MISS DOROTHY MALLARD TO DANCE AT POW-WOW

Will Take Part in Program With Miss Katherine Riggs, of Washington—Men to Be Admitted. Arrangements are being completed for the Mother and Daughter Pow-Wow at the Y. M. C. A. next Tuesday night. The affair gives indication of being one of the most prominent social events of the season.

In addition to the harp playing of Miss Katherine Riggs, of Washington, headed as one of the most artistic harpists in the country, Miss Dorothy Mallard, dancer, who appeared in the city at the Halloween celebration, will again give several of her artistic numbers.

With these two artists on the program and with possibly others, a treat is guaranteed to those attending the Pow-Wow.

It was announced several days ago that men would be admitted to the dinner, as spectators only, however. They will be allowed to take seats in the balcony and listen to the program as presented by Miss Riggs and watch Miss Mallard do her stuff on the floor below.

Miss Mallard was the stellar number on the Halloween program, giving interpretations of a number of dances. She is only twelve years of age but her finish is that of an experienced dancer. Among other dances which she gave at the time, she gave an exhibition of the Charleston which gave Concord people their first view of this modern dance.

The fact that she could come was announced this morning in a telegram from her mother, who was in Georgia with her. Attempts to get in touch with them several days ago was fruitless and it was thought that it would be impossible for Miss Mallard to come to the city. The message this morning stated that she would be here.

Miss Riggs will stop over Tuesday in her tour of the state, coming here from Chapel Hill, where she will play before the students of that institution. Her program will be as follows:

1. (a) Romance—Hasselman.
- (b) Largo—Dvork.
- (c) Souvenir—Haha.
- (d) Will-o-the-Wisp—Hasselman.
- (e) The Fountain—Faure.
2. Folk songs.
- (a) Russia—Song of the Volga boatmen.
- (b) England—Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes.
- (c) Ireland—Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms.
- (d) Scotland—Annie Laurie.
- (e) America—Old Kentucky Home.

Mrs. Deaton Entertains For Mrs. Robinson

Mrs. N. T. Deaton was hostess Thursday at a bridge party in honor of Mrs. Robinson. The affair was planned at two tables.

At the conclusion of the game Mrs. B. E. Harris, Jr., was presented with the top score prize.

Mrs. Deaton's guests included: Mrs. Ernest Robinson, Mrs. B. E. Harris, Jr., Mrs. Farrell White, Mrs. Stowe Green, Mrs. Julius Fisher, Miss Margaret Ritchie, Miss Mary Belle Cannon and Miss Mary Pemberton.

Mme. Melba has decided to make her farewell appearance on the operatic stage at the Covent Garden season which begins May 10 next.

PERSONALS

Mrs. R. P. Benson left Wednesday night for Oriental after spending the holidays in the city with R. P. Benson.

Miss Edna Taylor is expected to arrive in the city today from Washington, D. C., where she has been spending six weeks visiting her uncle, J. R. Taylor.

Trammell-Litaker.

Safety Harbor Herald. Walter C. Litaker and Miss Virginia Trammell, of Kannapolis, N. C., were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Eddleman, on Third avenue, December 23rd, 1925, at 6:30 o'clock. Those present at the ceremony were Rev. H. E. Erwin, A. E. Minch, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Furr, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Eddleman and children.

Immediately after the ceremony Mrs. Eddleman served a delicious wedding supper. Mr. and Mrs. Litaker received many pretty and useful wedding gifts. Mr. Litaker has been with us in Safety Harbor for several months and is a young man of sterling quality. Mrs. Litaker is the oldest daughter of Judge Trammell, of Kannapolis, and we are fortunate to have such a popular and talented young woman make her home with us for the present. Their friends in Safety Harbor as well as their many friends in North Carolina, wish for them a long and happy life. Mr. and Mrs. Litaker have an apartment in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Blakey, where they will live for the present.

King's Daughters to Exhibit Pictures.

