Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bolinger have moved from their home on Cemetery street to North Spring street, where they will make their future home.

Continued improvement is reported in the condition of Mrs. J. P. Allison, who has been confined to her home on North Union street for some time by illness.

K. L. Craven entered the Concord Hospital Thursday afternoon for treatment. Mr. Craven's condition has not been favorable for some time so he decided to enter the hospital to undergo treatment.

Work has been started again on the extension of Spring street which is to link the two ends of this street between Chestnut and Tribune streets. Recent bad weather had stopped work on it.

Sunderland School and the Business Girls of the city will play a game of basketball Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. Both teams play a fast game and a number of spectators are expected to be present.

The red sunrise of Thursday morning brought rain, the precipitation beginning late in the evening and continuing until after midnight. While the rain fell intermittently early in the evening it developed into a downpour about midnight.

The Guernsey Bull Association will meet in Salisbury Saturday at which time Karl R. Musser, secretary of the American Guernsey Cattle Club, and W. W. Fitzpatrick, well known to southern cattlemen, will speak.

Good progress has been made with the work of digging the ditch for the water line from Concord to the Jackson Training School. Pipe has been laid all along the route and the work of digging the ditch has progressed in such satisfactory fashion that a completed job is expected soon.

Everything is in readiness for the meeting of the county primary teachers here tomorrow morning. The meeting will begin at 10:30 o'clock at the court house and an address by Miss Grace Gladstone of the Farm Life School at China Grove, will be one of the features of the program.

Several cases are to be tried in recorder's court this afternoon, police officers report. Most of the cases developed earlier in the week and were continued until today at the request of the defendants. It is reported by police officers that none of the cases are of an aggravated nature.

High winds, carrying colder temperatures, swept over Concord this morning. Forecasts of Thursday promised colder weather for today and the predictions have been fulfilled. More seasonable weather is promised for the immediate future although no severely low temperatures are expected.

Local officers are bemoaning the fact that a stolen car from Danville, Va., escaped them. Patrolman Robinson saw the car here Wednesday but no stolen notice had been received then. This morning he was notified that a reward of $50 had been offered for the car and the arrest of the 4 boys in it.

He set his pleasure ship a-sail in the streets of gay Paris. In reckless fashion he trampled all underfoot in his quest of thrills. The one fine thing in his life was his affection for his young brother, and then, through his own fault, tragedy came to the boy. Read "Satan in Sables," the serial novel by Gregory Rogers, which started in The Tribune yesterday.

Carolina alumni here will be interested in the report from Chapel Hill that James Baldwin, former coach at Trinity College, is being considered as a successor to Coach Bill Fetzner at The Hill. Baldwin has been very successful both in the east and south and his appointment to the job at Carolina would be met with approval, it is believed.

The tuberculosis clinic which is being held at Kannapolis this week by Dr. S. E. Lee, of Sanatorium, and Miss Margaret Ford, County tuberculosis nurse, is being taken advantage of by the people of that section of the county. The number of applicants each day very largely exceeds the number that can be examined, as many as ten having been refused examination in a single day.

BLUE LAW APPEAL HANDED COOLIDGE

Noah W. Cooper of Tennessee presents "Proof" That Nation is Going to Perdition. Washington, Jan. 20.—Noah W. Cooper, Tennessee leader of the Sunday observance movement, called on President Coolidge today and presented written arguments for Sunday blue laws. He filed with the President a formal appeal for a Sunday observance law for the District of Columbia.

The petition brought by Mr. Cooper, as Chairman of the Methodist Sabbath Crusade, asserts: "We insist that our national Sabbath is being fast destroyed. What is the proof?"

Nearly 10,000,000 people are working on Sunday in America in the railroads, express companies, telegraphs, shipping, newspapers, stores and factories.

"Our Interstate Commerce, the biggest in the world, has no Sabbath-Congress is its civic guardian."

About 20,000,000 Sunday newspapers are printed, shipped, sold, patronized and read every Sunday through interstate commerce. This traffic goes through every State, Sabbath-politicking, Nation-destroying stream of evil. It pulses unrestrained through the District of Columbia.

Our Capital City, once a Sabbath-keeper, now is an evil example of Sabbath-breaking that is polluting all our Nation."

"A Sunday observance law, to close secular business and sports on Sunday, in Washington, as we ask, would be a good step forward, not backward," the appeal continues, citing the fact that public offices generally are closed and public activities now cease on Sunday.

"So we ask nothing radical, only a step forward," the argument continued. "Why license Sabbath-breaking in Interstate Commerce?"

"Despite all these good customs and laws, Mammon is insidiously destroying the Sabbath in our interstate commerce."

"Trains and papers and the like didn't run on Sunday in the beginning. This had business largely began in the Civil War. Even now every railroad schedule shows that many trains run every day except Sunday. Likewise with newspapers."

"This reminds us of the rock whence we were hewn, the landmarks of safety and righteousness."

The President gave no intimation of his attitude on the Blue Law movement. He did not discuss it with Mr. Cooper.

DRINKING SHOWS STEADY DECLINE AT CHAPEL HILL

President Chase Says Prohibition is Making a Good Record. Raleigh, Jan. 21.—Prohibition is giving a good account of itself at Chapel Hill. President Chase reported to the executive committee of the University board of trustees today, saying that drinking had been less in evidence this year than last, and that cottages were continually improving.

The University head cited figures to show that federal and local prohibition authorities had been active in breaking up stills and apprehending blockaders and bootleggers in that part of Orange county. In so far as the University student body is

IT is only human for a funeral director to feel sympathetic in the presence of bereaved patrons. But it is real sympathy when he recognizes an obligation to see to it that the highest character of burial equipment is furnished at honest prices. Such a policy has been responsible for the success of this concern.

Typical of the burial equipment furnished by us in the Clark Grave Vault, recognized as a leader in the vault industry, because it gives positive and permanent protection.
