

The Concord Daily Tribune

J. B. SHERRILL
Editor and Publisher
W. M. SHERRILL, Associate Editor
MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

Special Representative
FROST, LANDIS & KOHN
225 Fifth Avenue, New York
Peoples Gas Building, Chicago
1064 Candler Building, Atlanta

Entered as second class mail matter at the postoffice at Concord, N. C., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
In the City of Concord by Carrier:

One Year $6.00
Six Months 3.00
Three Months 1.50
One Month .50

Outside of the State the Subscription is by mail in the City of Concord. Out of the city and by mail in North Carolina the following prices will prevail:

One Year $5.00
Six Months 2.50
Three Months 1.25
Less Than Three Months, 50 Cents a Month
All Subscriptions Must Be Paid in Advance

RAILROAD SCHEDULE
In Effect Nov. 29, 1925

Northbound
No. 40 To New York 9:25 P. M.
No. 136 To Washington 5:05 A. M.

Southbound
No. 45 To Charlotte 3:55 P. M.
No. 35 To New Orleans 9:50 P. M.

BIBLE THOUGHT
FOR TODAY
Bible thoughts memorized will prove a precious heritage in after years.

STAY WITH THE LORD
The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.—2 Chronicles 15:2

NORWOOD SENTENCED TO PRISON.

In the case of J. D. Norwood, formerly of Salisbury, we find another North Carolina jury returning a verdict of "guilty" against a prominent and wealthy man.

"A debt to society was created by this bank's failure, and it had to be paid," said Judge Watkins after the verdict had been received.

Norwood and Doughton were tried on charges growing out of the failure of the Peoples' National Bank of Salisbury.

During the past several years quite a number of bank officials have been tried and convicted in North Carolina after the banks over which they held the controlling power, had failed.

The agents captured 1,055 gallons of spirits, 87,082 gallons of beer, 56 gallons of wine and much mash used in making liquor.

The agents captured 1,055 gallons of spirits, 87,082 gallons of beer, 56 gallons of wine and much mash used in making liquor.

Dumbey G. Thompson is Dead at Norwood.

Norwood, Dec. 18.—Dumbey G. Thompson, aged 74, died at his home here Thursday morning at 2 o'clock.

It seems to be clearly established that Doughton is not guilty, and it is gratifying to his many friends that learn that it was so found by the jury.

TAX FIGHT NOT OVER.

The House has passed the tax measure but the real fight will begin when the measure comes up in the Senate.

Dr. Frazer is Named on Bryan Committee.

Charlotte, Dec. 18.—Dr. W. H. Frazer, president of Queen's College, of Charlotte, has been chosen as a member of the national campaign committee of the Bryan Memorial University Association, of Dayton, Tenn., and has accepted the appointment, according to information from F. E. Robinson, president of the association.

Open Road Closed to Gypsies

The Pathfinder. Gypsies must stop roaming! The soviet government of Russia has issued the fiat. Three years of grace are allowed the gypsies, then there must be no more wandering through all the Russias.

"Of the many new decrees and programs of the soviet republic, settling the gypsy on the land probably has as little hope as any of accomplishment," says the National Geographic Society.

Plains have been perfected for a glorious Christmas for the boys at the Stoneval Jackson Training School. Gifts for each boy at the school have been purchased from cash donations sent in by friends of the institution and Christmas Eve and Christmas Day will be very homelike for the students at the school.

WILL INVESTIGATE NEW TREATMENT OF CANCER

Very Remarkable Results Have Been Obtained By Englishmen With Lead Cure. Baltimore, Dec. 18.—In order that the American medical profession may be fully informed regarding the lead treatment for cancer recently announced by Dr. W. Blair Bell, Dr. Francis Carter Wood, director of the Crocker Institute of Cancer Research, Columbia university, has sailed to London to make a first-hand investigation.

This announcement was made here tonight by Dr. George A. Soper, managing director of the American Society for the Control of Cancer, before a joint meeting of the Baltimore City Medical society and the Maryland Cancer committee.

