LOCAL MENTION

Come in and get one of our Vest Pocket Memorandum books for 1926. We want every subscriber to have one. The condition of Mrs. Marshall Teeter, who has been ill at the home of her parents here for some time, is reported as being unchanged.

The regular Saturday night moving pictures will be held at the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 7 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend the pictures which are being shown.

Rev. W. C. Lyery, pastor of Trinity Reformed Church of this city, will preach to the boys at the Jackson Training School Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The condition of Eleanor Wallace, daughter of Mrs. T. N. Spencer, is reported today as slightly improved. Attending physicians have announced that the child has pneumonia and that her condition is as favorable as could be expected.

Approaches to the road on the Concord-Charlotte highway are being repaired now in Cabarrus county. The work is being done under the supervision of the State Highway department, large trucks and scrapers being used to level the approaches.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Nixon left this morning for their home in Woodland, Cal., where they will spend the holidays. They spent several weeks in Concord, Mr. Nixon being manager of the circulation campaign recently conducted by The Tribune and Times.

Capt. and Mrs. W. J. Burdell, of Fort Monroe, South Carolina, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. White. Capt. and Mrs. Burdell will sail in February for Honolulu, where he will be captain of the army post for three years.

Efird's Kannapolis store opened a new addition which gave the store practically twice as much space as it had before. A large number of people attended the opening. This store started in Kannapolis less than a year ago.

Fifty feet of concrete has been poured on the three mile stretch of highway beyond Mt. Pleasant but operations were halted this morning on account of rain. Unless the weather becomes unusually cold, the concrete pouring will begin at full blast on Monday, according to highway officials.

Freakish weather was Concord's portion during the night. Lightning flashed and thunder rolled very much as it usually does in the summer months. A light rain fell during the night and this morning and rising temperatures continued throughout the day.

R. C. Benfield, superintendent of the city's street department, has had a force of hands at work near the White-Parks Mill for several days widening and repairing streets. The streets were laid out several years ago but had not been improved until Mr. Benfield started his force to work on them several days ago.

It is reported this morning that officers during the night arrested two former federal prisoners, the charge being intoxication. The report says the two men were released from the county jail Friday, their terms expiring on that day, and immediately proceeded to imbibe freely of liquor in celebration of their release.

Durant Griffin, white man arrested Friday charged with stealing chickens from A. B. Coble, was given a hearing Friday afternoon and sentenced to serve 90 days on the chain gang. Another man charged with assault on a female was fined $15 including the cost when taken before Judge Caldwell Friday afternoon.

Miss Isabelle White has returned to Raleigh, after a visit to parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. White. She recently completed her training as a trained nurse and passed the state board examination in October, being credited with honors in her examination. She is now located in Raleigh for the practice of her profession.

Public schools of Concord will close on December 18th for the Christmas holidays, according to an announcement made by city school officials. The usual two weeks holiday will be observed, with work to start again on January 4th. It is said that the county schools, due to their short terms, will be closed only one week for Christmas.

Only seventeen more shopping days until Christmas. Concord merchants report the biggest assortment of Christmas goods in the history of the city with business brisk, so far. The wise shopper, say the merchants, visits the stores now when the stocking goods is biggest, and after making purchases mails those which are to leave the city.

Valuable property on the national highway opposite the intersection of the Sunderland Hall road near the Flint Rock filling station will be sold at auction Saturday, December 12th at 2 o'clock p. m. There will also be three other sales, including several lots near the Hartsell Mill, and four store lots and one dwelling directly opposite the mill. Fifty turkeys will be given free at the sale. See half page ad. in The Tribune today.

CLAUDE DUKE TO LEAD HIGH SCHOOL GRID TEAM

Fleet Halfback Chosen at Senior Class Banquet—Monograms Awarded to Fifteen Men.

Claude Duke, half back on this year's varsity eleven, was elected to lead his teammates as Captain of the 1926 football team at a meeting of the squad held at the Senior Class Football Team Banquet at the High School Friday evening.

At the same time, fifteen men were awarded monograms for their work as members of the team during the past year. They were: Roy Litaker, Capt. Claude Duke, Eugene Hoover, Hal Jarratt, Kermit Morgan, Frank Armfield, John McInnis, James Lindeberger, Jack White, Lloyd Widenhouse, Theo Williams, Harry Saunders, David Crowell, McRae Howard and Billie Mabry, manager.

