Paris is very fond of the turban and is doing very daring things with it these days. This one is a popular style, close-fitting and simple in line, made of cloth or gold.

Peck-Taylor

Louisburg, Nov. 9.—One of the prettiest weddings of the autumn season was solemnized Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Taylor, when their daughter, Miss Irene Christine Taylor, became the bride of Mr. Lewis Bernard Peck, of Charlotte.

The home was lovely with its decorations of Southern smilax, ferns, evergreens, and a profusion of white chrysanthemums.

Mr. Charles Cimmer, of Raleigh, sang in a very impressive manner, "I Love You Truly" and "Because" while Mrs. Bruce Berkeley presided at the piano, and during the ceremony played "To a Wild Rose."

An arch of lovely, southern smilax and chrysanthemums was improvised for the altar. Rev. Mr. Dowd, of the First Methodist Church, performed the ceremony.

The only attendants were Mr. Robert Peck, brother of the groom as best man, and Miss Eva Underwood as maid of honor.

Miss Underwood wore a lovely tan flat crepe with accessories to match, and carried a huge bouquet of sweet-heart roses.

The bride and groom entered together. The bride wore a beautiful imported costume of Champaign Elizabeth Crepe, trimmed with velvet and fringe and accessories to match, and carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Peck is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Taylor of this city, well known and loved here and throughout the State. Mr. Peck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peck, of Concord and an efficient civil engineer holding a responsible position with the State Highway Commission.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a motor bridal tour, and on their return will be at home in Charlotte, N. C.

The young couple have the best of their best of friends.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. George French, of Charlotte, Miss Louise Peck, of Concord, sisters of the groom; Mr. Robert Peck, of Pinehurst; Mrs. Fannie Blackwell, Mrs. J. E. Goddard and children, Josephine and Edwin Goddard, and Mr. Dudley Lacy, of Rocky Mount; Mrs. Amanda W. Holden and Miss Eva Underwood, of Youngsville.

Famous Contralto With Scotch Band.
One of the finest lady contralto singers in the United States today appeared here in the person of Miss Jesse Robertson, of Aberdeen, Scotland, who will appear with the famous Macdonald Highlanders' band of St. Augustine, Fla., which comes to Concord today for an engagement at the Concord Theatre matinee and night.

Possessing a pleasing personality, combined with a voice that is sweet, distinct and smooth, Miss Robertson has won the hearts of thousands of vocal enthusiasts wherever she has appeared.

Her connections with the leading opera and concert companies throughout the world has won her a reputation that has caused music critics to predict that Miss Robertson will, in a short space of time, be ranked with the world's most famous vocal artists.

This famous contralto has appeared with George M. Cohan, in "Little Nellie Kelly," "Mary" and the "Royal Vagabond." She has also appeared with Richard de Koven in many of his operas and she has appeared at some of the leading musical functions in this country and Europe.

Miss Robertson has a program that is of large variety, being arranged so that her selections will consist of a little bit of everything from the operatic selections to the old-fashioned folk songs and the modern popular ballads.

It is expected that crowded auditoriums will greet Miss Robertson when she makes her appearance here with the Macdonald Highlanders' band under the leadership of Murdoch Macdonald, America's premier bandmaster.

Death of Mrs. H. F. Turner.
Mrs. H. F. Turner, of Cleveland, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Gouley, at Harrisburg Monday, November 11th.

Mrs. Turner had been visiting her daughter and while there was stricken with bronchial pneumonia, which caused her death. During her brief visit, she endeared herself in the hearts of the people by her cheery disposition and happy smile. Her body was taken to Rowan county for interment.

She is survived by her husband, Rev. H. F. Turner; two sons, Reid Turner, of Cleveland and Ed Turner, of Bristol, Tenn.; and one daughter, Mrs. Gouley. The many floral tributes spoke the love and esteem with which she was held by the community.

The stoniest person I know is a man who told his two children they were born on February 29th, so that he would not have to give them a birthday present.

SCHOOL BOARD HAS PURCHASED INSTRUMENTS

Eighteen Stringed Instruments and Horns Acquired For Use of High School Students.

There is much rejoicing in the music department of the High School. After months of effort, the school board has at last acquiesced to the purchase of instruments for the band and orchestra, and the instruments, which were ordered some time ago, have arrived.

Not only was the music department gratified at the shining rows of horns and stringed instruments but the student body of the High School was equally thrilled. There was an immediate snapping up of available instruments and, according to Price Doyle, he could have placed twice as many if he had had them.

A series of noises of a startling nature in and about the city have been further evidence that the boys and girls have been busy with their newly acquired treasures.

An effort was made by the music department of the school last year to obtain instruments for a band and an orchestra but the school board was unable to purchase them at the time.

At a fall meeting, however, it was decided that the time was now suitable for their purchase.

They were received early in the week and have already been distributed. The instruments purchased are: three violins, two cellos, two string basses, four clarinets, two trumpets, two mellophones, one flute, one baritone and one helicon bass. The total cost of the instruments is $1,600, it is stated.

Plans are already being made to organize a band and orchestra. The band is to play at games and lead in the singing of the students.

The orchestra is to represent the school in the annual musical contest which is held in Greensboro this year when all the larger schools of the state will try for the prize which is offered there.