Dr. Soper, who returned a few weeks ago from an investigation of what European scientists are doing in cancer research, told for the first time the result of his observations. In his comment upon the work of Dr. Bell, he said that it was clear that "some very remarkable results had been obtained in some instances."

While in England, Dr. Soper visited the laboratories of Gye and Barnard, who last summer announced the discovery of a special organism which they believed to be the cause of cancer.

More than 1,000 students, representing leading schools and colleges throughout the United States, are expected to attend.

The purpose of the conference, according to Mrs. Steele, who will preside over the Southern Methodist section of the group meetings, is to find out how the youth of America may, through the church, make a start toward realizing the ideals that have only been discussed at former student gatherings.

Among the subjects to be discussed at the Evanston conference are the following: "The church and the future"; "The church and youth"; "The church and human needs"; "The church and the social order"; "The church and politics"; "The church and foreign missions"; "The church and war"; "The church in the city"; and "The church in the country."

The Man and the Opportunity Meet Winston-Salem Journal.

Unless The Journal is badly mistaken in both the man and the job, Major Wade H. Phillips as Director of Conservation and Development in North Carolina will prove a genuine force for Commonwealth progress.

There is no doubt but that an extraordinary opportunity to serve the State awaits the man who fills this position. The job is a big one.

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

Open Road Closed to Gypsies

The Pathfinder. Gypsies must stop roaming! The soviet government of Russia has issued the fiat. Three years of grace are allowed the gypsies, then there must be no more wandering through all the Russias.

"Of the many new decrees and programs of the soviet republic, settling the gypsy on the land probably has as little hope as any of accomplishment," says the National Geographic Society.

Plains have been perfected for a glorious Christmas for the boys at the Stoneval Jackson Training School. Gifts for each boy at the school have been purchased from cash donations sent in by friends of the institution and Christmas Eve and Christmas Day will be very homelike for the students at the school.

WILL INVESTIGATE NEW TREATMENT OF CANCER

Very Remarkable Results Have Been Obtained By Englishmen With Lead Cure. Baltimore, Dec. 18.—In order that the American medical profession may be fully informed regarding the lead treatment for cancer recently announced by Dr. W. Blair Bell, Dr. Francis Carter Wood, director of the Crocker Institute of Cancer Research, Columbia university, has sailed to London to make a first-hand investigation.

This announcement was made here tonight by Dr. George A. Soper, managing director of the American Society for the Control of Cancer, before a joint meeting of the Baltimore City Medical society and the Maryland Cancer committee.

Dr. Soper, who returned a few weeks ago from an investigation of what European scientists are doing in cancer research, told for the first time the result of his observations. In his comment upon the work of Dr. Bell, he said that it was clear that "some very remarkable results had been obtained in some instances."

While in England, Dr. Soper visited the laboratories of Gye and Barnard, who last summer announced the discovery of a special organism which they believed to be the cause of cancer.

More than 1,000 students, representing leading schools and colleges throughout the United States, are expected to attend.

The purpose of the conference, according to Mrs. Steele, who will preside over the Southern Methodist section of the group meetings, is to find out how the youth of America may, through the church, make a start toward realizing the ideals that have only been discussed at former student gatherings.

Among the subjects to be discussed at the Evanston conference are the following: "The church and the future"; "The church and youth"; "The church and human needs"; "The church and the social order"; "The church and politics"; "The church and foreign missions"; "The church and war"; "The church in the city"; and "The church in the country."

The Man and the Opportunity Meet Winston-Salem Journal.

Unless The Journal is badly mistaken in both the man and the job, Major Wade H. Phillips as Director of Conservation and Development in North Carolina will prove a genuine force for Commonwealth progress.

There is no doubt but that an extraordinary opportunity to serve the State awaits the man who fills this position. The job is a big one.

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

"Bobbed Hair"

A DAZZLING MYSTERY STORY BY TWENTY FAMOUS AUTHORS
Copyright 1924-25, P. F. Collier & Son Co. and G. P. Putnam's Sons
"BOBBED HAIR" with Marie Prevost is a pictorialization of this story by Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.

SYNOPSIS
A mysterious craft halts the yacht in Long Island Sound and six men climb aboard. It has been a night of cold adventure, with much talk of bootlegging and revenue officers.

