DAIRY MEETING AT THE COURT HOUSE SATURDAY

J. A. Arey, State Specialist, will Discuss Need of Pure-Bred Cattle For Dairies.

R. D. Goodman, county farm agent, is confident that many Cabarrus people will attend the dairy meeting at the court house Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock when J. A. Arey, State dairy specialist, will discuss some of the problems of the dairymen.

Mr. Arey has been invited to Cabarrus especially to discuss the need of pure-bred stock by the man who wants to make money from his dairy, and has been asked to dwell at some length on the importance of the pure-bred sire.

Mr. Goodman is anxious to start a better cattle campaign in Cabarrus and it is possible that such a campaign may be started after the meeting on Saturday. Dairy owners in all parts of the State are beginning to realize, Mr. Goodman states, that scrub stock is a liability, and he hopes the meeting will result in a determined campaign to rid this county of unprofitable stock.

INDIAN STATESMAN TO BE IN CONCORD

He Will Speak at the Kiwanis Luncheon Friday and in the A. R. P. Church That Night.

Concord tomorrow morning to fill some engagements here.

Among the converts of Alexander Duff, the great missionary to India, there were the parents of this man, and they were baptized by Mr. Duff. Hence, we see that Mr. Bannerji was reared in a Christian home. For many years he was a member of the Presbyterian Church in India. Some years ago, Dr. A. J. Ranson, of the A. R. Presbyterian Church, went to India as a missionary, and was assigned that territory where Mr. Bannerji was. Then Mr. Bannerji became a member of Dr. Ranson's church and for 16 years has done a great work among his own people. He is an outstanding Christian gentleman of the high Indian type.

His noble citizenship is shown by the fact that he is the highest official of the English government in North India, and is recognized as a man of affairs.

The newspaper reporters who called on Mr. Bannerji some time ago in Charlotte were surprised to learn that he spoke perfect English.

He is to speak at the Kiwanis luncheon tomorrow at 12:30 and will speak in the A. R. P. Church tomorrow night at 7:30. It is expected that the church will be filled. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

B. A. SIDES ELECTED PRESIDENT PINE BURR

Speedy Sprinter Outdistances All Opponents to Lead Scholarship Organization.

The following from The Technician, State College publication, will be of interest here, Mr. Sides being a Concord boy:

B. A. (Doodle) Sides was elected president of the Pine Burr, local honorary scholarship society, at a business meeting of the society Wednesday night, May 5th.

Sides is a prominent member of the junior class in agriculture, and has taken an active part in a great many activities on the campus. His ability and versatility are almost phenomenal. He began what promised to be a rather inconspicuous college career by working in the registrar's office and the college dining hall to pay his way through college. He has succeeded so well in this that he has not only paid his expenses, but has accumulated enough reserve to purchase a car of the "tin-can" variety.

He made his letter in freshman track and last year won his monogamy the most outstanding sprinter on a very creditable team.

His success as a student is attested by the fact that he is a member of every scholarship society and fraternity to which his courses make him eligible.

He is a literary student of ability, having been at one time president of the Brooks Literature Club. He is at present on the staff of the Watauga, the college literary magazine.

"DEAD" WIFE TURNS UP TO CLEAR HUSBAND

Earl Thompson on Way to Jail For "Strawstack" Murder.

Kansas City, May 11.—As Earl Thompson was en route today to Des Moines, Ia., in custody of an Iowa Sheriff, to face charges of having murdered his wife and burned her body in a strawstack near Carlisle, Ia., a woman was found in Kansas City who said she was his wife. Thompson had searched her on his journey an hour when the police located Mrs. Thompson.

Identification of the body found in the burned strawstack as that of Mrs. Thompson was made yesterday by Mrs. Maggie Tarnon, of Omaha, who said, Mrs. Thompson was her grand-daughter. She said that she recognized charred pieces of clothing found with the body and that physical descriptions tallied with those of Mrs. Thompson.

The Carlisle "strawstack" murder had baffled Iowa authorities since the charred body of a woman was found in the stack last August.

The woman who claimed to be Mrs. Earl Thompson, said she and her husband had been separated about a year. She said her grandmother had always "had it in for her," a statement similar to that made by Thompson, who blamed the grandmother for his arrest.

TWO KILLED AND ONE MAY DIE AS RESULT OF WRECK

Truck Turns Over on Asheville-Chimney Rock Road—Half Dozen Are Injured.

Asheville, May 12.—Frank Fortune, of Marion, and J. H. Pierce, of Raleigh, were killed, and J. B. Carswell, of Morganton, is believed fatally injured in the wreck of a truck in the mountain between Asheville and Chimney Rock tonight in which eight out of ten men on the truck were either killed or seriously injured. The machine, which was carrying a crowd of workmen to Chimney Rock from Billmore where they had been engaged in unloading a steam shovel turned over six times, it is reported. The driver, Will Jones, a negro, escaped with a broken arm.

