LOCAL MENTION

"Fools in the Dark" will be in Concord next week. The Luther League of St. James Church will give a public program at 7 o'clock on Sunday evening.

According to a deed filed Friday at the court house, B. W. Blackwelder, commissioner, has sold to F. A. Messner property in Cabarrus county for $1,010.

Regular gymnasium classes at the Y and regular physical instruction in the schools will begin Monday, according to J. W. Denny, Y physical director.

H. W. Caldwell, Vice President of the Cabarrus Fair Association, and H. C. Scott, trainer and driver of race horses, spent Friday at Pinehurst. They went to see the horse races staged at Pinehurst during the day.

The schools of the city will resume their work on Monday after having been closed two weeks for the Christmas holidays. Work during the next few weeks will be largely in preparation of the mid-term examinations, which are to be held at an early date.

Miss Virginia Kincaid and Miss Beth Sloop, both of Statesville, are guests at the home of Miss Jenny Brown, on South Union street. They will return to Statesville this afternoon and will be accompanied by Miss Brown who will spend the night there.

The local game commission, owing to the fact that there has been some confusion in regard to the exact date for the closing of the open season on quail and rabbits, has ruled that the season is to extend to January 15th. The season opens Thanksgiving Day.

No session of the city recorder's court was held Friday afternoon. Several cases were docketed for trial but as they were not of an aggravated nature they were continued until Monday when court will be in session.

A number of persons paid their city taxes before the penalty became effective January 1st, although not as much money was received then as during the latter part of November. Many of the larger taxes, both corporate and individual, have been paid.

Work in those county schools which have been idle this week, will be resumed Monday morning. Some of the rural schools closed only one week for Christmas but others were closed two weeks and these latter will resume regular work on Monday morning.

Plumbers of the city, it is said, have about caught up with the rush of work caused by the recent cold weather. In some homes of the city, according to reports, many pipes burst after being frozen and in a few instances the plumbers were called on to repair radiators in homes.

Little of the ice that covered the creeks and other streams here the first part of the week is in evidence now. The rising temperatures of the past several days have melted the greater part of the ice which can be found now only in isolated places where the sun cannot send its rays.

This is the last holiday for teachers and students in the public schools of the city. Work will be resumed Monday morning in all of the city plants which have been idle since December 18th. Out-of-town teachers are expected back today and tomorrow and regular work will be resumed Monday.

Alabama's great football team defeated Washington 20 to 19 Friday at the intersectional game in California. Three touchdowns, two of them the result of forward passes, came in the third period and were enough to give the Southerners the victory in a game witnessed by more than 50,000 fans.

William H. Muse, who has been assistant superintendent of the Locke Cotton Mill for some time, left Friday night for Duke, N. C., where he has accepted a position with the Erwin Cotton Mills located there. Mr. Muse has been prominent in the civic life of the community and will be missed by a large number of friends.

C. N. Field, city tax collector, left this morning for Greenville, S. C., to be at the bedside of his brother, Boyce Field, who is seriously ill. Mr. Field has been ill practically all of the time since his service in the World War and while his condition showed improvement recently, he became worse several days ago and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

A large number of people in Concord listened to John McCormack and Lucretia Bori Friday night over radio, broadcasting from a number of stations in the United States and abroad. Both the singers were heard with much pleasure during their concert which lasted from 9 until 10 o'clock. There was very little static to interrupt the music.

Rules and Regulations. "How long does it take to draw out my money if I put it in the postal bank?" asked the prospective depositor with the market basket. "Well," replied the newly appointed village postmaster, after consulting his rule book, "if you give me three day's notice beforehand, you can take it out again the same day you put it in."

"THE RULING CHRIST" Is the general theme of a series of special Sunday Evening Sermons, to be delivered at the First Baptist Church by the pastor, Rev. C. Herman Trueblood, during the first six Sunday nights in 1926, as follows:

- Jan. 8rd, "The Christ-Ruled Home." Jan. 10th, "The Christ-Ruled Young Man." Jan. 17, "The Christ-Ruled Business." Jan. 24th, "The Christ-Ruled Young Woman." Jan. 31st, "The Christ-Ruled Church." Feb. 7th, "The Christ-Ruled Community."

In connection with each sermon brief letters, touching upon the subject, written by various church members and representative citizens, will be read—these letters will be published in The Daily Tribune, following the delivery of each sermon.

These messages promise to be interesting, and thought-provoking. Get the SUNDAY NIGHT CHURCH HABIT. If you have no church home, join with the growing congregations of this church, and share OUR JOYOUS FELLOWSHIP!

Each Service Starts Promptly at 7:00 P. M. "The Habits of the Master" will be the pastor's Sunday 11 A. M. subject. At this hour the minister will tell the children a story.

Is your heart in the right place? See Ps. 26:8.

When fortune smiles at some people they get conceited right away. You don't hear so many jokes about how slow plumbers are, so maybe it is no longer a joking matter. Some men stay around home so much when they come down to the office they have forgotten how to talk. There are times when silence sounds good. Wouldn't it be fun if telephones were made out of cheese so you could bite them when you got mad? It would. Paper says Coolidge smiled at a caller from New York. That's nothing. We laugh at them. The best sympathy IT is only human for a funeral director to feel sympathetic in the presence of bereaved patrons. But it is real sympathy when he recognizes an obligation to see to it that the highest character of burial equipment is furnished at honest prices. Such a policy has been responsible for the success of this concern. Typical of the burial equipment furnished by us is the Clark Grave Vault, recognized as a leader in the vault industry, because it gives positive and permanent protection.
