

COLD WEATHER
but—
LOATHS HOT BLAST HEATER
Will Keep You Warm

If you are in the market for any kind of Heating Stove we can certainly save you money.

Yorke & Wadsworth Co.
THE OLD RELIABLE HARDWARE STORE

A Real Character BABY DOLL
$4.50 Value SPECIAL $3.45

Other Special Nos. 10c 25c 50c 95c

Other Special Nos. 10c 25c 50c 95c

This Extra Special Exactly As Illustrated More Doll Value Than Any Other Store By Comparison

FISHER'S

Out of the confusion of one of the most indecisive football seasons on record the task of picking the champions and ranking the eleven in different sections of the country has proved to be anything but a happy, joyous parlor amusement.

Fifty years ago the brightest stars in the billiard firmament were William Sexton, George F. Slosson, A. P. Radolphe, Albert Garnier and the two Dion brothers.

A woman, Mrs. R. B. Zachary, of Waycross, was the first Georgia hunter to bag a deer this season.

Birthday Sale

Only once a year do we celebrate. Anniversary Sales do not come oftener. Because they are so seldom and infrequent, do we stress them. Here then is our way of saying "Thank You" for the loyal support and faithful patronage of the past year. We say it "With Bargains" in such a way that you can now buy two and three pairs of these shoes at a price ordinarily paid for one pair.

This is our way of appreciating your favors. All styles of the season in all sizes, materials and colors reduced for this sale.

ONE LOT OF LADIES' SHOES AND SLIPPERS AT $1.00 PER PAIR

Ruth-Kesler Shoe Co.

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

FAITH.
Here is a nice letter we just received:
Greensboro, N. C., Route 7, Box 106, Nov. 21, 1925.
Mr. J. T. Wyatt,
Salisbury, N. C., Route 3, Box 10.
Dear Friend:—I was down to see you in September and bought a dollar size jar of your eczema ointment for my wife's hands. She had done using up a 25 cent sample of your ointment and it hope her hands a great deal. She has now used about half of the dollar jar that I got in September and I am glad to say now that her hands are better now of the eczema than they have been in twelve months. They do not itch any at all now, but she is still using the ointment. I am very thankful that a remedy has been found that can relieve the itching eczema. Your ointment has done everything that you claim it to do, and I can recommend it to any sufferer of eczema. I can not praise it too highly. From your friend,
W. A. BEACH,
Route 7, Box 106, Greensboro, N. C.
Here is a letter we just received:
Peck's Poultry Place, Kannapolis Road, Concord, N. C., Nov. 21.
Dear Venus: I have read your item in the Concord Tribune for a number of years and enjoy them very much. Occasionally I notice where some one tells you of some old article and ask you if you can beat it to trot it out. I have something that I think I can ask them all to stand aside for, when it comes to age. I have a violin or as it was called when made "fiddle" that is over 400 years old. It has been handed down from generation to generation and it came into my possession through my grandfather. So as they say, if they can find something older, trot it out.
Yours very truly,
C. H. PECK.
Miss Ina Brown and Miss Lillian Holobough, of Salisbury, are spending Thanksgiving with homefolks here in Faith.

We met Dr. C. M. Higgins. He lived in Salisbury 25 years, now with McFarlan Pharmacy, McFarlan, Anson county, North Carolina.

MIDLAND.
Miss Myrtle Hamilton has returned to Greensboro, after visiting her sister, Mrs. G. C. Sossamon.
Mrs. Bain Green is visiting her sister, Mrs. Bert Griffin in Forest City.
Misses Laura Mae Shinn and Lillian Widenhouse spent the week-end with their grandmother, Mrs. Moses Furr.
Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Sossamon spent last Friday in Norwood.
Mr. Waldo Nelson, of Monroe, spent the week-end with his daughter, Mrs. T. C. Blakeney.
Mrs. Bost Green and little daughter, Dorothy Neal, have returned after visiting relatives in Polkton.
Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Barrino and children, of Marshville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pounds, of Concord, were the guests of Mrs. Barrino and Mrs. C. E. Tucker, Sunday.
Miss Katharine Hartsell, of High Point College, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hartsell.
Miss Pink Willeford spent the week-end in Concord.
Miss Ida Mae Widenhouse, who is teaching in Kannapolis, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Widenhouse.

