

Cutest Thing

Little Bobby was sitting at his desk playing with a piece of string when the teacher walked up, took the string from him, walked over to the stove and threw it into the flames. A few minutes later the little fellows were reciting their lessons, each standing up while he recited. It came Bobby's turn to recite, but he did not make any move to rise, whereupon the teacher directed him to stand. "I can't," replied Bobby. "Why," asked the teacher. "You burnt my belt," was the answer.

Willie (observing leopard at the zoo) said, "Mother is that the dotted line on the insurance man told you about when he loaned his fountain pen to you?" Little Joey asked me to take him to "The Ten Comandments." "I will if you pay your own way," said laughing. "Have you got a dime?" "I've got only a nickel," he replied seriously. "Will they show me five commandments?"

An exceptionally stout man, who could easily tip the scale at 300 pounds sat down opposite us in the subway. My little niece gazed over the portly man and kept staring at him. "You wasn't stare at the gentleman like that," I whispered. "But Aunt Rose," she replied, "there is no other place to look at."

Cynthia—How is your husband? Dorothy—I haven't seen him for five years. I think I must have said something to annoy him.

You look all shot, Ned. Didn't you keep well? "No! My room-mate and I suffer from alternate insomnia."

Alternate insomnia? What's that? "Why, whichever of us gets to sleep first keeps the other awake."

Always getting into hot water is what makes the hard-boiled eggs.

First Motorist: I thought you said if I were sociable with the judge I should get off.

Second Motorist: Were you? First Motorist: Yes; I said, "Good morning, Judge; how are you today?" And he replied, "Fine—twenty-five dollars."

Mathematics. A dusky son of Alabama was busily engaged in a cootie hunt. When asked by a sergeant what he was doing, he replied: "I'm huntin' fo' dem 'rithmetic bugs."

"Why do you call them arithmetic bugs?" "Cause dey adds to ma misery, dey subtracts from ma pleasure, dey divides ma attention and de multiply like hell."

COUPLE IN SEVENTIES SURRENDER TO CUPID

Interesting Marriage at Norwood Grows Out of an Even More Interesting Courtship.

Norwood, Nov. 14.—Cupid shoots some queer darts at times as was evidenced by the marriage of Mrs. M. J. Mauer of this place to Wm. C. Furr of Concord on Thursday afternoon. The bride and groom were of almost an equal age, he being in his seventieth year and she less than a year behind. Mrs. Mauer was almost totally deaf, so the people about here in their fancy are weaving quite a romantic love affair around their courtship. They say that he would get near her—give her a little nudge and start to talking of his love in such loud tones that all the neighbors heard and there would never have been a chance of a breach of promise suit as the witnesses to his testimony were legion. Dr. Hathcock, the health examiner for the couple declares that this is the oldest couple he has ever had any knowledge of in this section. Mr. and Mrs. Furr will make their home in Concord. Mrs. Mauer has several middle-aged children.

Mrs. Edith Dobyns, of Cincinnati, is believed to be the only woman in the world who runs a sand-blasting company.

BILIOUS ATTACKS

From Which Kentucky Man Suffered Two or Three Times a Month, Relieved by Black-Draught.

Lawrenceburg, Ky.—Mr. J. P. Nevins, a local coal dealer and farmer, about two years ago learned of the value of Theford's Black-Draught liver medicine, and now he says:

"Until then I suffered with severe bilious attacks that came on two or three times each month. I would get nauseated. I would have dizziness and couldn't work. I would take pills until I was worn-out with them. I didn't seem to get relief. After taking the pills my bowels would act a couple or three times, then I would be very constipated.

"A neighbor told me of Black-Draught and I began its use. I never have found so much relief as it gave me. I would not be without it for anything. It seemed to cleanse my whole system and make me feel like new. I would take a few doses—get rid of the bile and have my usual clear head, feel full of 'pop' and could do twice the work."

DETAILS of the FINAL COUNT

This Page Carefully

In order to maintain the utmost secrecy as to the number of subscriptions turned in by each candidate this, the last week of The Tribune-Times big automobile campaign, the race will be brought to a close under a sealed ballot box. After next Tuesday candidates' standings will not be published.

