FEAR DESTROYED
Fear thou not; for I am with thee; be not dismayed; for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee, yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.—Isaiah 41:10.

SOUTHERN MACHINERY FOR SOUTHERN MILLS.
The Charlotte Observer predicts that in the near future much machinery used in Southern cotton mills will be made in the South by Southern labor.

PHILADELPHIA IS TO BE THE MEETING PLACE today of the ninety-fourth general convention of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

Methodist young people and specialists in young people's work from many denominations and from many sections of the country are to take part in the great convention of young people of the Southern Methodist Church, which opens in Memphis today and will continue in session four days.

Post and Flagg's Cotton Letter.
New York, Dec. 30.—While somewhat irregular, the market has shown a generally steady tone and offerings have been readily absorbed at minor recessions.

Spot demand is slack as far as new business goes but foreign consumers still have a mass of cotton to receive to fill the purchases which they made earlier in the season and shippers who made those sales are still wearing chiefly sackcloth and ashes and wondering where they will get the cotton and at what basis if at all.

Somebody Willing to Trust Russia.
The United States government has not recognized the Soviets in Russia but just the same somebody in the United States is willing to trade with the "reds."

WOMEN'S CASES BEFORE THE JURY

17-YEAR-OLD GIRL HELD ON CHARGE OF BIGAMY
Shows Little Interest in Accusation and Makes no Statement.
High Point, Dec. 30.—Perhaps the most unusual case in the annals of the local police court was heard today when Elsie Conovaz, pretty 17-year-old blonde, was arraigned on a charge of bigamy.

Dearborn Weekly.
Why do American male juries so frequently return verdicts of not guilty in the case of women whose guilt is substantially indicated by the testimony?

CHAPTER XIII—Continued
A pair of leather gloves, worn but very swanky. "Two pounds in Jarvis Street," computed Connemara, who knew her London—"that would be something like ten dollars before the exchange went down."

CHAPTER XIV
Lacy stood at the edge of the beach, looking at Connemara, who lay peeping out from under the much-too-large yellow oilskin.

CHAPTER XV
"Morning, old dear!" sang out Connemara, homely delighted to see him again. At that thought she laughed out loud, for she had never seen him until that moment.

CHAPTER XVI
"Dear Bugle," she began, and stopped short. Tied neatly around his neck in a scrap of oilskin was a small package of surprisingly mysterious appearance.

CHAPTER XVII
"Shall I, Bugle?" she asked, all a-flutter with this new and sudden development in the plot. "Shall I open it?"

CHAPTER XVIII
There are, despite the strides made by bacteriology, many mysterious microbes under cover to which no clue has yet been found.

CHAPTER XIX
As a result of careful checking it has been calculated that the average singles player in tennis who adheres to the volleying type of game will run approximately 2 3/4 miles in a closely contested five-set match.

CHAPTER XX
Missouri ranks as the fifth State in agricultural importance, the sixth in population, and the ninth in wealth.

CHAPTER XXI
The first Christmas card ever published was issued in 1846 by a Londoner named Joseph Crandall.

CUTEST THINGS
New York Mirror.
"Ah," said the proprietor of a candy store, "and what are you going to be when you grow up?"

Using the Doctor as a Bachelor.
Dr. F. M. Register, in The Progressive Farmer.
There is one habit that many fathers and mothers have that I wish they would quit.

PERFUME
The Perfect Gift
D'Orsay, presents their perfumes to the increasing demand of the American woman, who always knows, seeks the best, who loves the beautiful and insists on quality.
