

"Soldier Kid" Elected Mayor

Captain Robert F. Kennon of the Louisiana National Guard is only 22, and he spent all spring at the infantry school at Fort Benning, Ga., specializing in machine gun work. But while he was away his home town of Minden, La., elected him mayor. He is shown above at the business end of a machine gun.

LOCAL MENTION

Two new cases of measles were reported this morning to the county health department.

Members of the Concord Rotary Club will meet at the Y. M. C. A. at 12:30 tomorrow for their regular weekly meeting.

The class play by members of the senior class of the high school will be given on Wednesday night of next week, it was announced this morning.

Panelled visiting cards beautifully printed at The Times-Tribune office, 50 for $1.00 or 100 for $1.50. Orders filled on a few hours' notice.

The business men's volleyball team will hold a regular meeting at the Y tonight at 7:30. All members of the team are urged to be present for the practice session.

The fire department was called to Tribune street about 8 o'clock Monday night but were unable to find any fire. It is not known who sent in the alarm, it is said.

The meeting of the D. A. R. will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. D. G. Caldwell. Officers for the year will be elected so all members are urged to be present.

The junior girls are enjoying a dip in the Y pool this afternoon for the first time this season. The pool was opened on regular schedule Monday when youngsters took their first plunge of spring.

H. L. Vanstoy, proprietor of the Cleveland Springs Hotel, committed suicide Monday afternoon at his Catawba county farm. He was well known in Concord and news of his rash act came as a shock to his local friends.

The Charlotte Hornets, home for ten games, began the Macon series with team will be in Charlotte the last three days of the week and the Knoxville team comes for three games next week.

J. W. Denty and Harry Lee Johnston, of the staff of the Y. M. C. A., are spending several days at the summer camp of the Y, making plans for the opening early in June. Several older boys accompanied them to assist with the work.

D. F. Widenhouse, prohibition officer, brought a big copper still to Concord Monday. It is reported that the officer seized the still in Stanly county. It is not known whether the operator was seized or whether any liquor or beer was sized.

More than a dozen defendants were tried in recorder's court Monday and they paid $209.55 in fines and costs. In addition one man was fine $200 and the costs for operating a car while intoxicated and was given until Friday to raise the money. He was sent back to jail.

Fine weather for growing crops is giving farm people a better feeling now. Following the rains of last week the sun was out in full glory Monday and today, this being just the sort of thing needed for the crops. Vegetable and flower gardens in the city are growing in fine shape following the rain.

Harvey B. Rogers has sold to B. W. Durbin property at Glass for $160, according to a deed filed Monday. Another deed records the sale of property in No. 4 by L. J. Carter to the city water and light board for $2,486 and another the sale of land in No. 11 by A. H. White to James H. Hobby for $900.

All of the windows in the new home of the Concord National Bank and the new hotel have been scrubbed, their cleanliness, adding much to the appearance of the structure. Workmen are making fine progress with the work on the building now and it is predicted that the hostelry will be ready for occupancy within a few weeks.

Fenner & Beane's Cotton Letter.
 New Orleans, May 17.—Cotton started the week easy on good weather over Sunday. Pressure from selling or liquidation, however, was not heavy and prices declined only a few points. The Atlantic states had needed showers while it was dry in the valley and western states where such weather is badly needed. Temperatures were unseasonably low everywhere. Reports of rains at San Antonio and Eagle Pass, Texas, received during the day tended to strengthen belief in such a possibility and steadied the market after the first hour. Sentiment is largely bearish on belief that weather has changed for the better and prices are likely to sag as long as it continues good.

WINECOFF
 Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Crowe and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stroud have returned to their respective homes in Wytheville, Va., having been called here by the death of Mrs. Crowe's and Mr. Stroud's father, Mr. J. A. Stroud.
 Mr. Ralph Stroud, of Florida, who was also called home by the death of his father, will spend several weeks here at with relatives and friends. Miss Annie Mae Ritchie spent several days last week with friends in Salisbury.
 Mrs. G. A. Shinn, who broke her arm and sustained other injuries when she fell from the steps of her home, is slowly improving.
 The many friends of Mr. B. E. Umberger, who is in a Charlotte hospital, will be glad to know that he is improving.
 Mrs. Mary Linker is visiting at the home of her son, Mr. Charles Linker, in Concord.
 Miss Evelyn Morrison, of Harrisburg, is the guest of Miss Margaret Litaker.
 Mrs. S. W. Cook had sugar peas from her garden the first of May, and Mrs. C. J. Goodman had new Irish potatoes from her garden the 13th of May. Can you beat that, Venus?
 Mrs. Welburn, of Wilkesboro, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Scott.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Duncan have moved from our community to Concord.
 Mr. Hagler, of Concord, has moved his family into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Duncan.
 Mrs. C. J. Goodman was observed at Mt. Olivet the second Sunday, immediately after the Sunday school hour, at which time a most interesting and appropriate service was rendered.
 The play, "Go Slow, Mary," presented at Winecoff High School by the Poplar Tent school on Friday night, was very much enjoyed.
 The Woman's Club had a most enjoyable meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. G. R. Winecoff. The spacious living room was filled to overflowing—about forty being present. After the regular routine of business Miss Cooley reported the sewing demonstration given in Concord last Friday by Miss Eastbrook, of Raleigh. She then discussed "color," explaining why so much care should be given in the selection of colors best suited to the individual types. Mrs. R. D. Caldwell invited the club to meet with her next month and pattern-making was chosen as the topic for study and discussion. The occasion was more than that of club meeting—there being combined with it a miscellaneous shower for Miss Margaret Litaker, attractive daughter of Mrs. Winecoff, whose marriage to R. L. Hartzell, of Charlotte, is to take place at an early date. As a formal announcement, crepe paper napkins bearing the names "Hartzell-Litaker," were passed around. A most delicious salad and ice cream was served. All were then invited to the dining room, where many attractive and useful gifts were displayed upon a large table.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Denny and children have returned from a fishing trip to Beaver Dam. They report a fine time. They were accompanied by C. P. Cline, of Concord.

NEWS REPORTER.
FAITH.
 Aulse Holsouser, Sr., and J. T. Wyatt, two old soldiers from Faith, went to Salisbury Monday, May 10th, 1926, and at the old soldiers had one of the finest dinners you ever saw, a good set down dinner with good hot coffee and cream. Here are the names of the good ladies that waited on our old soldiers: Mrs. R. G. Kizer, President, Mrs. L. H. Harris, Mrs. J. D. Heilig, Mrs. J. R. Deas, Mrs. F. F. Smith, Mrs. T. L.
