Snake Skin Cuffs

Snake skin is seen quite frequently on the new sport hats, bags and belts. This picture shows its novel application in the cuffs of these suede gloves.

Surprise Birthday Party in Honor of Mrs. J. R. Blackwelder.

Mrs. J. R. Blackwelder made a visit to the home of a nearby friend and upon her return, at 8 o'clock, she found to her surprise her beautiful country home filled with guests clad in evening attire. Each room was beautifully decorated with the colors pink and white. The refreshments were delicious and the entertainment was of the highest type.

The guests are indebted to Mrs. Herman Laughlin and Miss Zelah Blackwelder for the occasion which was given by them in honor of their mother.

Mrs. Blackwelder wore a dress of navy blue broad crepe. Miss Zelah was dressed in a navy blue beaded georgette evening gown. Mrs. Laughlin wore a dark green satin-back crepe trimmed in squirrel fur.

Those present were as follows: Mrs. Charles Krowder, Fred R. Bost, Misses Mae, Ruth and Beatrice Blackwelder, Theodore Blackwelder, Misses Gertrude and Rebecca Furr, John Furr, Jean Laughlin, Robert Safir, Herman Laughlin, Geraldine and Frank Laughlin, Mrs. Ada Clay, and E. J. Linker, all of Concord; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Herrin and son, of Mount Pleasant, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Hopkins and daughter, Mae; Russell Mallard, Fred M. Furr and Miss Johnnie Howell, all of Charlotte; John T. Howell, of Boone, N. C.

Those present reported a grand time and are looking forward to the 19th of January, 1927.

Will Honor Judge and Mrs. Olesby.

Mr. and Mrs. I. I. Davis, Jr., will entertain at dinner this evening in honor of Judge and Mrs. John M. Olesby.

Entertains at Birthday Party.

Miss Miriam Winslow Cannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cannon, was hostess at a movie party Friday afternoon.

Twelve guests were invited to the party by Miss Cannon and after viewing the program at a local theatre, Miss Cannon and her guests returned to her home on North Union Street, where refreshments were served.

CLYBURN'S HAND INSURED FOR 25,000 DOLLARS

Kannapolis Boy Who Made Fat Wallet in Florida Painting Signs Again in Laneside.

BY JAZZY MOORE
Kannapolis, Jan. 23.—A clause in a $25,000 insurance policy applied for by Bubbles Clyburn, better known in Florida as Professor "Bub" the sign artist extraordinary, and which an insurance company has underwritten, provides for complete protection of the famous Clyburn hand.

The policy, of course, provides for the payment of the full amount should the famous artist injure or lose his hand doing any kind of writing.

WRESTLING AND BOXING BOUTS ARE CANCELLED

Due to Injuries Sustained by Bozo Bozeman.

BY JAZZY MOORE
Kannapolis, Jan. 23.—Due to injuries sustained by Bozo Bozeman and a scheduled wrestler the past week the athletic department of the Cabarrus Y. M. C. A., promoting the Saturday night show, is forced to cancel the proposed combination wrestling and boxing bouts. However the rearranged card is on a par with the original one and marks the most luminous spot on the sport calendar for the remainder of the month.

Russell in Main Bill
Pee Wee Russell, of Concord, somewhat elated over his no defeat record, is anxious for the time to arrive for him to crawl through the ropes and oppose Jackie Widenhouse, Orlando, Fla., in the main bill of the card. This mill is scheduled to go the legal four rounds.

With visions of a bout with Lukie Tenner, Russell is confident of adding another victory to his belt in his debut headline tonight. He feels he must make critics come to a realization that he is capable and with this in view Widenhouse will have his hands full.

Russell is the most popular scrapper to enter a Kannapolis ring. His popularity is due for the most part on his willingness to fight. He owns a powerful righthand punch that is capable of putting the best glove-pushers to sleep if he is able to plant it right. He is in good condition after lots of indoor training, as well as some road work.

Russell's opponent, Widenhouse, from Orlando, Fla., says he will make the Kannapolian get up and keep going.

The semi-windup will offer the fight customers as big a treat as the main attraction. Both Williams and Bost are fighters of high calibre. Although the pair have been confined to their home arena during their fighting career they have won from many high ranking invaders. A sparkling struggle is expected.

The fact that the battle royal is the first glove-swinging mix-up since 1924 is causing a big crowd to turn out merely for the strong man" attraction. Stalwart "Strong Man" Anthony, 207 pounds will try to present Belk, 126, New Orleans; and Johnson, 128, Kannapolis; with the sleeping powders in the battle royal melee.

Featured by the battle between Willie DeMarcus and Ode Powell the preliminaries can also be expected to be good. The latter has been going at a rapid rate this winter and predicts DeMarcus will be easy meat, while DeMarcus declares he will hammer and slaughter Powell. This tilt will evidently result in a tempestuous grudge battle.

The opening number is between two highly touted colored leather-pushers. Both men will enter the ring with old fashioned slates. The exhibition is booked for a three two-minute go.

Wade Spry, a former Bernardi Carnival referee, will be the third man in the ring during the 18 rounds of fistie encounters.

Plans of the Methodists of City.

The Methodist ministers of the city decided last Monday to have simultaneous meetings in the Methodist churches of the city for two weeks. The meetings are to begin March 21 and run for two weeks—which will carry the meetings up to Easter. It is believed that these meetings going on in all the Methodist Churches at the same time shall awaken more interest, and thereby do more good.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR JACK PEACOCK

Boy's Mother Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lentz—Burial Made in Concord.

Funeral services for little Jack Allen Peacock, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Y. Peacock, of Thomasville, were held at the home Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock and burial was made in Oakwood Cemetery in Concord. The boy died Wednesday.

Officiating at the service in Thomasville was the Rev. Mr. Bodie. A short service was held at the grave in Concord at which time Rev. Mr. Hutchinson, of Thomasville, and Rev. M. L. Kester, of Concord, made short talks.

The boy was sick only one week, becoming ill with flu which later developed into double pneumonia and meningitis. Mrs. Peacock, his mother, before marriage, was Miss Lillian Lentz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lentz, of North Union street.

Surviving Jack Peacock are his mother and father, one brother, William Lentz Peacock, and one sister, Virginia Peacock.

The Bible is today printed in 572 languages.

Buying Better at Home

Humming along the road back home, there's undeniable satisfaction in knowing that the money paid for the things you bought in town was well invested.

The ability of money to buy economically and profitably in this Store has been well established. At no other place—in or out of town, over the counter or by mail—can money be made to go further for the things you need daily.

It has been conclusively proven that the extensive cooperative purchasing power of the Nation-wide institution of which this Store is a unit, is saving the people of this community a great many dollars annually.

We recommend your buying at home not because you should take pride in supporting home industry but rather because you can buy better at home.

The great, broad service this Store tender you enables you to buy better at home. Place us to the test in any way you desire.