CHAPTER X—Continued

For a second the eyes of the girl under the white turban, no whiter now than her face, peered over the cockpit, trying to make out the types of those engaged in the melee.

CHAPTER XI

When Mr. Brewster turned away from the telephone with that last startling information about Connemara's flight, there was a moment of decidedly tepid silence, which was finally broken by Aunt Celimena.

"There—must be some mistake," she said in a trembling voice almost ludicrously unlike her usual dictatorial assurance.

"What are we going to do? We—we can't just stand around and wait for news."

Bing Carrington took an impulsive step forward. "You're not to worry," he said gently. "Of course we'll do something, Miss Moore. It seems to me that the first move is to have a talk with that desk sergeant at police headquarters. I'll take one of your cars, if I may, and go right over."

But Aunt Celimena had herself in hand once more. "I am going with you," she announced with determination.

Bing looked doubtful. "If I have anything to report, I'll telephone you at once, of course," he demurred. "But I really don't think—"

"It's not necessary that you should—" Aunt Celimena was recovering rapidly as may be seen. "I wish to talk to that policeman myself."

"In that case, Miss Moore," Mr. Brewster put in nervously, "I feel sure I had better accompany you."

Aunt Celimena nodded absently, fixing an inquiring eye on Salt-stall Adams, who had as yet taken no active part in the discussion.

The latter roused himself hurriedly from the dazed abstraction which had enveloped him ever since that soft and shining red curl of Connemara's had slipped out of its tissue paper package into his astonished palm.

"Naturally I'm going, too," he said simply. "Shall we keep together, Carrington, or divide our forces?"

Better keep together, at first," Bing decided. "Later we'll see."

It was Bing, with his usual cocksure assertiveness, who fell naturally into command of the situation, and none of the other three cared, apparently, to dispute him.

Even Aunt Celimena seemed rather relieved than otherwise, in spite of her earlier snappishness, to rely on his judgment now.

Therefore, ten minutes later, with Bing at the wheel, the search party of four was heading by motor for the Greenwich police headquarters.

Here, to their relief, news awaited them. The stolen car had been traced to the ferry.

"At least we'll know we're not travelling in the opposite direction, as we might easily have done," Aunt Celimena sighed. She had lost a good deal of her usual belligerence during the short run from Moorelands, as Bing noticed with appreciation.

She had become further depressed, too, after a few words exchanged with a very noncommittal and unimpressed desk sergeant in the Greenwich police station. The fact that the heftiest presumptive to Moorelands had disappeared without explanation, and under decidedly questionable circumstances, appeared to mean little or nothing in Sergeant Flynn's existence.

But he did exhibit a lively curiosity as to why two of the searchers should wear fancy dress under their long polo coats. He seemed, too, to entertain wholly unreasonable suspicions of a slight somewhere, aimed at his official dignity.

Before proceeding further, Bing set to work to raise Bayville by telephone, and after much exasperating delay succeeded in rousing a sleepy Central, but the ferry office wouldn't answer, and apparently no police station existed. So, after a brief consultation with the other searchers, Bing headed the car back to Stamford.

(To be continued)

METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE TO CONFERENCE

Will Attend Interdenominational Student Conference at Evanston, Ill. Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 19.—(AP)—In addition to attending their own denominational convention of young people at Memphis, Tenn., December 31st to January 3rd, Southern Methodists will participate in the interdenominational student conference to be held at Evanston, Ill., December 29th to January 1st, it is announced by Mrs. H. H. Steele, of the board of missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The purpose of the conference, according to Mrs. Steele, who will preside over the Southern Methodist section of the group meetings, is to find out how the youth of America may, through the church, make a start toward realizing the ideals that have only been discussed at former student gatherings.

More than 1,000 students, representing leading schools and colleges throughout the United States, are expected to attend. Denominations participating in the Evanston conference, says Mrs. Steele, are Baptists, Presbyterians, Christians, Evangelicals, Episcopals, Congregationalists, Unitarians, Universalists, Friends and Northern and Southern Methodists.