Since Mr. Doyle has had charge of the music department, he has organized both a band and orchestra but the scarcity of instruments made both necessarily small. With the instruments already secured in the city and with the newly acquired instruments, Mr. Doyle believes that he can have musical organizations which will compare favorably with any in the state.

Students who have taken instruments are required to sign a bond for the amount or the replacement cost. This will insure that they will always be in good condition.

Other cities in the state have for some time had musical organizations and the music department is elated over the action of the school board in assisting to start an orchestra here. In Winston, it is said, $15,000 was spent on instruments for the orchestra and band. Other cities have spent lesser amounts.

Practice will begin at once in both the band and the orchestra and public performances will be held as soon as these organizations are in shape.

LOCALS IN GOOD SHAPE FOR MT. PLEASANT GAME

Lineberger Will Not Be Able to Play Account of Injuries to Foot.—Others in Condition.

The locals enter the game with Mt. Pleasant this afternoon in better shape than they have entered any recently. Only one man on the regular team will be out of the game.

"Jit" Lineberger cannot play on account of some trouble he is having with his foot. A broken arch is reported as being the trouble.

With this exception, every other man can play. Mac Howard, who suffered injuries in the Albemarle fight, is scheduled to start and all of the other men are in tip-top shape.

As this is the last game of the season, the Concord Highs are planning to put everything they have in the game in an effort to win the championship of the country, which is at stake. Mt. Pleasant, on the other hand, is hoping to garner in the laurels of the county crown. A right royal battle will ensue.

Coach McAuley is hopeful that his team will be able to hold the ball better than they did last week and come through with a win. He has endeavored to impress upon them the necessity of abstaining from an undue number of fumbles.

With this afternoon's game, the curtain will be rung down on 1925 football in the city.

North Carolina Day Program.

North Carolina Day was very fittingly observed at the Chapel exercises of No. 2 School Friday morning, November 13th.

After the salute to the United States flag was given and America was sung, the devotional exercises were conducted by the boys of the Hi-Y, at which time a very touching talk was given on prayer by John McInnis.

Following this a very splendid program was rendered by pupils of the grammar grades in which they paid tribute to some of the patriots of our state, by giving short talks or readings, as follows:

In War: Cornelius Harnett, by Willie Farr; Robert Lester Blackwell, Rachel Craven.

In Government: Thomas W. Bickett, by Laura Starnes.

In Education: Calvin H. Wiley, by Maybelle Kinley; Chas. Brantley Aycock, Craig Stratford; Archibald Murphy, Francis Calloway.

The song "Ho For Carolina" was sung, after which the United Daughters of the Confederacy gave to the school a beautiful State flag, which was presented by Mrs. W. D. Pumber, who in her usual impressive manner told of the splendid work of the U. D. C. and the high place which North Carolina holds in the union.

The flag was accepted by Mr. J. W. B. Long, principal of the school, who gave a detailed explanation of the significance of the flag.

The program was concluded by giving a toast to the Old North State and singing The Star-Spangled Banner.

"THE STUDENT PRINCE"

Greatest of All Shubert Operettas at Charlotte Auditorium For Two Days.

The much-heralded and sensational operetta, "The Student Prince in Heidelberg," admitted by critics all over the nation to be the greatest achievement of the Messrs. Shubert, opens a two-night and matinee engagement at the Charlotte Auditorium tonight. This is the largest company ever to play Charlotte, arriving there this morning with its own train of six cars, carrying one hundred people, among them twenty-six principal players, a chorus composed of forty male voices and twenty girls, an orchestra from the New York Winter Garden, and a crew of stage mechanics, etc.

The production will play Charlotte in every detail, just as the original company, which is now in its second year at the Jolson Theatre, New York. Other companies are enjoying long and lucrative engagements in Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, Detroit and San Francisco.

"The Student Prince" is one of the most delightful operettas ever staged, and is in the opinion of all who have seen it, far superior to the same producing firm's "Blossom Time." Sigmund Romberg, who wrote the score for that never-to-be-forgotten operetta, is also responsible for the score of "The Student Prince," and Dorothy Donnelly adapted the book from "Old Heidelberg" in which Richard Mansfield starred over twenty years ago.

A magnificent chorus of forty trained male voices, augmented by a female chorus of twenty, sing the glorious student airs in a manner that must be heard to be appreciated.

The Shuberts, famous for their excellent casts, have excelled all previous efforts in casting "The Student Prince." In the role of the prince, Lloyd Garrett, a young tenor, has drawn some excellent comment; his voice having been compared to McCormick's by several experts. Ruth Williams, playing Kathie, is known as one of Roxie's Capitol Theatre radio gang; Sylvia de Frankie, recalled as the comedy role of Gretchen; Leo Stark, Jimmie Rosen, Evelyn Carter Carrington, Edwin Orchard, Ferdinand Zegel and others of equal note interpret the heartfilling story in excellent manner.

"The Student Prince" will play at Charlotte Friday and Saturday nights and matinee Saturday.

In receiving $500 each and their expenses, Empires Casey and Chill appeared to have fared better than did the players in the recent post-season series between the Louisville Colonels and San Francisco Seals.
