WRITER. (To the Correspondent: You will please be sure to put name of place from which you write at the head of your communication, and also sign your real name, as well as that under which you write.—Editor.)

NO. 10 TOWNSHIP. Streams are now running full, but recent showers have retarded wheat sowing.

There is much moving here among farmers. Some have bought farms and are moving on them; others are exchanging places, hoping to better their conditions.

Thanksgiving will be quietly observed here. Of course there will be much hunting and many big dinners, but as for hunting the hunters will soon tire as there is but little game left after the bombardment which has been going on through the past several weeks.

The Community Club meeting of the township recently held were well attended and good programs were rendered.

The stewards of Bethel Church met with the pastor last Wednesday evening to organize. After the organization was perfected and other business matters of the church gone over Mrs. Ballard, the charming wife of the pastor, served delicious hot chocolate and cakes.

Last Sunday a week ago the remains of John Lowe Stallings, of near Concord, were brought to Bethel, where funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. C. Ballard and interment made in the cemetery of the church. The deceased was the son of the late W. H. Stallings and Mrs. Virgie Stallings, and was 30 years of age. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the family, especially the mother, who has had a full cup of sorrow—during the late war a son was killed, a little later her husband died, then a daughter died of flu and now an other son has died. Mrs. Stallings, before marriage was Miss Virginia Bost, of No. 10 ship, and is both by blood and marriage connected with prominent families of the township and county.

ROCKY RIVER. Wilton McCathren, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McCathren, is right sick with pneumonia. Jones Kee also has a child very sick.

A. J. Linker has bought the old main place from F. L. Starnes. Mr. Starnes has moved back to his former home in the Flowe's community.

Arthur Starnes will continue to run the store until he disposes of the stock.

Miss Frederick, of New York City, is visiting Miss Francis Akerstrom, our efficient high school principal.

Ray McCombs. Miss Effie Fraley is going to rent three rooms and her garden to some small family as soon as she can find a renter.

We met Charles Sloop in Salisbury. He reads our items regularly.

We met Mr. C. C. Shampine, one of the good barbers at Chestnut Hill. He lifted in Faith when he was a little boy.

G. D. Cruse passed through Faith on his way to Salisbury. He is a good sign painter.

Here is a letter we just received from Salisbury, N. C., Route 0, box 23, Nov. 17, 1925. Mr. J. T. Wyatt, Salisbury, N. C., Route 3, Box 10. Dear Sir: I will drop you a few lines to inform you of what your home-made eczema cure salve has done for my little girl. Well, it has cured her eczema when nothing else would cure it, and I haven't used half of one jar. Respectfully, G. M. STARNES.

We met T. A. Rice in Salisbury of the Rowan Guernsey Farm, delivering sweet milk to his customers. The Dutch Lunch No. 2 and the Ford Hotel are among his best customers.

E. L. Foster, of the country, W. S. Barger, of Faith, Carl Johnson, G. W. Ontulne, J. L. Klapp, J. E. Watson, J. T. Wyatt, Roy Ward and others took dinner at Dutch Lunch No. 2 today, November 21st, 1925.

Banks Peeler has one of the finest granite quarries on the granite belt. He is getting street curbing every day.

Spencer Peeler and his wife have the boss little baby in the world; it don't ever cry hardly, don't ever get sick, and just began to crawl last week. It is a little boy. If you can beat it, trot out your little baby.

Mrs. D. M. Pless, of Crescent, N. C., has a bed of beautiful Chrysanthemums. The most beautiful flowers we ever saw.

J. T. Wyatt, of Faith, N. C., wants to buy a high top old time bedstead and a three legged candle stand, and a grandfather clock and Confederate money and pewter spoon moulds and pewter plates for his collection.

VENUS. IT ALWAYS PAYS TO USE THE TIMES-TRIBUNE PENNY ADS.

President Selectman of the Southern Methodist University was talking about agnosticism at a planked shad breakfast in Dallas.

"An agnostic asked me once," he said, "if I didn't find in the Bible a good many things that I couldn't understand?"

"To be sure, I do," said I. "Well," said he, "what do you do about it?"

"My friend," I said, "I do just as I do with this nice portion of planked shad. When I come to a bone I calmly lay it aside and keep on eating the delicious shad meat, letting any idiot who wishes to choke himself on the bones choke away."