Among the subjects to be discussed at the Evanston conference are the following: "The church and the future"; "The church and youth"; "The church and human needs"; "The church and the social order"; "The church and politics"; "The church and foreign missions"; "The church and war"; "The church in the city"; and "The church in the country."

The Man and the Opportunity Meet Winston-Salem Journal.

Unless The Journal is badly mistaken in both the man and the job, Major Wade H. Phillips as Director of Conservation and Development in North Carolina will prove a genuine force for Commonwealth progress.

There is no doubt but that an extraordinary opportunity to serve the State awaits the man who fills this position. The job is a big one.

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

Major Phillips is in the prime of manhood. He has ability and vision. He is a progressive. He knows North Carolina.

As commander of the American Legion in this State he demonstrated a capacity for leadership. He is aggressive. He possesses that indefinable something which, for lack of a better name, we call "pep."

TODAY'S EVENTS

Monday, December 21, 1925. Beginning of Christmas week. This is the last full day of Autumn.

It is also reckoned as the shortest day of the year.

It is the festival of St. Thomas, the patron saint of architects and builders.

Observance of forefathers' day, the anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth in 1620.

In accordance with an annual custom, Plymouth, Mass., will observe forefathers' day with a parade and civic exercises.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph F. McGrath, Roman Catholic bishop of Baker City, Ore., celebrates his thirtieth anniversary in the priesthood today.

King George and Queen Mary are to depart from London today for York Cottage, Sandringham, where their Majesties will as usual spend the Christmas holidays.

The Holy Year pilgrimages to Rome are expected to reach their height this week, when thousands of devout Catholics from all over Europe and from America will flock to the Eternal City to witness the imposing ceremonies with which the jubilee will be brought to a close.

Culling Demonstrations Held. Sylvia, N. C., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Thirteen flocks of poultry have already been culled for farmers in Jackson county, and other farmers are asking that demonstrations in culling be held on their farms, reports Farm Agent C. A. Tilson.

The Jackson County Poultry Association has been formed, and a program for the year's work outlined. More interest is being shown in poultry raising in this county than ever before, says Mr. Tilson.

He also reports placing a carload of Jersey heifers and cows among dairy farmers of the county. This is the first car of Jersey cattle ever shipped into the county, and Mr. Tilson states that the farmers are as well pleased with the cattle that plans are being made to secure another carload at an early date.

Six Persons Hurt in Wreck. Alexander City, Ala., Dec. 19.—(AP)—Six persons were reported severely injured, and scores were badly shaken when a Central of Georgia passenger train was derailed near Hoflins this morning.

—PERFUME—

The Perfect Gift

D'Orsay, presents their perfumes to the increasing demand of the American woman, who always knows, seeks the best, who loves the beautiful and insists on quality.

O DEURS Chevalier, Tojours, Fidele, Charme, Mimosa, Chypre, Rose Jaquimot, Mygale, Jasmine Sold Exclusively By

Gibson Drug Store

The Rexall Store

WANTED

To supply your needs in Apples, Oranges, Candies, Nuts and Raisins.

Special Prices on Quantities for Christmas Trees.

Cabarrus Cash

Grocery Co.

USE PENNY COLUMN—IT PAYS.

BELL-HARRIS FURNITURE CO.

HOLIDAY GIFT NUMBERS
Here are gifts for home adornment, intimate, thoughtful, useful and above all, wanted. For no matter how particular the person you are giving to may be, or how well furnished his home, there is always some niche he would like filled—with lamps, chairs, book table or screen.

Come, search through the holiday display in our store for your gift—man gifts and woman gifts are here, likewise gifts for all ages and purses.

P. S.—Beginning Monday the 14th we will be open evenings until 9:00 o'clock.

BELL-HARRIS FURNITURE CO.

We carry at all times a complete line of genuine Buick parts, will be glad to supply you.

STANDARD BUICK CO.

Opposite City Fire Department

Money is too scarce to spend for any kind of equipment that is not entirely dependable.

We would not offer any electrical equipment that lacked the guarantee of its maker to us. Our guarantee to you is that any motive equipment bought here must give satisfaction.