CONCORD ROUTE THREE.
We seem to be having some very cold weather along now.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klimescales, of Raleigh, spent Thursday morning with Mrs. P. A. Blackwelder.
Mrs. A. G. Deal and children, of China Grove, and Mrs. A. D. Wilson, of Watts Cross Roads, spent Friday afternoon with their father and mother and Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Misener and family.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Suther, November 22nd, a son.
Mrs. Maggie Dry and children, of this section, spent last Thursday in Rimer with Mr. Jake Saffrit and family.
Mr. and Mrs. John Faggart, of China Grove, spent Sunday afternoon with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pink Walters and family.
Vance Patterson has purchased a new roadster.
Miss Blanche Patterson, is spending Thanksgiving at home.
Mr. and Mrs. Garvis Pless have moved back to their home on Route 3. We are glad to have them as neighbors again. POLLY PARROT.

CONCORD ROUTE FIVE.
We are having fine weather for Thanksgiving porkers.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnhardt spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Authy Holland.
The little son of Newton Stowe, is right sick with shingles.
The condition of Julius Furr does not seem to improve very much.
Mr. Jacob Barnhardt had the misfortune to fall out of his wagon last Wednesday while hauling. He sustained some very painful injuries, but it is thought he will recover.
Mr. and Mrs. John Petrea spent a short while Sunday at Mr. J. R. Barnhardt's.
Mr. Homer Barnhardt spent Sunday at the bedside of his father, J. R. Barnhardt.
Mr. T. F. Rowland, principal of Fink's School, has been called home on account of the illness of his wife, Mr. Ed. Barrier is teaching while Mr. Rowland is away.
The surrounding community was saddened Tuesday when the death of Mrs. Rowland occurred. The bereaved family has our heartfelt sympathy.
There will be preaching at Friendship Church Sunday at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 10 o'clock.
NANCY JANE.

ENOCHVILLE.
Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ruple and children spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. Chancey Frieze.
Mr. Jno. Miller sold a nice lot of Thanksgiving turkeys Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ruple and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Alford and children were visitors last Sunday evening at Mr. C. C. Upright's.
One of Mr. and Mrs. Triplett's children unfortunately broke its arm yesterday.
Mrs. Lou Smith has accepted work in the Cannon Mill at Kannapolis.
Mr. C. D. Overcash unfortunately ran a nail into his foot last week, causing much pain.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Upright, November 15th, a daughter.
The farmers in this section are about through sowing grain.
The general health of this community is very good at present.
BUSY BEE.

WHITE HALL.
Day by day in every way the air is getting colder and colder.
We sure had a good Thanksgiving around White Hall and Route 7.
Mrs. C. A. Harrison, of Salisbury, and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Stranahan, of East Spencer, and Mrs. Carl Weint and children, of West Spencer, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Christenbury on Route 7 on Thanksgiving Day.
Master Arlie Harrison, Jr., and Master Buddy Weint, of Salisbury, spent a few days last week with Master Elmer Christenbury of Route 7.
No session of the White Hall Literary Society was held last week, but the society will meet Friday, December 4th. The debate will be as follows: Resolved that a friend is more useful than money. The affirmative speakers will be Miss Grier Kiser and Miss Metia Mabry, the negative will be upheld by Miss Maude Talbert and Mr. Floyd Garmon.
The White Hall boys went to Rocky River, Wednesday and played a game of basketball. Rocky River won by the score of 20 and 15. Rocky River will give us a return game Friday, December 4th. Come to White Hall and help us win. The boys also played the Jackson Training School Saturday. We lost by the score of 8 to 5.
The roll call for the high school pupils is as follows:
Seventh grade—Margaret Auten, Margaret Corzine, Sadie Joyner, Eloise White, Hurley Thompson, Dixon Tallit, Kate Bost, Irene Menick and Cary White.
Eighth grade—Dovie Bost, Willene Linker, Annie Mae Sides, Lucile Barber, Nettie Linker, Robert Little.
Ninth grade—Grace Kiser, Roy Christenbury.
Tenth grade—Lloyd Garmon, Rollie McDonald, Viola Sides and Ruth Kiser.
Mr. C. A. Harrison, of Salisbury, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Christenbury Sunday morning.
We send law breakers to the pen and the chain gang but if all the boss men are as mean as N. C. Cranford, of the Stanley gang, we sure feel sorry for them. CAROLINA KID.

