CHAPMAN'S LAWYERS TO STAY EXECUTION

JUDGE JENNINGS WILL HEAR PLEA

Give New Hearings So the New Witnesses Can Testify,

Wethersfield, Conn., April 3.—(P)—Gerald Chapman's appointment with death by way of Connecticut's new hanging machine which throttles the life out of a man with a double jerk, was less than 70 hours away today. The bandit spent the 'day yesterday calmiy reading and smoking cigarettes in his cell at state prison while his attorneys worked feverishly to save him from the ever nearing gallows. Only once did he betray any anxiety. That was after his attorney, Joseph M. Freedman, had spent 35 minutes with him. As he turned to leave Chapman stopped him. "Will you be here tomorrow?" he asked, a plaintive note creeping into his voice. "I certainly will." Freedman said.

"Will you be here tomorrow?" he asked, a plaintive note creeping into his voice.

"I certainly will," Freedman said, Chapman seemed relieved.

His staff of attorneys who have carried his efforts to escape the noose early Tuesday morning for murder of Patrolman James Skelly of New Brittain to the II. S. Supreme Court, worked all night developing new evidence by which they hope to gain a new trial.

Early this morning two persons, one of whom is believed to be a sixth new witness, drove up to the Bond Hotel, in Hartford, headquarters for Chapman's attorneys. Their chauffeur said he brought them from Providence, Frederick J. Groehl, chief counsel for Chapman, refused to discuss their for Chapman, refused to discuss their for Chapman, refused to discuss their and the Li S.