"Fixtures of Character" W. J. HETHCOX W. Depot St. Phone 669

Dependable motive equipment

Better keep together, at first," Bing decided. "Later we'll see."

It was Bing, with his usual cocksure assertiveness, who fell naturally into command of the situation, and none of the other three cared, apparently, to dispute him.

Even Aunt Celimena seemed rather relieved than otherwise, in spite of her earlier snappishness, to rely on his judgment now.

Therefore, ten minutes later, with Bing at the wheel, the search party of four was heading by motor for the Greenwich police headquarters.

Here, to their relief, news awaited them. The stolen car had been traced to the ferry.

"At least we'll know we're not travelling in the opposite direction, as we might easily have done," Aunt Celimena sighed. She had lost a good deal of her usual belligerence during the short run from Moorelands, as Bing noticed with appreciation.

She had become further depressed, too, after a few words exchanged with a very noncommittal and unimpressed desk sergeant in the Greenwich police station. The fact that the heftiest presumptive to Moorelands had disappeared without explanation, and under decidedly questionable circumstances, appeared to mean little or nothing in Sergeant Flynn's existence.

But he did exhibit a lively curiosity as to why two of the searchers should wear fancy dress under their long polo coats. He seemed, too, to entertain wholly unreasonable suspicions of a slight somewhere, aimed at his official dignity.

Before proceeding further, Bing set to work to raise Bayville by telephone, and after much exasperating delay succeeded in rousing a sleepy Central, but the ferry office wouldn't answer, and apparently no police station existed. So, after a brief consultation with the other searchers, Bing headed the car back to Stamford.

(To be continued)

Get a bowl and two gold fish free with every 50c tube of Nydiata Tooth Paste While They Last Only a limited number Pearl Drug Co. Phones 22 and 722

The ideal sort of Christmas-tide is one that is cold out on the fields and up in the glistening star-studded sky but warm as a generous heart in the interior of your own home. We deal in home comforts.

CONCORD PLUMBING COMPANY 174 Kerr St. Phone 576

Twenty-five ski tournaments are to be held this winter in New York, New Jersey and New England under the auspices of the United States Eastern Amateurs Ski Association.

Plans were furnished by A. C. Kimrey, dairy specialist of the State College extension service, for a milk house to be erected by Jerry Johnson, of Palmyra, and a ration for the 20 purebred Holstein cows was worked out by him, Mr. Littlejohn reports. Milk from this dairy is to be sold in Norfolk.

Seven Thousand Two Hundred-Egg Incubator in Halifax County. Scotland Neck, Dec. 19.—(AP)—The farmers in lower Halifax county are installing a 7,200-egg incubator at Holmwood.

Farm Agent C. E. Littlejohn says this machine will be run in conjunction with the 3,200-egg machine now operated by the Scotland Neck Poultry Association, and will handle the eggs produced on all the farms in that part of the county.

Plans were furnished by A. C. Kimrey, dairy specialist of the State College extension service, for a milk house to be erected by Jerry Johnson, of Palmyra, and a ration for the 20 purebred Holstein cows was worked out by him, Mr. Littlejohn reports. Milk from this dairy is to be sold in Norfolk.

Seven Thousand Two Hundred-Egg Incubator in Halifax County. Scotland Neck, Dec. 19.—(AP)—The farmers in lower Halifax county are installing a 7,200-egg incubator at Holmwood.

Farm Agent C. E. Littlejohn says this machine will be run in conjunction with the 3,200-egg machine now operated by the Scotland Neck Poultry Association, and will handle the eggs produced on all the farms in that part of the county.

Plans were furnished by A. C. Kimrey, dairy specialist of the State College extension service, for a milk house to be erected by Jerry Johnson, of Palmyra, and a ration for the 20 purebred Holstein cows was worked out by him, Mr. Littlejohn reports. Milk from this dairy is to be sold in Norfolk.

Seven Thousand Two Hundred-Egg Incubator in Halifax County. Scotland Neck, Dec. 19.—(AP)—The farmers in lower Halifax county are installing a 7,200-egg incubator at Holmwood.

Farm Agent