 7. The White Hall Literary Society met on Friday, November 6. The debate was as follows: Resolved that the country is better than the city as a place for a child to grow up. The affirmative was upheld by Miss Viola Sides, and Mr. Roy Christenbury; the negative by Miss Dollie McDonald and Miss Lucille Barbee. The judges were Mr. Lloyd Garmon, Miss Ruth Kiser and Miss Annie Mae Sides. They decided in favor of the affirmative. The subject of the debate for the next meeting on Friday, November 13, will be, Resolved that a person should not give money to a beggar.

Miss Grace Kiser was given a surprise birthday party Saturday night. When Miss Grace returned from town to find a large host of friends present. After a few enjoyable games the boys and girls were served with cake and candy. They then played a few more games and left, wishing Miss Kiser many more such happy birthdays. Among those present were: Miss Dora Bundy, Miss Dovie and Miss Kate Bost, Miss Irene Menning, Miss Willona Linker, Miss Margaret Corine, Mr. Starn Monins, Mr. Harold Linker, Mr. Archie Ritchie, Mr. Claude Little, Mr. Hurley Thompson, Mr. Ralph Bost, Mr. Lonnie Stough, Mr. John Howell, Mr. Bright Kiser, Mr. Frank Eury, Mr. Clyde Litaker, Mr. Roy Christenbury and Mr. Harold.

School has been going on for just one month and we like our teachers fine.

A few more weeks and The Tribune-Times campaign will be over. Somebody is going to be the winner. We wish all of you good luck in the rest of the campaign.

Come on with your items, Roberta, we like to read them.

The high school boys and girls are having a time playing basketball now. They have not played a game yet this year.

CAROLINA KID.

Attention Venus. We were at Mr. E. R. Graham's a few days ago and went with Mr. Graham to feed his Berkshire sow, which is one of the finest hogs we have ever seen weighing 600 pounds and as beautiful as a catalog picture. We are sorry Mr. Graham didn't exhibit this hog at Cabarrus County Fair.

If he had one of the first prizes would have gone to the "Gandersburg Community." On arriving at the lot we noticed the trough was some 49 feet from the feeding place.

Mr. Graham quietly sat his bucket down and said, "go get your trough." The hog immediately went back and began to roll the trough up. About half way up she came in contact with a tree and quietly walked over, picked up one end and carried it around, then rolled it up and placed it. Then quietly looked up to Mr. Graham for the feed. We asked Mr. Graham how this was taught to the hog. He said her mother and grandmother before her were trough fetchers. He taught it to grandma. He went to feed her one day when it was very wet and muddy. He found the trough out of place and told grandma if she wanted dinner she would have to set the table. Grandma refused. Mr. Graham got a switch and laid on the old hog. She soon gave in and brought up the trough. It was never taught to the younger hogs. It was handed down to them through their grandma.

Now, Venus, if you can beat this, trot out your hogs.

GEORGEVILLE.

Toreador Is Caught by Bull

This unusual photograph was taken at a bull fight in Mexico City just as Silver, famous Mexican toreador was caught and gored by a bull. The head and shoulders of his startled comrade, who is just starting to his rescue, are seen in the foreground. Silver was seriously injured and at last reports was in a critical condition.

Funeral of Miss Ella Flowe.

Funeral services over the remains of Miss Ella Flowe, whose death occurred at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Flowe, last Thursday morning, was held from Boger's Chapel Friday at noon, conducted by Rev. Mr. Loftin, pastor of Boger's Chapel, of which she was one of the most beloved members. Friends and relatives from Charlotte, Salisbury, Concord, Rockwell, Kannapolis and the surrounding country, completely filled the church and many were unable to get inside.

Miss Flowe was just budding into young womanhood and had every promise of a long and useful life. She was at all times pleasant and to know her was to love her.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful; the grave was completely covered with handsome designs. The floral bearers were the young ladies of Miss Flowe's Sunday school class and the pall bearers were the young men of the Sunday school. The passing of this popular young lady has cast a gloom over the entire community, in which she lived and was loved. S.

Duke Wrestler Wins Match.

Durham, N. C., Nov. 9.—(P)—In a recent contest with a professional wrestler who was touring the country with a circus, William "Big Boy" Matthews, Duke University student, and a member of the varsity team, was victorious, throwing his man in three minutes and winning a cash prize.

The match which was held here, under the circus tent, was witnessed by several thousand people, including many students, who were enthusiastic supporters of the collegiate grappler, and delighted with the outcome of the match.

Hall-Mark

What is a hall-mark?

Years ago to insure the genuineness of gold and silver, the British Government granted to the Goldsmith's Company the sole right to determine the worth of coins and precious metals. A mark was impressed in the metal to indicate its genuineness. This marking was done at Goldsmith's Hall in London. Out of this grew the word "Hall-Mark" which became world-known as a stamp of genuineness.

Similarly, THE ASSOCIATED PRESS is the hall-mark of accuracy.

For clean, accurate news, read the dispatches labeled with one of the following hall-marks:
