NEW BAPTIST PASTOR TO PREACH TOMORROW

Rev. C. Herman Trueblood to Begin Work at First Baptist Church Here Sunday. Rev. C. Herman Trueblood, who comes to Concord as pastor of the First Baptist Church from Thomasville, where he gained an enviable reputation as pastor and civic builder, will begin his active pastorate here tomorrow when he preaches at both the morning and evening services.

Mr. Trueblood spent several days here this week with friends, getting a line on his work and meeting members of his congregation. His household goods arrived in Concord last week and he parsonage of the Church is now ready for occupancy by his family.

Unusually large congregations are expected to hear Mr. Trueblood tomorrow in his initial sermons.

Buy Christmas Seals.

The Christmas Seals went on sale on Monday. Three-quarters of the proceeds stay in this county to help in the fight against tuberculosis. The business district was canvassed by the women. On Friday the school children will canvass the residential part of the town—no other canvass will be made and people are urged to buy as liberally as possible from the children. The money is used to pay for milk and food for the undernourished children and patients who are unable to provide for themselves.

Miss Ford, tuberculosis nurse, has done a remarkable amount of work throughout the whole county and every one is urged to buy Christmas Seals so we may be able to furnish nourishment to those whom she finds requiring it.

Buy Christmas Seals and help others. But Christmas Seals and enjoy your own Christmas more.

Demand Continues For Mill Shares. While the demand continues good for southern mill shares, with more buyers than sellers, the first decline in over two months occurred in the weekly average of 25 leading stocks as compiled by R. S. Dickson & Company. The present average stands at 118.56 compared with 118.72 for last week, or an average decline of 16 cents per share caused by a decline in bid price of Marlboro and Poinsett, both South Carolina stocks.

Mooreville common stock was traded in during the week from $83 to $87 per share. These mills are reported to be making splendid progress and the rise in price indicates the correctness of this report.

DR. LEWIS ADDRESSES KIWANIANS ON CRIME. Scotia Head Speaks Forcefully on Way Which is Sweeping Country.—Mr. Sherrill in Charge of Program.

Dr. T. R. Lewis, President of Scotia Women's College, was the chief speaker at the weekly luncheon of Kiwanians held Friday at the dining room of the Y. M. C. A. The program was in charge of J. B. Sherrill.

Dr. Lewis made his talk on the crime wave, bringing figures and facts in regard to the present prevalence of crime in the United States for the thoughtful consideration of the Kiwanians present. He declared that the profits from the efforts of criminals amounted to over three billion dollars annually.

The cause, the speaker asserted, came from a disregard of law in the home, the state and the nation. The check should come from the home where obedience should be required. This, he added, was vital to the life of the nation. In closing, Dr. Lewis deplored the modernistic movement which is, he said, responsible for much of the disobedience in the home. A committee was appointed to bring in names of officers for the next year, to be voted on. This committee included C. W. Swink, J. B. Robertson, T. N. Spencer, Fred Shepherd and Joe Pike.

Dr. T. M. Rowlett was appointed on the house committee to succeed the late W. A. Foil. Mrs. H. G. Gibson, who led the club singing, sang a solo, "The Land of the Sky Blue Water," by Cadman. She was accompanied by Mrs. Nell Herring Correll.

The attendance prize, presented by Mr. Sherrill, was drawn by B. E. Harrell. The meeting of next week is to be in charge of T. N. Spencer, it was announced.

DINNER STORIES

Ingratitude. He: "Each hour I spend with you is like a pearl to me." She: "Aw—quit stringing me."

Harry: "Did anybody ever kiss you before?" Mabel: "Oh, yes." Harry: "Is he too big for me to crush?" Mabel: "Not too big, but too many."

"Why is it, Sam, that the never hears of a ducky committing suicide?" inquired a northerner.

"Well, it's like dis. When a white pusson has any trouble he sits down and goes to studying about it, and a worrying, and the first thing you know he has gone done and killed himself. But when a nigger sets down to think about his troubles way all he does is go to sleep."

Daughter: "I hate George and I'm sending back his ring to him. What should I put on the box?" Mother: "Glass, handle with care."

He: "Can you recall our wedding day, sweetheart?" She: "Oh, if I only could."

Business Manager: "Yes, I advertised for a boy. Do you smoke?" Applicant: "No thanks, but you can treat me to an ice cream soda."

Dreadful Boy! Impudent Boy: "What did you say your age was?" Old Man: "I've just reached twenty-one."

Boy: "What was it that detained you?" A Business Head. Teacher: "James, I thought I told you to take the seat next to Pearl." James: "You did, but I sold it to Jack for a nickel."

Child: (keen student of bedtime stories) "What's that, daddy?" Father: "That's a rabbit, son." Child: "Can't be, daddy. Where's his silk hat and his coat and trousers?"

Described. "What are these automatic restaurants you read about?" "Oh, they put the food in a ball and you ball it out."

Safety Ueber Alles. "Aunt Sandy, did I not see you last night with your arms about a lassie?" "Na, Jamie, it couldna be me, I always keep one hand in my pocket."

Proof Positive. "Do you believe in evolution?" "Certainly. Look what liquor's evolved into."
