THE CODE OF THE FLAG

When and How Displayed and Proper Salutation by Populace. By S. R. BIVENS

We have been reminded by several citizens that around November 11th, would be a good time to impress on the Union country people the importance of proper thoughtfulness and attitude toward the flag of the United States.

Code of the Flag. 1-The flag should be displayed only from sunrise to sunset, or between such hours as may be designated by proper authority.

2-When carried in procession with another flag or flags, the flag of the United States of America should be either on the marching right, i. e., the flag's own right, or when there is a line of other flags, the flag of the United States of America may be in front of the center of that line.

3-When displayed with another flag against a wall from crossed staffs, the flag of the United States of America should be on the right, the flag's own right, and its staff should be in front of the other flag.

4-When a number of flags of states or cities or pennants of societies are grouped and displayed from staffs with the flag of the United States of America, the later should be at the center or at the highest point in the group.

5-When flags of states or cities or pennants of societies are flown on the same halyard with the flag of the United States of America, the later should always be at the peak. When flown from adjacent staffs the flag of the United States of America should be hoisted first and lowered last.

6-When flags of two or more nations are displayed, they should be flown from separate staffs of the same height and the flags should be of approximately the same size.

7-When the flag is displayed from a staff projecting horizontally or at an angle from the window sill, balcony or front of building, the union of the flag should go clear to the peak of the staff, unless the flag is at half-staff.

8-When the flag is suspended over a sidewalk from a rope, extending from a house to a pole at the edge of the sidewalk, the flag should be hoisted out from the building toward the pole, union first.

9-When displayed over the middle of the street, the flag should be suspended vertically with the union to the north in an east-west street, and to the east in a north-south street.

10-When used on a speaker's platform, the flag, if displayed flat, should be displayed above and behind the speaker. If flown from a staff, it should be in the position of honor at the speaker's right.

11-When used in connection with the unveiling of a statue or monument, the flag should form a distinctive feature during the ceremony, but the flag itself should never be used as a covering for the statue.

12-When down at half-staff, the flag should be hoisted to the peak for an instant, and then lowered to the half-staff position; but before lowering the flag for the day, it should be hoisted to the peak again.

13-Flags flown from fixed staffs are placed at half-staff to indicate mourning. When the staff is displayed on a small staff, as when carried in a parade, mourning is indicated by attaching two streamers of black crepe to the upper end, allowing the streamers to fall naturally.

14-When used to cover a casket, the flag should be placed so that the union is at the head and over the left shoulder. The flag should not be lowered into the grave, or allowed to touch the ground.

15-When the flag is displayed in the body of the church, it should be from a staff placed in the position as they face the altar. The service flag, the state flag, or other flag should be at the left of the congregation. If in the chancel or on the platform, the flag of the United States of America should be placed on the clergyman's right as he faces the congregation, and the other flags on his left.

16-When the flag is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, it should not be cast aside or used in any way that might be viewed as disrespectful to the nation's colors, but should be destroyed as a whole privately, preferably by burning or by some other method in harmony with the reverence and respect we owe to the emblem representing our country.

Don'ts of the Flag. Do not display the flag with the union down except as a signal of distress.

Do not let the flag touch the ground or the floor or trail in the water.

Stewart's WASHINGTON LETTER

By CHARLES P. STEWART NEA Service Writer

Washington-The ways and means committee of the House of Representatives is an extremely important body but usually its deliberations attract little popular attention.

Big business, the industries and banking, always are interested in them, of course. So are politicians, for they know that the legislation which the committee originates will have its reflex later at the polls, favorably for themselves or otherwise.

Most of its sessions, however, are too dry and statistical to have much appeal to the bulk of the people, materially as their pocket books are bound to be affected, in due season.

Just now is an exception.

The committee's present meeting, to frame a tax bill for the next fiscal year, evidently is being watched by great numbers of voters who never hitherto troubled their heads about such matters-except to kick, subsequently.

This interest is attested by the throng of listeners at each succeeding session, by the delegations of business men who want their views considered and by the stacks of letters the committee members are receiving, containing advice, protests, complaints, warnings and miscellaneous suggestions from constituents and others.

"The fact is," as one committeeman puts it, "the middle class in this country are practically all pinched for money. They get good incomes, but prices are so high that they have to work hard to live inside them. Consequently the pressure for tax reduction is terrific."

TODAY'S EVENTS

Thursday, November 12, 1925

One hundred and fifty years ago today Montreal was captured by the Americans under Montgomery.

Seventy-five years ago today occurred the wreck of the emigrant ship, "Edmund," from Limerick to New York, in which 100 persons perished.

Samples of corn grown in many states will be displayed at the National Corn Show to be opened today at Sedalia, Mo.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover has accepted an invitation to address the New England power conference, which opens today at Worcester, Mass.

Joseph C. Grew, under secretary of state, and Julius H. Barne, ex-president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, are to be speakers at the annual banquet of the American Manufacturers' Export Association to be given tonight at the Hotel Astor, New York City.

Imports problems of student government are to be discussed by representatives of sixty colleges east of the Mississippi River at a conference of the Intercollegiate College Government Association, which meets at Wellesley College today for a session of three days.

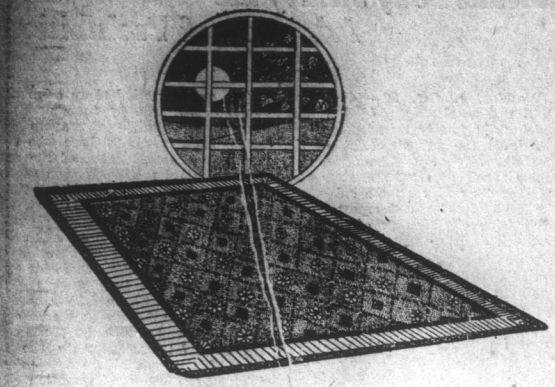

The course in Van Cortlandt Park, New York, where many national and metropolitan cross-country championships are held, is slightly more than six miles in length.

Do not drape the flag over the hood, top, sides or back of a vehicle.

When the flag is displayed from a motor car the staff should be fixed firmly to the chassis, or clamped to the radiator cap.

Do not display the flag on a float in a parade except from a staff.

Do not use the flag in any form of advertising, nor fasten an advertising sign to a pole from which the flag is flown.

Let us Clean Your Rugs. That's one thing that has positively gone out of style as a home task.

No wonder, if you consider how laborious it is when done by home methods, and how much better and easier it can be done our scientific way.

We remove every trace of dirt, every lurking germ, restoring the freshness and brightness of your rugs, raising the pile and reviving the colors.

Our prices are as pleasing as our service. You merely phone us. We do the rest.

BILIOUSNESS

Retired Minister Tells How He Keeps in Good Form With the Assistance of Black-Draught.

West Graham, Va.-The Rev. Lewis Evans, a well-known retired minister, now past 80, living here, has a high opinion of Black-Draught, which he says he has taken when needed, for 25 years.

"For years I had been suffering with my liver," he says. "Sometimes the pain would be very intense and my back would hurt all the time. Black-Draught was the first thing I found that would give me any relief."

"My liver has always been sluggish. Sometimes it gives me a lot of trouble. I have suffered a lot with it-pains in my side and back, and bad headache, caused from extreme biliousness.

"After I found Black-Draught, I would begin to take it as soon as I felt a spell coming on and it relieved the cause at once. I can recommend it to anybody suffering from liver trouble. A dose or two now and then keeps me in good form."

Made from selected medicinal roots and herbs, and containing no dangerous mineral drugs, Black-Draught is nature's own remedy for a tired, lazy liver. NC-166