No subscriptions whatever will be accepted through the campaign department this week, but instead, candidates themselves will deposit their final collections in the SEALED BALLOT BOX located at the Cabarrus Savings Bank, of this city. By so doing, no one, not even the campaign manager, or the publishers can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

Locked and sealed, the ballot box has been placed in the Cabarrus Savings Bank, where it will remain until the closing hour of the campaign, 10 o'clock Saturday night, November 21, 1925.

When the final hour arrives the campaign will be declared closed. The judges will break the seals, unmock the box and immediately thereafter, or as soon as votes can be issued on subscriptions contained therein, the last count will begin. The winners will be determined by merely adding the published vote totals which will appear for the last time in Tuesday's issue of The Tribune to reserve votes and those contained in the ballot box. There will be no waiting; no complicated count, but simply a matter of adding the vote totals and announcing the winners.

It is calculated that it will require some time, however, to canvass the findings in the box and to determine the winners. The official results will be published as soon thereafter as possible.

Heretofore out-of-town candidates have had the privilege of mailing their letters containing subscriptions from their home town as late as the closing hour of various "periods." This will not be permitted the last night of the contest. ALL VOTES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS MUST BE IN THE SEALED BOX WHEN THE RACE IS CLOSED AT 10 O'CLOCK SHARP.

Out-of-town candidates should, where it is possible to do so, arranged to deposit their envelopes in person at the bank, but where this can not be done, letters containing final remittance should be addressed to CAMPAIGN DEPARTMENT, The Concord Tribune, Concord, N. C., and plainly marked "FOR SEALED BALLOT BOX—NOT TO BE OPENED." Particular care should be taken to post such letters in good time to reach this office before the final hour and it is advisable that they should be under special delivery stamp.

Nominations may be made any time during the election. 2—No employe or near relative of any employe in The Tribune and Times office is eligible to enter this distribution. The Tribune and Times reserves the right to reject any nomination. 3—The winners of the prizes will be decided by their accredited votes, said votes being represented by ballot issued on subscriptions and by coupons clipped from the paper. 4—Candidates are not confined to their own particular district, village or community in which to secure votes and subscriptions, but may take orders anywhere in this section or for that matter anywhere in this state or even outside. 5—Cash must accompany all orders where votes are desired. There will be no exception to this rule. Candidates will be allowed to collect subscriptions and renewals as well as entirely new subscriptions and votes will be issued on both. 6—Votes are free. It costs the subscriber nothing extra to vote for his favorite. Subscribers should ask for votes when paying their subscriptions. 7—Votes cannot be purchased. Every cent accepted through the election department must represent subscriptions. 8—Votes are not transferable. Candidates cannot withdraw in favor of other candidates. Should a candidate withdraw from the race his or her votes will be cancelled. Neither will it be permissible for candidates to give or transfer subscriptions to another candidate. Votes on such transferred subscriptions will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management. 9—Any collusion on the part of candidates to nullify competition, or any other combination, arrangement or effort to the detriment of candidates or this newspaper will not be tolerated. Any candidate or candidates entering or taking part in such an agreement, arrangement or effort, will forfeit all rights to a prize or commission.

10—Any ballot issued on subscriptions may be held in reserve and voted at the discretion of the candidate. The printed vote coupons appearing from day to day must be voted before the expiration date appearing thereon.

11—In event of a tie for any one of the prizes a prize identical in value will be given to each tying candidate.

12—No statement, assertion or promise, either written or verbal made by any of the solicitors, agents or candidates other than given in the published rules and regulations will be recognized by the publishers or the campaign management.

13—In case of typographical or other error, it is understood that neither the publisher nor the campaign manager shall be held responsible, except for the necessary correction upon the same.

14—Every candidate is an authorized agent of The Tribune and Times and as such may collect subscription payments from present as well as new subscribers.

15—It is distinctly understood and agreed that candidates will be responsible for all moneys collected, and that they will remit such amounts in full at frequent intervals or on demand to the campaign department.

16—There will be several big prizes besides a 10 per cent. cash commission that is to be paid to all ACTIVE non-prize winners, but it is distinctly understood that in event ANY candidate becomes INACTIVE, through failure to make a weekly cash report, or he or she will, at the decision of the management become disqualified and thereby forfeit all right to a prize or commission.

