EDUCATION WEEK IS OBSERVED BY KIWANIS

All Members Urged to Attend Mass Meeting in Interest of Hospital Monday Night. Education week was observed by Kiwanians in their weekly luncheon Friday, the features of the program being interesting talks by A. S. Webb, superintendent of the city schools, and J. B. Robertson, superintendent of the county schools.

Attention was also called to the mass meeting to be held on Monday night in the interest of the new hospital for the city and county at which time Dr. W. S. Rankin, of Durham, is to speak.

Resolutions were introduced in regard to the death of Kiwanian W. A. Foll. The committee in charge of this consisted of Luther Hartsell, Jr., Morrison King and Gilbert Hendrix.

Both Mr. Webb and Mr. Robertson, who were introduced by Program Chairman Fred Shepherd, spoke briefly on the progress of education in Concord and Cabarrus county.

Rev. R. M. Courtney was introduced as a club guest by Howard Cullie and H. G. Elfers was introduced by Joe Pike.

The music was in charge of Miss Beatrice Fisher who played the accompaniments for the club singing. The attendance prize was drawn by Boyd Grady.

The meeting next week will be in charge of Joe Pike. State Loses a Fine Man. Albemarle News-Herald.

Concord, Cabarrus county and the entire state lost a mighty good man in the death of Senator W. A. Foll Wednesday. Senator Foll was one of Concord's foremost citizens, a booster of schools and highways, and everything else which he believed to be for the betterment of his town, community or state.