The car had no brakes but the cause of the accident was said to have been a blow-out in the front tire.

The injured were taken to the Rutherfordton Hospital.

North Carolina the Strawberry Center.

Tribune Bureau
Sir Walter Hotel
Raleigh, May 11.—North Carolina continues to be the strawberry center of the United States and is shipping from 64 to 70 carloads of berries a day from the "strawberry belt" which includes Columbus, Bladen, Pender and Brunswick counties. Although many berries are being shipped from other counties as well, additional berry pickers are being needed, and from 2,000 to 3,000 workers can be used for the next two weeks, according to Frank D. Grist, state commissioner of labor.

Growers pay two cents a quart to pickers, furnish transportation to any from the berry areas and also furnish lodging during the duration of the season. Owing to the dry weather, the berries are not quite so large this year, and the season will be somewhat shorter unless rains come shortly, when a second growth may result. The berries this season are sweeter and have a better flavor than usual, however.

Prices continue around $5 a crate, or from 20 to 28 cents a quart.

$20,000 Largest Income.

Mr. Adam Eifird Dies in Western Stanly.

Stanly News-Herald.

Mr. Adam E. Eifird, 68 years of age, died Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his home in Western Stanly. He had been in ill health for more than a year, but during the last few weeks had grown weaker.

He was one of the leading farmers of his section of the county, having been a farmer all of his life. At the time of his death he was living at his home in Furr Township in the western part of the county. He had a reputation for being a good neighbor, and well thought of by all who knew him. He reared a large family of children, all of whom have done well.

RAIN PROBABLY KEPT LOCAL MILLS GOING

Rumored That Southern Power Company Was Preparing to Ask the Mills to Curtail.

The rain of the past several days did more than revive gardens and farms, according to some local cotton mill men who are of the opinion that it has prevented a water shortage in the western part of the state, thus making it possible for the Southern Power Company to keep the mills who use its power on full time.

One cotton mill man stated that he was ready for a curtailment program when the rain started, he having heard last week that the lack of rain was being keenly felt by the power company. Whether the rainfall was enough to prevent the curtailment he could not say.

Another textile manufacturer fears the curtailment program will come despite the rain. "As a matter of fact," he said when asked if the rain would prevent curtailment, "there has not been too much water during the winter. Water conditions in the western part of the state have not been normal since the drought last summer and it is not certain that the rain this week will prevent a curtailment program."

The rain was general throughout the western part of the state and was a great aid to the hundreds of persons who had been fighting forest fires there. The fires are no longer burning with the speed that characterized their movement last week, the rain not only halting their progress, but making it easier for the fire fighters to get in their work.

Mr. Doyle declined to stand for re-election when he decided to attend Columbia University this summer. There he will work for his master's degree. He plans to leave with his family as soon as the present scholastic year is finished.

ASHEVILLE YOUTH GETS RIGHT TO REJOIN WIFE

New York Court Rules in Favor of Claim That Husband's Mother Interfered.

New York, May 12.—Robert Stuart, 19 years old, husband of Mrs. Edna March Stuart, former cabaret dancer, and son of a wealthy land owner of Asheville, N. C., can go back to his wife if he cares to, but she is not his legal guardian, Supreme Court Justice Charles L. Guy ruled Tuesday.

The ruling was on an application by Mrs. Stuart for a writ of habeas corpus directing Harry Deveaux, representing Robert's mother, to turn her youthful husband over to her. The petition alleged that Mrs. Lillian Stuart, Robert's mother, was responsible for their separation. Young Stuart walked out of the court room with Mr. Deveaux after Justice Guy delivered his ruling. He would not say if he would return to his wife. His wife alleged that a few days ago, after their marriage last March, Robert's mother caused his arrest on a charge of stealing $4,000 worth of jewelry from her. This, the former dancer charged, was an attempt of the mother to further her desire to have her marriage annulled. Robert's bride put up $2,500 bond for his release from jail and the charge against him later was dismissed. Then, young Mrs. Stuart charged Deveaux with keeping her husband away from her.

GETTING UP NIGHTS

Tells you there is danger ahead. A healthy bladder does not act at night.

J. H. Dorton, W. Graham, Va., says: "I had to get up seven or eight times at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. After taking Lithiated Buchu a short time, I am all right." Lithiated Buchu cleanses the bladder as Epsom Salts do the bowels, thereby relieving irritation, driving out foreign matter and neutralizing excessive acids. These are the causes of unnatural action of the bladder at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost 2 cents each. Sold at Gibson Drug Store or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio.

One sickly thin kid, age 9, gained 12 pounds in 7 months.

She must ask the Pearl Drug Company or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 tablets—60 cents—as pleasant to take as candy—and if at the end of 30 days if she isn't glad she bought them, your druggist is authorized to return her money.