ROBERTA.
We are having some warm sunshiny weather now.
Thanksgiving day was very gloomy at Roberta, owing to the fact that Howard Cochrane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Cochrane, was shot by his cousin, Clarence Cochrane, and died a few hours later. He was carried to the Charlotte Sanatorium and all that could be done for him was done. Death came about four o'clock that afternoon.
Funeral services were held at the Roberta Methodist Protestant Church, conducted by Rev. J. T. Sisk, assisted by Rev. N. Brittain. Howard was a bright, industrious boy, loved and admired by all who knew him. Cousins of his were pallbearers. They were: Charlie and Garner Verbie, Lewis Lefler, Andrew Cochrane, Clarence and Glenn Little. Flower girls were: Bonnie Linker, Irene Furr, Pauline and Gladys Blackwelder, Kathleen Furr, Virginia Cochrane, Jennie Blackwelder, Elma Miller, Margie Verbie, Effie Lefler and Lula Taylor. It was one of the saddest funerals we have ever attended. Every heart seemed pierced to the uttermost. The deceased is survived by his father, mother, one brother and one small sister, and a large number of relatives and friends. The bereaved family has our sympathy.
"Weep not, father and mother, for me, I am waiting in glory for thee."
Our school closed Wednesday for the holidays. It resumed work again on Monday.
Miss Ethel Blackwelder, who is teaching in Georgeville, spent the holidays with home folks.
Come on, Harrisburg, with your items. We like to read them.
SWEET DREAMS.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS.
The most embarrassing moment in my life was a few evenings ago. A friend invited me to go motoring with two lady friends of his. When I entered the car, I found my wife was one of the ladies.
Last Sunday in church while waiting for the collector to reach the seat where I was, I became absent-minded, and thinking the collector was passing the basket, I dropped my offering into the upturned derby of a gentleman who was endeavoring to get a seat beside me. I could not explain, and felt very much embarrassed.
Teacher—Order, please.
Absent-minded Student—Egg sandwich.
The recent wedding of Princess Malfalda, of Italy, to Prince Phillip, of Hesse, afforded the first instance on record that a member of the royal House of Savor had married a Protestant.

MIAMI IS DEMORALIZED BY THE HEAVY RAINFALL.
About a Foot of Precipitation Within 12 Hours Converts Business Section Into Lakes and Pools.
Miami, Fla., Nov. 30.—Miami, drenched and dripping, resumed her interrupted labors late today, after the most devastating rainfall in her history.
The downpour established a new record for a single day's rainfall here, with a precipitation of between 11 and 12 inches, according to United States Weather Observer Richard W. Gray here. This new mark bettered the former record set on October 24, 1924, when 9.76 inches of rain was recorded.
Blanketed under this mantle of water, Miami and her satellite cities and towns suspended business generally today, many mercantile establishments and offices in the downtown section opening their doors only after the thoroughfare gave up their burden of water and pedestrian travel was possible.
Twelve-Hour Rain.
Covering an almost exact 12-hour period, the rainfall which continued unabated, with only intermittent lulls from Sunday midnight until noon today, transformed greater Miami into a series of miniature lakes and rivers. Principal avenues of travel in both Miami and Miami Beach were under from seven inches to three and four feet of water in places, and hundreds of automobiles and motor vehicles, their engines temporarily drowned by the high water, were marooned for hours along blocks at a stretch making the highway impassable for more fortunate conveyances.
Highway communication out of the city in all directions was severed by the water obstacle, and trains were apparently the only successful means of locomotion through the outlying settlements fringing the city proper.
Suburb Hard Hit.
Hialeah, one of the mushroom cities of the Miami winterland, a site of varied sporting attractions, was completely out of touch with Miami for a time, by highway and telephone and probably suffered more from the effects of the high water than other neighboring communities.
City utilities in general were severely paralyzed by the torrential tropical downpour and lack of power in the city lighting system threw a pall of darkness over the city during the early morning which crippled ordinary activities in this immediate section.
"The close sign" was posted on every hand and the stores and business houses operating were in the minority and labored by candle light. The crippling of lighting facilities seriously handicapped local newspapers and a morning paper published its usual street edition early in the afternoon while afternoon papers appeared about dark. All augmented electric company force succeeded in drying out generator coils to inaugurate service in a limited area by 1.30 p. m.

Stores Are Flooded.
Water crept over street curbing in numerous places and flooded the ground floors of not a few stores. Damage within Miami proper will run up in the thousands of dollars it is believed, although no effort has been made to estimate the losses incurred.
Shipping in this port and along this strip of coast appeared unaffected by the rainfall and no reports were received of any mishap to craft in these waters. The storm was not accompanied by more than ordinary winds, and apparently was limited to rain.
A stationary storm, centering south of the Florida peninsula, was given as the cause of the unprecedented fall of rain by Observer Grey, who announced that he was convinced that Miami had received the brunt of the tropical storm, which he added, had undoubtedly spent its force.

Corn-Cracker Says Holdup Imaginary.
Shelby Star.
Recently M. L. White, known over the state as Cleveland's "Corn-Cracker" philosopher, wrote a story regarding prohibition officers mistaking his Cleveland Springs sulphur water for liquor. Hereabouts, knowing Corn Cracker's wit, the story was thought to be imaginary, as Mr. White usually puts over his ideas in a O Henry, or over the state several editors were wont to indulge in remarks about prohibition officers who knew not the difference of sulphur water and fer-water. To clear up the situation, The Star addressed inquiry to Corn Cracker, who replied in this manner:
"Your polite letter and request duly received, and permit me to say that the hold-up was altogether imaginary. "As you know, the density of some people is monumental. A joke is regarded as a piece of sad news, and as both ungodly and unseemly. Some really good people are so materialistic that the realms of fancy are unexplored regions and always will be. They would be surprised to learn that the Arabian Nights is not strictly true, and that Mark Twain did not give way to tumultuous emotion at the tomb of Adam, or that he did not slay an infidel at the tomb of Godfrey with the keen Damascus blade of the doughty Crusader."
"Of course I have some foundation for all these apocryphal happenings described in my correspondence; for I have at least the rudiments of an imagination."

THE STINGIEST PERSON.
New York Mirror.
The stingiest person I know is a person who fills his pipe in our office and walks three blocks to a cigar store where he can use a lighter and save a match.
The stingiest person I know is a man who takes his vacation at Christmas so that he won't have to buy any presents for any of the other fellows in the office.
A new sundial that tells time to within half a minute, on an ordinary clock face, has been perfected by W. E. Cooke, of Sydney, Australia.

MIAMI IS DEMORALIZED BY THE HEAVY RAINFALL.
About a Foot of Precipitation Within 12 Hours Converts Business Section Into Lakes and Pools.
Miami, Fla., Nov. 30.—Miami, drenched and dripping, resumed her interrupted labors late today, after the most devastating rainfall in her history.
The downpour established a new record for a single day's rainfall here, with a precipitation of between 11 and 12 inches, according to United States Weather Observer Richard W. Gray here. This new mark bettered the former record set on October 24, 1924, when 9.76 inches of rain was recorded.
Blanketed under this mantle of water, Miami and her satellite cities and towns suspended business generally today, many mercantile establishments and offices in the downtown section opening their doors only after the thoroughfare gave up their burden of water and pedestrian travel was possible.
Twelve-Hour Rain.
Covering an almost exact 12-hour period, the rainfall which continued unabated, with only intermittent lulls from Sunday midnight until noon today, transformed greater Miami into a series of miniature lakes and rivers. Principal avenues of travel in both Miami and Miami Beach were under from seven inches to three and four feet of water in places, and hundreds of automobiles and motor vehicles, their engines temporarily drowned by the high water, were marooned for hours along blocks at a stretch making the highway impassable for more fortunate conveyances.
Highway communication out of the city in all directions was severed by the water obstacle, and trains were apparently the only successful means of locomotion through the outlying settlements fringing the city proper.
Suburb Hard Hit.
Hialeah, one of the mushroom cities of the Miami winterland, a site of varied sporting attractions, was completely out of touch with Miami for a time, by highway and telephone and probably suffered more from the effects of the high water than other neighboring communities.
City utilities in general were severely paralyzed by the torrential tropical downpour and lack of power in the city lighting system threw a pall of darkness over the city during the early morning which crippled ordinary activities in this immediate section.
"The close sign" was posted on every hand and the stores and business houses operating were in the minority and labored by candle light. The crippling of lighting facilities seriously handicapped local newspapers and a morning paper published its usual street edition early in the afternoon while afternoon papers appeared about dark. All augmented electric company force succeeded in drying out generator coils to inaugurate service in a limited area by 1.30 p. m.