The order slides of the King's Daughters will be exhibited in Concord at the First Baptist Church Tuesday evening, January 19th. These slides show beautiful pictures on canvases that show the outstanding accomplishments of the King's Daughters in all the states of the Union and in foreign lands. Among them are hospitals, homes for orphans, for the aged and infirm—some of them wonderful creations of the spirit of "not to be ministered unto, but to minister."

Prior to the pictures will be a musical program, the same to be announced later. There will be no charges to this evening of pleasure and profit, but a silver offering will be taken and the proceeds will be used in the milk fund for undernourished children. You can help in this worthy cause by attending and taking your friends.

Square Dance Enjoyable Affair.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the new year was the square dance given Thursday evening at the Cabarrus Country Club.

More than a hundred persons were present for the dance, the figures for which were called by H. A. Jarratt and J. Leonard Brown. Music was furnished by an orchestra from Mooresville.

Punch and sandwiches were served by Mrs. Guy Beaver and Mrs. R. S. Young and Mrs. W. H. Wadsworth.

The dance was one of several social events planned by members of the club for the winter season.

King's Daughters to Meet With Mrs. Beaver.

Falls 5 Stories, Then 5 More, Breaks Leg and Hurts Wrist.

New York World. Fellow structural ironworkers, plegmatic enough beings on swaying girders and beams above the street, have always marked Paul Rockhold as "a guy that keeps his head."

That Rockhold is keen even his head today is due to luck; for yesterday he slipped on a narrow ledge of steel on the twelfth floor of the fifteen-story building under construction at Riverside Drive and 100th Street, and fell into an airshaft.

Down he went, followed by the horrid shouts of his "gang," to the fourth floor. There he landed squarely on scaffolding on which bricklayers were working, bounded up and fell five more floors into the basement, landing on a pile of debris.

Down ladders and ropes swarmed the steel gang. Bricklayers and masons in the building ran to the basement, expecting to see only Rockhold's mangled body. They found him semi-conscious, but when eager helpers started to peel off his clothing to see how badly he was hurt, Rockhold sat up.

"Hey, what's the idea," he asked. "I'm all right. I know what's the matter with me. I got a broken leg and a broken wrist. Some of you guys call an ambulance."

An ambulance came from Knickerbocker Hospital and took Rockhold to Reconstruction Hospital, where physicians said he had suffered a fracture of the left leg and a possible fracture of the wrist. A few bruises, too.

Rockhold, twenty-six, is a "pusher"—leader of a steel gang—is employed by the Bethlehem Fabrication Company and lives at No. 536 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn.

WILLARD LOUIS and LOUISE FAZENDA in "HOGAN'S ALLEY," A Warner Picture CONCORD THEATRE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

MONTE BLUE AS FIGHTING KID IN "HOGAN'S ALLEY"

Patsy Ruth Miller, Willard Louis and Louise Fazenda in Cost. The Concord Theatre will feature a Warner Bros. Classic of the Screen when "Hogan's Alley," with Monte Blue in the stellar role, opens on today for a two days engagement.

With the Bowers of old New York as its locale the story deals with the simple and genuine folks of the alley. Lefty Obvious (Monte Blue) is a prize-fighter and the idol of the alley. He is a contender for the championship and his encounter with Battling Savage (Frank Hagney) results in his breaking his famous left hand. Patsy Ruth Miller (Patsy Ruth Miller) the terror of the alley, has grown to lovely girlhood and Lefty and she become engaged against the wishes of her father (Willard Louis).

He encourages the attentions of rich Dr. Franklin (Nigel Barrie) which drives Patsy and maddens poor Lefty. The lovers quarrel on account of Patsy's new interests and the girl goes to spend a week-end with Franklin. He manages to lose her father, who had been invited, and kidnaps Patsy. Lefty follows by automobile, and then by airplane and saves his sweetheart when her train is wrecked. In a terrific battle with the doctor, he breaks his left hand again and this ruins all Lefty's hopes in the pugilistic field.

