ANNUAL ORGAN CONCERT AT FOREST HILL CHURCH

Mr. Steckel Has Been Secured to Play and Will Be Assisted by Mr. Tittman. The annual concert at Forest Hill Methodist Church on the Odell memorial organ will be given December 9th at 7:30 o'clock, according to an announcement made this morning by W. R. Odell.

Edwin M. Steckel, of Gastonia, has been secured to play the organ, and Mr. Tittman, of Washington, D. C., will assist in the concert with vocal numbers. Mr. Steckel is very prominent in North Carolina musical circles, having taken charge of the public school music in that city several years ago. He is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and has had a number of years experience on the stage as a concert artist.

Mr. Tittman is an artist of the first rank, also having had years experience as a concert singer. His voice, a bass, is outstanding on the concert stage. Since the installation of the organ in Forest Hill Methodist Church, greatly concerns have been given. The organ is considered one of the best in the city.

Joseph Young Married in Richmond. It was learned here today that Joseph Young, formerly of this city and now of Richmond, was married October 20th to Miss Grace Atkinson, of Richmond.

Mr. Young is a son of Mrs. Robert L. Young, of North Union street, and is a brother of Mrs. Robert Corzine, of this city. He was educated in Concord and left several years ago for Richmond, where he holds a responsible position. He has many friends here who will be interested to learn of his marriage.

Herbert Spencer said that "to save men from the consequences of their folly would fill the world with fools."

PERSONALS

Mrs. B. F. Rogers is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John York, in Charlotte for several days.

Miss Cordelia Ritchie, who is teaching school in the county, is spending the week-end in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ritchie.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Norman, who have been spending a month in the city at the home of Mr. Norman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Norman, have returned to their home in Evansville, Ill.

Mrs. Justus J. Hunn, of Mt. Pleasant, is spending the day in the city visiting friends.

Mrs. Lillie F. Blanks, of Monroe, La., has arrived in Concord to spend the winter with her son, H. W. Blanks, on Georgia Avenue.

Miss Annie Gibbs, of Spartanburg, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Stella Hennis.

Miss Anna Strider, teacher in the Concord schools, is spending the week-end in Mt. Pleasant with Miss Mary Peck.

George White's Scandals.

How would you like to be the official shoemaker to four dozen dainty Cinderellas? Such is the unusual position of one Wellington Ward, of Devonshire, England, who is now in America ministering to the shoe needs of the famous beauty chorus to be seen with George White's Scandals of 1924, coming to the Charlotte Auditorium on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 26, matinee and night.

It is Ward's sole task to provide the necessary footwear worn on the stage by the feminine contingent of the "Scandals." And may be he hasn't got some job. The exceedingly high import duty on the finished English boot product is the direct cause of his being in this country. It is figured a big saving in footwear will be made by having the unfinished product imported and completed at Ward's plant in New York, after which they are reshipped to the members of the chorus, as needed, on tour.

The George White's feminine beauties require a specific type of dancing slipper that cannot be duplicated in America, and owing to the peculiar nature of their dance performances the girls need slipper replacements at surprisingly frequent intervals. Working eight hours a day, it takes Ward, who is a skilled shoemaker of some twenty years or more experience, approximately a full month to turn out the requisite four dozen pairs of dancing slippers of the special design, with sizes and construction varying according to the individual measurements of the youthful feet.

The George White Scandals of 1924 will be in two acts and thirty lavish scenes. The costumes, stage decorations and curtains used in the revue were made in Paris by Max Weldon, from designs furnished by Erte.

Mr. Meriwether Will Return to Winston-Salem.

Winston-Salem Sentinel. Miller Meriwether, for some time manager of the Ideal Theater, and recently identified with theatrical interests in Concord, will return to Winston-Salem next Monday as manager of the Ideal, succeeding A. L. Anderson, who is going to New York City to be identified with United Artists, a moving picture concern. The announcement that Mr. Meriwether is to again be identified with the Ideal will be of interest to his many friends here. For a number of months he directed the local playhouse, which was destroyed by fire last December, but rebuilt early in the new year. About the first of this year Mr. Meriwether became associated with the late H. B. Varner, as manager of his theatrical interests, and when the holdings were taken over by Warner Brothers, he accepted the management of the theater at Concord.

Mr. Meriwether is very popular in Winston-Salem, and is a capable theatrical man. Mr. Anderson has been in charge of the local theatre for several months, and during his residence here has established a large acquaintance. He will leave the city for the latter part of the week, going direct to New York to assume his new duties.

Increasing Demand for Southern Mill Stocks.

There was increasing demand for Southern Textile Stocks in North and South Carolina throughout the week and as a result the average in bid price moved up 24 cents per share according to the weekly average just released by R. S. Dickson & Company, which now stands at $118.58 as compared with $118.34 for the previous week. In the general list a number of changes took place, however advances were in the majority.

More interest was shown in preferred stocks during the week than has been noted for several months and, the new issue of American Yarn & Processing Company 7 per cent. Cumulative Preferred Stock participating in the earnings share up to 9 per cent, which was publicly released on November 10th, has proved a source of interest to investors and now less than half the issue remains unsold.

CAMPAIGN TO COLLECT FUNDS FOR COLLEGE

Methodist Protestants of State Are to Meet in City Tuesday.