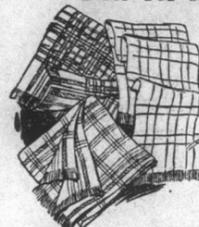

Stores Are Flooded.
Water crept over street curbing in numerous places and flooded the ground floors of not a few stores. Damage within Miami proper will run up in the thousands of dollars it is believed, although no effort has been made to estimate the losses incurred.
Shipping in this port and along this strip of coast appeared unaffected by the rainfall and no reports were received of any mishap to craft in these waters. The storm was not accompanied by more than ordinary winds, and apparently was limited to rain.
A stationary storm, centering south of the Florida peninsula, was given as the cause of the unprecedented fall of rain by Observer Grey, who announced that he was convinced that Miami had received the brunt of the tropical storm, which he added, had undoubtedly spent its force.

Corn-Cracker Says Holdup Imaginary.
Shelby Star.
Recently M. L. White, known over the state as Cleveland's "Corn-Cracker" philosopher, wrote a story regarding prohibition officers mistaking his Cleveland Springs sulphur water for liquor. Hereabouts, knowing Corn Cracker's wit, the story was thought to be imaginary, as Mr. White usually puts over his ideas in a O Henry, or over the state several editors were wont to indulge in remarks about prohibition officers who knew not the difference of sulphur water and fer-water. To clear up the situation, The Star addressed inquiry to Corn Cracker, who replied in this manner:
"Your polite letter and request duly received, and permit me to say that the hold-up was altogether imaginary. "As you know, the density of some people is monumental. A joke is regarded as a piece of sad news, and as both ungodly and unseemly. Some really good people are so materialistic that the realms of fancy are unexplored regions and always will be. They would be surprised to learn that the Arabian Nights is not strictly true, and that Mark Twain did not give way to tumultuous emotion at the tomb of Adam, or that he did not slay an infidel at the tomb of Godfrey with the keen Damascus blade of the doughty Crusader."
"Of course I have some foundation for all these apocryphal happenings described in my correspondence; for I have at least the rudiments of an imagination."

THE STINGIEST PERSON.
New York Mirror.
The stingiest person I know is a person who fills his pipe in our office and walks three blocks to a cigar store where he can use a lighter and save a match.
The stingiest person I know is a man who takes his vacation at Christmas so that he won't have to buy any presents for any of the other fellows in the office.
A new sundial that tells time to within half a minute, on an ordinary clock face, has been perfected by W. E. Cooke, of Sydney, Australia.

J.C. Penney Co.
A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION
DEPARTMENT STORES
30-54 South Union Street, Concord, N. C.

Scotch Plaid Mufflers
Gifts for Men and Women

Imported Wool Mufflers; dozens and dozens of designs in breezy, colorful Scotch plaids, that make ideal gifts. Wide, long, fringed, in all colors. Warmth without weight or bulkiness.

Among the best values we have ever assembled. Ready for choosing, low priced at—

$1.49
and $1.98

Western AMMUNITION

World's Champion Ammunition

For three consecutive years WESTERN WINS the World's Greatest Trapshooting handicap. Read—details posted on show window—Also other victories for Western—"Choice of Champion."
Western ammunition the choice of the world's best shots, will kill more game and add to your hunting satisfaction this fall.

Ritchie Hardware Co.
YOUR HARDWARE STORE
PHONE 117

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Are you going to buy a car? If so, what are you considering as related to the dealer from whom you intend buying? There are many things you should weigh well before making up your mind.

We are offering a car of known value and undisputed leadership. Our organization is reliable and trustworthy through desire to be so and not by necessity. Our service is good because our men know their business and want to help our customers in every possible way.

In short, our spirit of helpfulness and friendliness to our patrons forms a tie between them and us that is seldom broken.

REID MOTOR CO.
CONCORD'S FORD DEALER
Corbin and Church Streets Phone 220

The Season's Newest Footwear

The finest leathers and shoe fabrics are represented in our HIGH GRADE SHOES, and in each instance the material is adapted to the style.
Heels and Soles conform as well, so that in every detail our Shoes are far above those usually found at these prices—

$2.95 $3.95 TO $6.95
MARKSON SHOE STORE
PHONE 897

OUR PENNY ADS. ALWAYS GET RESULTS