Domestic Trouble of Turks Headed to Divorce Court.

Constantinople, Dec. 30.—A clause in the new Turkish civil code puts an end to one of the bitterest phases of women's subjection, the right of a man to divorce his wife at will and with no trial.

signature of two witnesses to receive the O. K. of the judge.

This easy procedure naturally led to an enormous number of divorces as may be judged by the fact that in Constantinople alone during the past three months 208 divorces have been registered.

Prodigy 5, Talks Like a LaFollette.

Rangoon, India, Dec. 30.—A sensation has been created in Burma by the appearance of a prodigy, the five-year-old son of a Burmese fish dealer, who is said to be able to address immense meetings with the eloquence of a LaFollette, Briand or Lloyd George.

Stewart's WASHINGTON LETTER

WHITE HOUSE "SEASON" IS ON WITH A BANG.

BY CHARLES F. STEWART. NEA Service Writer. Washington—President Coolidge doesn't like coming down stairs to the strains of "Hail to the Chief," blared out by the Marine Band.

WILMINGTON POLICE SEEK MEANEST MAN

He Stole Overcoat of Johnnie Wilkins, Blind, on Winter's Coldest Day. Wilmington, Dec. 29.—Police here are seeking a person whom they designate as the meanest man in the world, the one who stole an overcoat from a blind man on the coldest day of the year Johnnie Wilkins, white, totally blind, who runs a peanut stand in the business district left his overcoat unguarded a moment while he went to borrow a wrench with which to repair his roasting machine.

PRESIDENT'S FATHER CRIPPLED FOR LIFE

Colonel John Coolidge Will Probably Never Again Regain Use of Legs, Due to Poor Circulation.

Plymouth, Vt., Dec. 29.—Colonel John C. Coolidge, the President's father, was very "comfortable" his physician reported late today. He sat up in his wheel chair for half an hour and apparently was not fatigued by the exertion. But he has lost the use of his legs through faulty blood circulation and his physician, Dr. Albert W. Cram, of Bridgewater, said the chance of his ever regaining the use of them was remote.