Two hundred Methodist Protestants from all sections of the state are expected to meet here in the First Methodist Protestant church next Tuesday at noon to discuss ways and means of collecting $100,000 in pledges needed to meet the financial obligations of High Point college.

This week has been set aside as one of prayer for High Point college, and in all parts of North Carolina prayers are going up for success in the movement to collect this money.

The meeting here next Tuesday will be presided over by Dr. E. M. Andrews, president of the college.

At the North Carolina conference here recently when the week of prayer was set aside, a steering committee was appointed. This committee consists of Bascom T. Baynes, Greensboro, chairman; H. A. Garrett, S. S. Coe and C. C. Robins, High Point; Rev. T. M. Johnson, Mehane, and Rev. J. E. Pritchard, Ashboro. Dr. A. G. Dixon, Greensboro, president of the conference, is ex-officio member.

Supporters of High Point college are highly elated over the success that has met the efforts put forth at this institution. The college belongs to High Point, and therefore, local citizens are intensely interested in it. It is believed that the $100,000 needed will be raised so that the college may meet its obligations and continue the splendid work which it has started.

"This Is Cabarrus"

Charlotte Observer. On the State's hard surfaced highway between Charlotte and Albemarle there is a strip of eight miles that is unpaved. Travelers going that way are sure to wonder why. "Oh," is the reply, "this is Cabarrus."

On the State's highway between Concord and Albemarle, Cabarrus has paved to the Stany line. Thence to the Albemarle capital it is a gravel road, which is good enough for Stany, thank you. And that "is Stany." Stany is no more inclined to pave to the Cabarrus line than Cabarrus is anxious to pave the gap between Albemarle and Charlotte. So, there yare. Cabarrus has invested $300,000 in the hard surface from Concord to the Albemarle line, and on the other hand, Stany has put $400,000 in paving from Albemarle to the Rowan line to Salisbury. The Stany gap to Cabarrus and the Cabarrus gap in the Albemarle-Charlotte road are destined to remain unfilled until another bond issue, and even then the situation may remain in status quo, unless the counties decide not to accept return of the money loaned the State, but to apply it to further road construction. That is the plan which is going to be of general adoption throughout the state, for the counties want more roads, rather than return of the cash already loaned.

Breed Sow Pays Rowan Man Well

Salisbury Post. A good brood sow has paid Mr. G. M. Barnhardt of this county, route 3, large dividends during the past year, and he believes she has established a record. Since December 3, 1924, 32 pigs have been born and from this number 26 have been raised to be sold or butchered.

Mr. Barnhardt sold 10 of these pigs when eight weeks old for $66. He killed six porkers which netted 1,300 pounds of meat. He sold 600 pounds of pork for $120. The sow now has a litter of 10 pigs one week old which is worth $65.

In cash the sow has netted Mr. Barnhardt $186 in the past year, 700 pounds of pork for his own use, and a litter of 10 pigs worth $65. He believes this is a record which will be hard for any farmer to beat.

FINAL PREPARATIONS FOR MASS MEETING MONDAY

Dr. W. S. Rankin to Make Speech at Court House in Interest of New Hospital for Concord.

Final preparations were made today for the mass meeting Monday night at 7 o'clock at the court house when Dr. W. S. Rankin, of Durham, comes to the city to make an address to the people of the city and county on the subject of securing a new hospital. Dr. Rankin, who is chairman of the hospital section of the Duke Foundation, will deal particularly with the requirements which will have to be met in order to secure money from the Duke Foundation to assist in the construction and maintenance of the local institution.

The committee, headed by J. P. Cook, has issued an invitation for all people in the community to attend the meeting.

Both the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs are backing the movement and the Chamber of Commerce is also supporting it. The movement is considered by many as one of the most important undertakings in recent years.

Building Activity Continues Strong in North Carolina.

Building and engineering contracts awarded in North Carolina during the month of October amount to $3,387,800, according to F. W. Wagoner Corporation. The increase over September was 41 per cent; over October of last year, 37 per cent. Included in the month's record were: $2,876,500, or 31 per cent of all construction, for residential buildings; $2,421,200, or 26 per cent, for public works and utilities; $2,051,500, or 22 per cent, for commercial buildings; $574,000, or 6 per cent, for public buildings; and $528,400, or 6 per cent, for educational buildings.

North Carolina's construction total for the first ten months of this year, $92,469,800, is not only 37 per cent above the figure for the corresponding period of last year, but also 14 per cent over the entire 1924 construction volume of the state.

The woman's parachute jumping record—32,000 feet—is held by Miss Helen Berger, a San Diego stenographer.

West Virginia Lady Says That She Was in a Serious Condition, But Is Stronger After Taking Cardui.

Huntington, W. Va.—"I was in a very weak and run-down condition—in fact, was in a serious condition," says Mrs. Fannie C. Bloss, of 1864-Madison Avenue, this city. "In my left side the pain was very severe. It would start in my back and sides. Part of the time I was in bed and when up I didn't feel like doing anything or going anywhere. "Life wasn't any pleasure. I was very pale. I was nervous and thin, and so tired all the time. "My druggist told me that Cardui was a good tonic for women and I bought a couple of bottles. I took two bottles, then I noticed an improvement. I kept on and found it was helping me. I have taken nine bottles. I'm stronger now than I have been in a long time." Cardui is made from mild-acting medicinal herbs with a gentle, tonic, strengthening effect upon certain female organs and upon the system in general. Sold everywhere. NC-163