OLSEN'S TERRIBLE SWEDES WIN KANNAPOLIS CONTEST

Olsen Himself Is Star of Game Playing Best Ball Ever Seen in Cabarrus City. Kannapolis was beaten Thursday night by the fast working, clever aggregation from the middle west called Olsen's Terrible Swedes. The final score was 38-22, with the visitors putting out but little effort to pile up any large score.

Olsen, reputed to be an all-American player, was the shining light, performing all sorts of trick plays and completely baffling the Kannapolis five by his remarkable passing and shooting.

He could, according to reports, stand in center and pass the ball bearing in his back to a teammate waiting beneath the goal, who would then toss the pill through the hoop for a counter.

The formations of the foreign five were unique as well as baffling, being the strangest ever seen on the Kannapolis court. The feature of the game, however, was the remarkable playing of Olsen who was the best player ever seen in Kannapolis, according to reports.

For the home team, Smith and Roberts played best, the latter putting up the best exhibition he has made this year.

LOOT IS FOUND HIDDEN IN SACK

Part of Money Taken From the Great Falls Bank Recovered. Chester, S. C., Jan. 7.—One thousand dollars and twenty-six cents of the money stolen Tuesday night from the Merchants and Farmers Bank at Great Falls, when two "El Jacks" walked into the bank apparently on a friendly mission and one held Cashier J. R. Goulock at bay with the muzzles of two large revolvers while the other looted the vault of approximately $5,000 in cash, $600 in Liberty bonds and a $600 diamond ring, and after they had completed their activities locked the cashier in the vault, who was later liberated by friends, was discovered this afternoon under an old warehouse in three money sacks by some young boys while they were looking for chickens, according to a long distance telephone message received here from Great Falls today.

The message stated that the warehouse is located about 200 yards from the bank. A vigilant search was made for more money. However, nothing could be found.

The discovery of the money leads some of the Great Falls people to think that the daredevil holdup which at first bore the earmarks of professional crooks, may have more of a local color, and some believe the criminals have not gone far as unquestionably they planned to get the money under the warehouse later. Then, too, the idea is advanced that had they been professionals, as at first thought, they would have gotten away quickly with their big haul and not left any of it hereabouts, as they had fully six hours to make their getaway, in the time intervening after they looked Goulock in the vault until his friends rescued him.

While the officers have worked diligently endeavoring to land the crooks, at a late hour tonight not only had no arrests been made, but there were no clues in sight.

Long before the Summe, a Yankee watched a caterpillar. Result, the "Caterpillar Tractor." Churchill claims that five men helped to create the tank, thus denying, in his suit against the British Government, Captain Bentley's claim to be the inventor.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS WARN POLITICIANS

Notice Given to Parties about Nominating Candidates Who Favor Liquor. Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 7.—Southern Baptists today issued solemn warning to all political parties in America against nomination of wet candidates for high office.

The moral and religious forces of this country will not support any candidate who is in league with the liquor interests and the lawless element, resolutions adopted by the commission on social service of the Southern Baptist convention, declared.

Law observance, law enforcement and adherence to the Volstead act were keywords stressed in the resolutions.

"No man can be elected president of the United States about whose patriotism and loyalty there can be any question," a statement concerning the resolutions issued by Dr. Arthur J. Barton of Kansas City, chairman of the commission, after today's business session closed, said.

Smoking Gives Women Faces of Men, Says Expert.

New York, Jan. 8.—Women, if they continue to smoke, will look like men, Joseph Byrne, managing director of the National beauty shop owners convention said today. The tobacco face is becoming more common among women, he added.

"Features of women who smoke," he said, "grow sharper as the nicotine habit grows upon them. The skin becomes taut and sallow. The lips lose their rosy color. The corners of the mouth show wrinkles. The lower lip shows a tendency to project beyond the upper lip. The eyes acquire a stare and the lids rise and fall more slowly."
