

COUNTRY CORRESPONDENCE

EASTERN NO. ELEVEN.

We are glad to see these bright days after the rain.

We are very anxious to learn what they have named the new hotel.

G. F. Platt is improving but not able to be out yet.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Faggart and family spent a while Tuesday evening at K. M. Faggart's.

Mrs. Lynn Platt has been spending a good deal of her spare time in Concord with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Isenhour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Winecoff and daughter, Miss Callie, spent a few hours Tuesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Castor.

Howard Hileman spent Sunday afternoon with Aubrey Winecoff.

Lloyd Sides, of Midway, visited his parents Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sides.

Miss Vettie Castor spent Monday night with Miss Pauline Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes and children spent Sunday in Kannapolis.

Mrs. Harry Hileman and sons spent a few hours Monday with Mrs. J. F. Hileman.

Miss Pauline Chambers spent Sunday with Miss Frances Castor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eddleman spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Castor.

BROWN EYES.

Mr. Beck, the barber, visited his father at Crescent Friday.

There a big hawk lit on a tree and he got in his ear with his gun and got in shooting distance and killed it.

It measured two feet from tip to tip of wings. He says if Happy, or any other correspondent can beat it, trot out your hawk.

It was very cold here all day Friday and cold here today Saturday, though it is bright and clear.

H. B. Leutz, the furniture man at Salisbury showed us a half dollar American coin, dated 1811. Who can beat it?

Venus receives so many nice letters from all parts of the United States, on different subjects, because they read our items in all the papers we write for, and there are thousands and thousands of people who read our items regularly and then they write about something they saw in our items. Here is a nice letter we just received from one who has the same surname as ours:

Safety Harbor, Fla., Jan. 25, 1926. My Dear Sir:

A gentleman friend of yours told me of you and had me to write you a letter, thinking perhaps there might be traced some relationship between us. I am a native of Florida. My father came here when a young man many years ago. Our people originally came from England, having settled in Virginia, Maryland and having sprung from a brother of Thomas Wyatt, perhaps first governor of Maryland. Members of the Wyatt family are quite numerous throughout both North and South and I know we are related through Adam anyway, which is certain. If you feel like writing me a line would be glad to hear from you.

Sincerely yours, H. F. WYATT, Safety Harbor, Fla.

GEORGEVILLE.

The weather continues to be rough and cold.

Everybody enjoyed the Community Meeting last Friday night, especially Mr. Barrier's talk.

I notice in the paper a good many names for the new hotel. I say name it the "Concord Royal."

Little Miss Novella Whitley is spending the week with her grandmother, Mrs. Eli Whitley, of No. 11 township.

Miss Alma Shinn is very much improved at this writing, we are glad to say.

Mrs. W. M. Auten spent Tuesday with Mrs. J. M. Kluttz.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Whitley and Miss Lizzie Kluttz spent Thursday in Cabarrus.

We are sorry to hear of Frank Furr being confined to his bed again.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Widenhouse, of Concord, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Widenhouse's sister, Mrs. L. D. Whitley.

Come on, Venus, with your items. We enjoy reading them and the balance of correspondence.

Miss Maye Shin, of Concord, spent the week with her aunt, Mrs. M. H. Barrier.

Miss Ollie Teeter is taking training at the Concord Hospital.

Miss Mary Steves is also taking training at Statesville.

Miss Ethel Blackweider spent the week-end with home folks.

Well, Groundhog saw his shadow, I suppose and I guess there will be six more weeks of bad weather.

This community was shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Martin Little. She is survived by her husband, three sons and four daughters and a host of friends. Her body was laid to rest at Howells cemetery.

Pete McManus, of Midland, has a new milk route by Georgeville.

WHITE HALL.

We are sure having some rough weather now. It seems to me like we are having more rain this winter than ever before as I can remember.

You are surely missing a real treat if you are not reading The Tribune's story, "Satin In Sabots." So far I think that it is the best story The Tribune has given us, not including "The Limited Mail" and "The Lost World." If you have not started reading it start now and get a real love story and adventure all in one. Venus cannot express my thanks for The Tribune's work in giving us those stories.

man that wanted it named after Mr. Cannon lived at Kannapolis. Still, I say name it after Stephen Cabarrus, a great man who did all in his power to aid Cabarrus county in her progress.

Lets have more news from Rocky River and Harrisburg. CAROLINA KID.

HILEMAN MILL.

We are having plenty of rain along now and the roads around here are some muddy.

Miss Kathleen Chamber is on the sick list, we are sorry to note.

Mrs. W. L. Sides spent Tuesday with Mrs. Harry Hileman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Winecoff and daughter, Miss Callie, spent a few hours Tuesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Castor.

Howard Hileman spent Sunday afternoon with Aubrey Winecoff.