Prior to the election of captain, Dick Richards, assistant coach, spoke of the record of the past year, praising the men on the squad for their work and declaring that the record was one to be proud of, considering that they were badly outwitted in practically every game.

Head-coach William McAuley, then spoke of the prospects for next year, asserting that there was every reason to think that with the nucleus of men who would return to school from the squad, that there would be a team even better than last year's eleven. He praised the work of some of the men who were graduating, particularly commending Capt. Roy Litaker, Frank Armfield and John McInnis whose records were worthy of emulation.

Captain-elect Duke gave a brief speech after he was chosen in which he said that he would do everything in his power to make the season a successful one.

Although Duke started the season as a substitute back, his work was such that at the close of the season, he was considered one of the best men on the team. His speed combined with the drive that he possessed made him a valuable man.

The dinner was served by the members of the domestic science class. After eating, a program was given, in which Miss Frances Battle acted as toastmaster. An address of welcome was given by Earl Benfield which was followed by a response given by Roy Litaker.

Jason Gaskel rendered two violin selections which were followed by two humorous readings by Miss Mary Grady Parks.

At the conclusion of the program a cake was presented to the football squad which had in letters on top 1925.

Where Is He?

Dearborn Weekly. Where is the gentleman who used to give the neighbors the horrors by figuring out how soon the war material of the world would be exhausted? The last time we heard of him the timber of the world was almost gone! Coal was very soon to follow it in disappearance. Oil was to vanish. Fishing was to cease because the fishes were few. Humanity had used up everything, and universal deprivation, need and suffering were swiftly to ensue.

The gentleman of the grim prophecies did well to vanish. For all his prophecies have failed, even before the set time. The coal of the world is a drug on the market and is becoming less necessary than ever before; it is actually being set aside by water and oil. The oil of the world is just being tapped, and the promise is that it too may give way in time to agriculturally produced engine fuel. Fishing has been practically recreated by the newer method. As to lumber, it is being subordinated to substitutes on every hand, metal, cement, composition. The only thing left for the prophets of gloom to work on is the cooling of the sun (a former famous honor) which is now becoming less and less even as a speculation.

Wealth unbounded awaited mankind's awakening to a realization of its work on earth, and material for more wealth than ever nature stored awaits his patient manipulation of the elements out of which the raw material is made. There is no poverty except in man himself, and that is almost instantly curable by the enlistment of his intelligence in co-operation with nature.

Some Queer Wills.

A will written on a single sheet of letter paper disposed of an estate valued at half a million dollars left by Mrs. Harrison of Hot Springs, Va. Mrs. Nellie Wade of Washington, D. C., got the bulk of it. Because his six children did not show him the respect in life he thought due him, James Reed of Granite Springs, N. Y., framed his will so that his heirs will not get any of his money until they reach the age of 50.

The best sympathy. IT is only human for a funeral director to feel sympathetic in the presence of bereaved patrons. But it is real sympathy when he recognizes an obligation to see to it that the highest character of burial equipment is furnished at honest prices. Such a policy has been responsible for the success of this concern. Typical of the burial equipment furnished by us is the Clark Grave Vault, recognized as a leader in the vault industry, because it gives positive and permanent protection.

vine, pretty show girl with the Whirlie Girlie Revue, says she will never open her mouth again. The last time she opened it was when she started to eat an apple and she dislocated her jaw. All efforts to get the jaw back into place were unavailing, and Miss Lavine was rushed from the Savoy Theater to the Highsmith hospital, where she told a reporter that when she goes back on the stage she is going to do a toe dance and keep her mouth shut.

Old Navy Yard is Swept By Flames. Charlotte, Dec. 4.—A spot of historical interest was razed by fire here early today when flames swept the "old Confederate navy yard," destroying the structure and causing damage of approximately $75,000. The fire started shortly before 3 o'clock and was confined to the one building, which was in use as a warehouse. During the War Between the States the site was used to store supplies from the Norfolk navy yard which were moved here to save them from capture by the Federals. For fifty years Thomas A.