CLASH BETWEEN KLAN AND CATHOLIC CHURCH. It is Claimed That More Protestants Are Admitted Than Roman Catholics.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The Ku Klux Klan and the Catholic church are said to be approaching a "fight to the finish" before the approaching session of Congress over immigration.

It is reported that much of the bitter race passions that enflamed the Democratic national convention in New York last year are certain to be exhibited in the lobbies around Congress within the next few months over this question.

The immigration law put on the statute books more than a year ago has proved to be a most obnoxious piece of legislation, some say, to the Roman hierarchy in the United States. Its passage was bought by the church at every turn, as a rank discrimination in favor of the Protestant countries of Europe as against the Catholic countries.

The quotas of immigrants admitted to the United States from Protestant countries like England, Holland, Germany and the Scandinavian countries, are much higher than from Italy, Poland, Spain and other Latin countries of Europe where the Catholic population predominates.

Worked Under Handicap. But the church in its opposition to the enactment of the law was greatly handicapped by the great number of Catholics in this country who belong to the American Federation of Labor. That organization has stood out like a stone wall against the admission of hordes of cheap laborers from the southern countries of Europe.

With the American Federation of labor the restriction of immigration is an economic necessity, pure and simple. The Klan, the Masons and other organizations which are opposing what they characterize the "inroads of the Catholic church in a Protestant country" were able to combine with the American Federation of Labor and pass the law.

As a consequence of the operation of the law, the Catholic church has for the first time in its history shown a slight decrease in membership during the last year. For the last 30 years the church has shown marked progress in this country, due to the occasions of immigrant membership from southern Europe.

This loss in membership has moved the hierarchy to stage the fight of its life before Congress to modify the law so as to increase the quotas from Catholic countries. The church is flooding the country with propaganda in behalf of this move, and is said to have pressed into line many of its members who are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

Seven bishops are to take part in the consecration of Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires as head bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Long Island, the ceremony to take place today in St. Thomas's Church, New York City.

Secretary of Agriculture Jardine and Governor Pinchot are to be the principal speakers at the annual meeting of the National Co-operative Milk Producers Federation, which is to begin its sessions today in Philadelphia. Delegates from 28 organizations, representing 300,000 dairy farmers, will be in attendance.

Post and Flag's Cotton Letter. New York, Nov. 23.—A good trade demand and heavy buying from foreign interests together with some rather belated short covering caused the market to open very strong this morning. Although the opening advance was not maintained there seemed to be trade buying orders on a scale down and some heavy hedge selling and liquidation of long lines that appeared was absorbed by trade interests.

Trading during the day was quite orderly and considerably lighter than it was in Saturday's hectic market. There was of improvement in dry goods business this week and encouraging advances from Worth street brought in a little speculative buying but due to the fact that tomorrow is the first December notice day uncertainty as to the number of notices that will be passed caused a rather cautious attitude among the local traders.

POST AND FLAGG. Diplomatic. President Coolidge's recent declaration that the short skirt hurts the textile industry led a woman to ask him, at a Washington reception, if he thought her skirt immodest?

"No, I wouldn't say that," he answered.

"What would you say, then, Mr. President?" the lady persisted.

"I'd say," he replied, "that this skirt is all right as far as it goes."

The only bath tub in a backwoods district was owned by a prominent judge who permitted no one else to bathe in it. Finding evidence of its use by someone else, the judge accused his new housemaid, who confessed her guilt.

"It is not so much that I object to your using my tub," sternly lectured the judge, "as it is to think you would do anything behind my back that you would not do before my face."

