MOM'N POP

TOM SIMS Says

Stewart's WASHINGTON LETTERED

BY CHARLES P. STEWART,
NEA Service Writer

Gone are the days when mince pie had a kick.

Some men are such blame fools they will laugh at a poor woman when her shoes hurt her feet.

Christmas story: "Mama, can I hang up one of sister's and let Santa Claus think it is mine?"

Another Christmas story: "Who the dickens left that dead train right in the middle of the floor?"

Beauty secret: Not sending your laundry on time will make your shirts look dirty as everything.

Another beauty secret: If your nose is too pointed a sure remedy is poking it into other people's business.

STINGIEST PERSON

New York Mirror.

The stingiest person I know is a man who uses Christmas seals on his letters and doesn't send any remittance.

The stingiest person I know is my boss. He sends all his mail collect so that he can save money.

The stingiest person I know is a man in our office who comes to work half an hour before the regular time so that he can read the other fellow's newspapers at no expense to himself.

The stingiest person I know is a girl who asks for my castoff hats and then retransmits them.

The stingiest person I know is a boy of 16 years who wears short pants so that he can get into the movies at half price.

Centuries ago it was quite proper for a male admirer to present the lady of his love with weavings apparel on Christmas. For instance, in 1574 the Earl of Leicester gave Queen Elizabeth a chemise trimmed with gold lace at Christmas.

Here the situation:

Chapman is under sentence to 25 years in the Atlanta penitentiary.

He broke out, committed a murder and nobody will dispute. If Chapman makes good his refusal of President Coolidge's pardon, in order that he may be hanged, it will be queer yet. At the justice department they're saying they don't believe it's generally realized how extraordinarily queer, in that event, it will become.