17—To insure absolute fairness in the awarding of prizes, the race will be brought to a close under "sealed ballot box" system, and will be under the personal supervision of two or more judges selected from the Advisory Board. During the last few days of the election, the box—LOOKED AND SEALED—will repose in the vault of a local bank, where candidates and their friends will deposit their final collections and reserve votes. And not until the race has been declared closed will the seals be broken, the box unlocked, and the judges begin their final count. In this way no one, not even the campaign manager, can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

18—The Tribune and Times reserves the right to amend or add to the rules of this election if necessary for the protection of the interests of both the candidate and this newspaper. The right is also reserved to increase and add to the list of prizes.

19—Twenty thousand extra votes will be given on each new yearly subscription during the first period of the campaign; ten thousand extra votes will be given on each new yearly subscription during the second; five thousand in the third period and no extra votes on new subscriptions in the fourth period.

20—Votes will be credited on extensions of subscriptions, according to the period in which the extension is received, but no extensions will count additional votes during the last period.

21—The Tribune and Times guarantee fair and impartial treatment to all candidates, but should any question arise the decision of the management will be absolute and final. Campaign opens today—closing November 21 1925.

22—All extra vote credits will be issued at the close of periods. On accepting nominations candidates agree to abide by all of the above conditions.

JUST ONCE MORE. The Tribune's rule in regard to the publication of reading notices of entertainments, lectures, box suppers, etc., to which an admission fee is charged, or at which anything is sold, will be as follows: Five cents a line will be charged with a credit of 5 lines of readers for every inch of display advertising used. We will also give credit on the account for all tickets to such entertainments which we can use. When an admission fee is charged or anything is sold, someone or some interest receives financial gain. In such cases, then, why should The Tribune do its work free?

MT. PLEASANT LOSER TO OAK RIDGE INSTITUTE

Cabarrus Boys Dazzled by Brilliance of Attack of Riders.—McLaughlin and McManus Star. Frank Spencer in Winston Journal. Oak Ridge, Nov. 14.—A crimson-jerseyed team from Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute football eleven here this afternoon, but the speed, power and skill of the Cadets carried them to a hard-fought 33 to 0 victory over the invaders. Playing the final home game of the season, the Cadets displayed a wonderful game to overwhelm the Mount Pleasant team, and although fought stubbornly by the red-jerseyed warriors, the charges of Coach Buchanan and Boston hammer-d the line, swung around the wings and threw passes that completely dazzled the visitors. Led by Frank Oliver, the visitors ripped and tore the heavier Mount Pleasant line time after time during the game and paved the way to a well-earned victory and five touchdowns. Goodson and Welborn circled the wings, while Goodson to Pierce proved a forward pass formation that Mount Pleasant was unable to stop.

The game being the final one before the championship game against Blue Ridge school in Charlotte next Saturday, Coach Buchanan and Boston ran in many substitutes during the battle to give the men a chance to show their wares and every one that entered the fray played well and hard.

The Mount Pleasant team was unable to solve an airtight defense and only once did the visitors threaten the goal line of the Red and Blue. A series of brilliantly executed passes in the last minutes of the second quarter placed the ball deep in Oak Ridge territory, but Bruton intercepted a Mount Pleasant pass and the rally ended. Oliver burst out of danger on the second play.

The work of Goodson, Oliver, Howard, Scarborough, Benton and Welborn in the backfield for the Cadets featured the offensive tactics of the winners. Oliver and Benton ripped great holes in the crimson forward, while Goodson, Scarborough and Welborn circled the wings for long gains. "Skinner" Pierce, former Spencer high school star, played his best game of the year. He was on the receiving end of a perfectly executed aerial attack and showed up well, scoring two touchdowns and placing the ball in scoring distance several times.

Loy, Parker, Savage, Caldwell, Griggs, Forns, Griffin and Rogers played great ball in the line for Oak Ridge, while the substitutes that got into the fray also showed up well. Savage proved very effective in defensive work.

McManus and MacLaughlin were the outstanding stars in the play of the Mount Pleasant team and this pair of backfield stars proved dangerous at all stages of the game for the Cadet line. McManus also did nice work with the toe, sending the ball out of danger territory with long kicks.