Lloyd Sides, of Midway, visited his parents Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sides.

Miss Vettie Castor spent Monday night with Miss Pauline Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes and children spent Sunday in Kannapolis.

Mrs. Harry Hileman and sons spent a few hours Monday with Mrs. J. F. Hileman.

Miss Pauline Chambers spent Sunday with Miss Frances Castor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eddleman spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Castor.

Must Visit Kannapolis to Understand Its Wonders.

Much has been said about Kannapolis in the past few years but one has to visit and see the place before he can really understand just what kind of a place this is. Here you will find a model mill town in many ways.

Here you will find the most intelligent and best dressed textile workers in the south. Here you will find good schools, the Mary Ella Hall for young girls, that they might have a home like that they left before they came here, and a great deal better than same had or ever saw.

I happened to be there at noon time and saw a part of these employes as they came out at noon. I have seen the French people retreating before the German army during the world war. This is what that looked like, a great deal, each one in a hurry to get out of the way of some of the many Ford cars that were darting about there. I counted 92 lined up on Main street. Of course these were not all Fords, sisters the Star and others.

This town has sprung up from the straw fields in the past 15 or 20 years through the fortune of J. W. Cannon. I happen to be one of the many that were at the banquet of supper given by J. W. Cannon and his son, C. A. Cannon, a short time before his death. His superintendents, overseers and loom fixers here each and everyone received the same welcome regardless of our fortune. I see the typical figure yet standing with his head bowed as we sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." This man needs no monument more than the one he built before his death.

If I had built Kannapolis I would want nothing more than for the ashes of my body to be scattered over this town at my death. On the other hand I wonder how many of these employes ever give a thought to the man who made this town possible.

ARNOLD B. HARPER.

GEORGEVILLE.

Those who believe in "Mr. Ground Hog" have the honor of knowing he saw his shadow and is now predicting six more weeks of winter.

W. W. Harrington received a message on last Saturday morning stating that his niece had been killed in accident. He left at once for his home in Taylorsville.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Surratt and children and Roy and Walter Surratt, of Barbers Junction, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Eddy.

Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Shinn and K. A. Jr., and Clyde Shinn, of China Grove, spent the week-end with J. C. Shinn's.

Miss Lillian Widenhouse, of Midland, was the guest of her cousins, Misses Inez and Laura Mae Shinn.

Miss Carrie Drey, of Mt. Pleasant, students of M. A. S., Mt. Pleasant, were the guests of Miss Drey's sister, Mrs. John Eudy, last weekend.

Harry Barrier spent Saturday afternoon in Concord.

Our basketball team played three games last week. Unfortunately they were not victorious.

New desks for the primary room have been ordered and are expected most any time. The room has been partly furnished with patent desks, but owing to the large enrollment it became necessary to order some.

WHITE HALL.

If the weather stays like it was last week we might have some clear weather for a few weeks.

The White Hall literary society met Friday, February 5th. The program was rendered as follows:

Roll called and minutes read by secretary.

Reading—Annie Mae Sides. Recitation—Edith Little. Jokes—Grace Kiser. Story Telling—Margaret Sides.

Debate. Query: Resolved that moving pictures do more good than harm. The affirmative was upheld by Carry White and Dixon Talbirt. The negative was upheld by Eloise White and Sadie Joyner. The judges, Miss Nettie Litaker, Miss Mollie McDonald and Miss Viola Sides, decided in favor of the negative side.

No other cigarette in the world is like Camels. Camels contain the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. The Camel blend is the triumph of expert blenders. Even the Camel cigarette paper is the finest—made especially in France. Into this one brand of cigarettes is concentrated the experience and skill of the largest tobacco organization in the world.

When it's morning—and you call good-bye to home and face a new day—when you join the throngs on their way to busy work—have a Camel!

WHEN it's farewell to fond home for another day. And you cheerfully join the busy world as it marches on to its duties. When with jaunty step you gayly face the work of another day—have a Camel!

For every morning Camel sends millions of successful men more confidently on to new triumphs. Camel's friendly goodness brings fresh cheer and courage to every auspicious day. Whether early in the light of a new morning or late at night, Camel never tires the taste or leaves a cigarette after-taste. Camels are the perfect blend of the choicest tobaccos grown in all the world. Never, before Camel, was any cigarette made so good—and no other since.

So this day as you swing bravely forth to new achieving. As in your office you carry forward important work well done—know then the most gratifying goodness that ever came from a cigarette. Each successful new day, the world's best is rightfully yours.

Have a Camel!

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

SLAPPER OF GIRL FREED IN COURT

Brooklyn Grocer Warned to Leave Bronx Luss Alone.

New York Mirror. "Do you love this woman—?" "I do."

"Do you love this man—?" "I DO NOT."