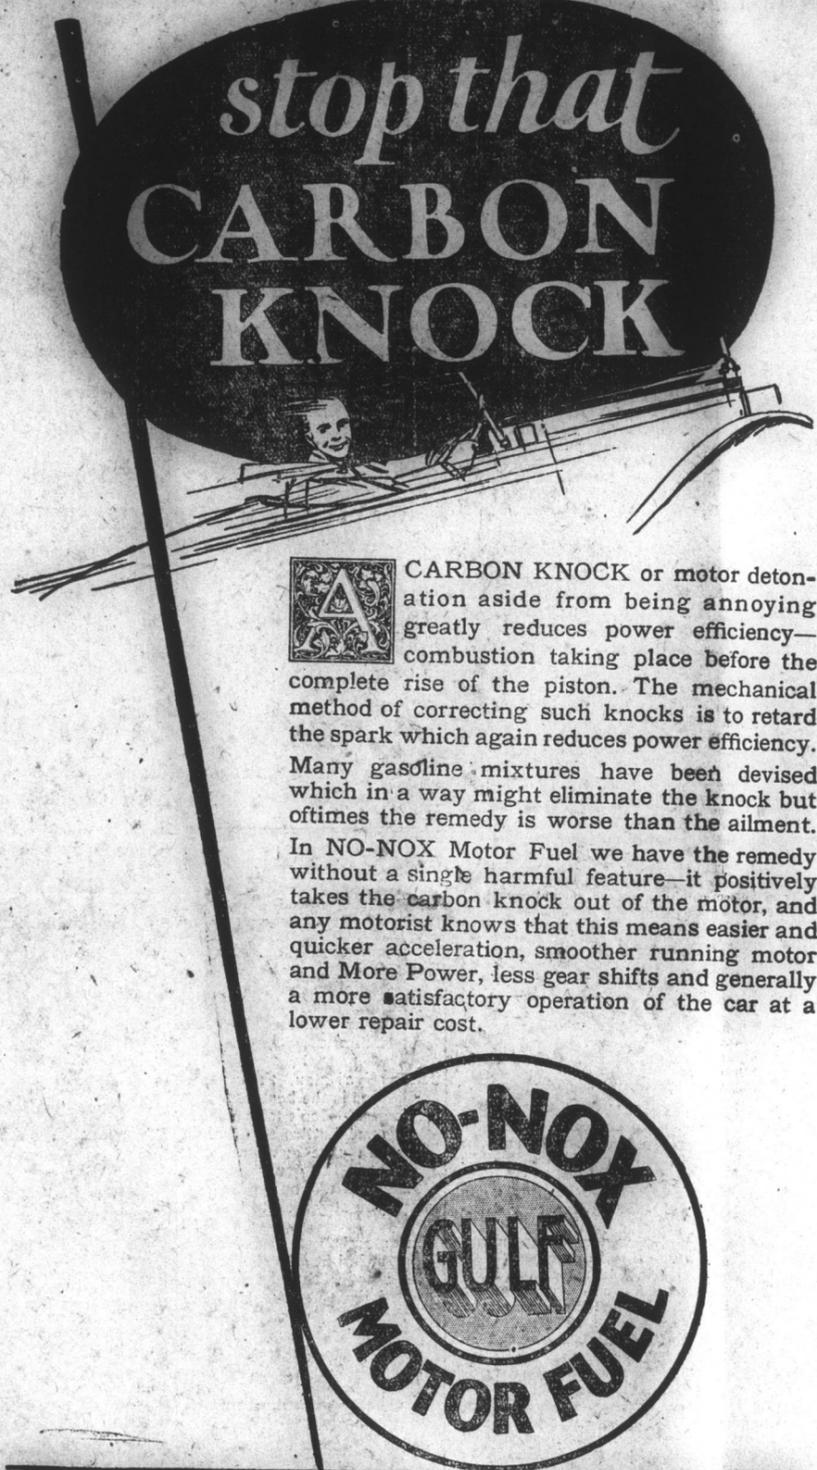

"Miss Crummer" has a terrible cold.

"How did she contract it?"

"By wearing a fur-lined jacket."

"Impossible!"

"Not at all. She had to wear it open, so that people should see the lining."

CARBON KNOCK or motor detonation aside from being annoying greatly reduces power efficiency—combustion taking place before the complete rise of the piston. The mechanical method of correcting such knocks is to retard the spark which again reduces power efficiency. Many gasoline mixtures have been devised which in a way might eliminate the knock but oftimes the remedy is worse than the ailment.

In NO-NOX Motor Fuel we have the remedy without a single harmful feature—it positively takes the carbon knock out of the motor, and any motorist knows that this means easier and quicker acceleration, smoother running motor and More Power, less gear shifts and generally a more satisfactory operation of the car at a lower repair cost.