And Vincent Lenci, 35, No. 7213 13th Ave., Brooklyn, wealthy Italian grocer, was given a suspended sentence and warned to stay away from Miss Elsie Maser, 25, No. 1764 Weeks Ave., the Bronx.

Miss Maser told Magistrate Douras in West Side Court that Lenci had slapped her face at 44th St. and Broadway. The man contended that he spent $10,000 on Miss Maser in six weeks. She did not deny it.

Says Too Many Theatres in New York Cause Poor Plays.

New York, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Crosby Gaige, the producer, believes there are too many theatres in New York city that there are not enough good plays to fill them.

"Nothing hurts the theater more than a sorry production," he said. "People spend their money expecting to see something good and the disappointment is so keen many stay away for some time."

"If we could fill our sixty theatres with sixty good plays it would be a wonderful accomplishment, but the fact is we seldom have over a dozen good productions a season."

The producer believes the American drama is improving, however, and that there are many present day actors who rank with the stars of old.

Some Prospective Legislative Candidates.

Union Republican. W. O. Saunders, the peppery editor of the Elizabeth City Independent, has announced himself a candidate for the legislature from Pasquotank county. There is some talk of Cam Morrison being sent to the legislature from Mecklenburg and Josiah William Bailey from Wake. Now if Moore county will only send "Marve" Henry Page and the other three named get to Raleigh the seating will be complete for a continuous sixty day raffle when the 1927 legislature meets in Raleigh.

Box Office Figures Show Japanese Like Baseball.

Tokyo, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Popularity of baseball in Japan is shown by the announcement that in the seven games between the University of Chicago and Japan university the gate receipts amounted to more than 70,000 yen. The total receipts of all the various university league games were given as 79,758 yen. The University of Chicago games, therefore, drew the best paying crowds of the season.

Frederick the Great of Germany learned to play the flute against his father's wishes.

Miss Eudy Entertains at Georgeville.

Miss Elma Eudy entertained a number of her friends at her home Saturday night. The guests were: Miss Carrier Drey, Miss Johnston, students of M. A. S., Mt. Pleasant; Miss Inez Shinn, Miss Laura Mae Shinn, Clyde Shinn, of China Grove, Roy Surratt, Walter Surratt, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Surratt, of Barbers Junction; Harry Barrier and Mr. Moore, of Concord. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

Death of Mrs. Paul Eudy.

Mrs. Paul Eudy, widow of the late Paul Eudy, died at her home in No. 1 more White Hall basketball win next week. Look for them if you like sports.

Mrs. C. A. Harrison, of Salisbury, spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Christenbury, on Route 7.

Mrs. R. O. Christenbury, of Route 7, and daughter Annie are spending a few days in Salisbury with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Harrison on East Cemetery street.

We thought a name for the new hotel would be selected before now. I expect we will know what the new hotelery will be named by the time you read this. Name it either after Stephen Cabarrus or Woodrow Wilson, the dead World War president. A most crimminating attack occurred on an aged woman in Meckant, were the guests of Miss Drey's sister, Mrs. John Eudy, last weekend.

Harry Barrier spent Saturday afternoon in Concord.

Our basketball team played three games last week. Unfortunately they were not victorious.

The honor roll for Mrs. Jack Bost's room this month is as follows:

First grade—Edgar Barbee, S. J. Ervin and Willard Miller.

Second grade—Howard Jones Horton, Glenn Kiser, Edith Shoe and Francis Auten.

These small children deserve credit in the beginning of their education. Let's hope that the honor roll for Mrs. Bost's room will increase every month.

Howell and Gilwood schools met in a game of basketball Friday evening on the White Hall court. The game was enjoyed by all of our school and the visitors. The game seemed as if it would be a tie until the last half when Howell edged out by the decisive score of 20 to 13. Lloyd Garmon, of White Hall, refereed the game.

We will try to give the readers some more White Hall basketball wins next week. Look for them if you like sports.

Mrs. C. A. Harrison, of Salisbury, spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Christenbury, on Route 7.

GOOD COOKS USE CALUMET

Calumet—because it has more good qualities than any other brand. Just give it a trial and be convinced.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST BAKING POWDER

SALES 2 1/2 TIMES THOSE OF ANY OTHER BRAND

Stubborn Coughs Quickly Stopped This New Way

It is often surprising how the most persistent, hacking cough that not only robs you of strength and sleep, but often leads to more serious trouble, yields quickly to a simple but wonderfully effective treatment.

This treatment is based on the prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You take just one teaspoonful at bed time and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of night coughing. So with the cause removed, coughing stops quickly, your sleep undisturbed, and the entire cough condition soon disappears.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, sore throat, hoarseness, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children as well as grown-ups—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for
