North Carolina's Leading Small City Daily CONCORD, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JULY 14, 1926

Greatest Bastile Day Pa-rade in Recent Years Staged in Paris During the Day.

MANY VISITORS WERE ON HAND

The American and British Flags Noticeably Absent From the Decorations on the Streets.

Tragedy

GANG WARFARE AT CHICAGO RESULTS IN MORE DEATHS

Two More Men in Different Parts of City Slain.

Robbery Was Not the

ONE MAN SHOT AT HIS HOME

The Other Was Taken For a Ride and His Bullet Riddled Body Found

Men Who Make the News

WHEN ON HAND

The American and Picitals

Prove the Processions on the Secretary of the Company of the Procession of the Secretary of the Company of the Secretary of the Secreta

FREEMAN TRIAL IN CHARLOTTE CAUSES FULL COURT ROOM

Lawyers Had Trouble Getting Seats When Woman Charged With Killing Husband Was Called

SPECIAL VENIRE FOR THE TRIAL

Jake Newell and Tom Jimison Appear For Defendant.—Judge Places Deputy to Keep Order.

Charlotte, July 14.—(P)—The Mecklenburg County court room was jammed, and lawyers had difficulty in getting to their seats when the case against Mrs. Nellie Freeman, charged with the murder of her husband, was called this morning.

The special venire of 100 men found it impossible to set if the station to have been destroy.

The gates of the park were closed today, and no information regarding the fire was made public, state troopers were on guard at the entrances, and allowed no one to enter.

Pays Lodging Bih After Forty years, after a ledging bill of $1.50 was left unadd in mand in the part of the second in the penitentiary, serving life second after a ledging bill of $1.50 was left unadd in Newton. The man who made it sent a check for double that amount to John Foard, of this city. The debtor was B. C. Wood, a promine ticitzen of Lincolnton, who wrote Mr. Foard that he recently learned from the latter's brother, Dr. Fred Foard, of Hickory, of the Lexington man's address.

The defect of the city of the Lexington man's address.

The defect of the preched upon an oscillating electric fan, his foot alipped and the blades did the rest. Immediate medical attention was given by W. C. Davis, of the museum staff, and the latter's brother, Dr. Fred Foard, the latte Mrs. Ed L. Green, of Yadkin College, were the strong with their mother in Newton, and came to that town of Lincoln and came to the control of three permits the ceretion of three beautifulary to the creation of three permits to the creation of the was the ceretion of three permits to the creation of the was the creation of the c Mr. Foard and his sister, Miss Lucy Foard, the late Mrs. Ed L. Greene, of Yadkin College, were living with their mother in Newton, when Mr. Wood came to that town conducting a woman of Lincoln and was forced to spend the night, lodging at the Foard home, His ready cash was low, so Mr. Wood said he would put in claim with the proper authorities for, this item of expenses, Because of the long delay in getting the amount to Mr. Foard, the Lincolnton man stated that he was doubling the original bill.

Balloon Passes Herrin. Herrin, Ill., July 14.—(49)—One of the four balloons which left (Xicago late yesterday in a mational race sponsored by the Elks Lodge, passed over Herrin at 7:15 a. m. today, travelling in a southwesterly direct in the more of the ballou was not distinguished.

Would Close Exposition.

Would Close Exposition.

Prills add his sister, Miss Lucy Foard, the Lincolnton man state of the ballou was not distinguished.

Davis, of the museum staff, and the in jured member encased in toothpick spints, But the excitement may prove too much.

S. Parrow Hersk in the excitement may prove too much.

S. Parrow Hersk in the excitement may prove too much.

S. Parrow Hersk in the excitement may prove too much.

S. Parrow Hersk in the section may avone a mere fledgling by the massed from a mere fledgling by the massed from a mere fledgling by the massed from a mere fledgling by the massed great delight from riding on the electric fan.

Perched upon the brass guard just outside of the blades, as it oscillated to the long delay in getting the amount to and fro, he would ride on it for hours at a time, loudly screaming his delight. But today the thrill must have had too big a kick, for his food in the four balloons which left (Xicago late yesterday in a mational race sponsored by the Elks Lodge, passed over Herrin at 7:15 a. m. today, traveling in a southwesterly direct, the four balloons which left (Xicago late yesterday in a mational race sponsored by the Elks Lodge, passed over Herrin at 7:15 a. m. today, traveling

Would Close Exposition.

Philadelphia, July 15.—(49)—An injunction aimed to close the sesquicentennial exposition on Sunday was sought in common pleas court today.

By the common pleas court today are with the Columbus team.

Fair in west, and probable in east portion tonight, slight in extreme east portion. Thursday generally fair warmer in northwest portion to moderate shifting winds northwest.

Rewarded

ed with the murder of her husband, was called this morning.

The special venire of 100 men found it impossible to get into the room, and it was decided that they would have to remain without until called. Reserved seats were to be arranged for them during the neon recess."

Mrs. Freeman, who killed her dusband with a ragor on the wigh: of May 22, came into the room rhority before 11 o'clock, and was scated behind her counsel, Jake Newell and Tom Jimison. Her mother, Mrs. R. H. Horton, was with her. Other relatives were at the bar.

The parents of the slain husband also occupied seats within the rail. They were sitting behind the states attorners. Solicitor John G. Carpenter, J. D. McCall and F. R. McNinch composed the legal array for the prospectivity. The composed the legal array for the prospectivity of the states and murchison, are still serving their sentences in the Alabama peniteriating or dered that strict sclence prevail and placed a deputy in the crowd to prevent conversation.

J. L. Booth, one of the two available regular jurors, was first called. He was rejected because of scruples and and the court called for the special venire.

George M. Rose, the other juror available, was also excused.

The four negroes were soon under succession and the court called for the special venire.

George M. Rose, the other juror available, was also excused.

The nation was suspended and the court called for the special venire.

George M. Rose, the other juror available, was also excused.

The nation was suspended and the court called for the special venire.

The man Jailed in Charge of Slaying her husband, John Hermania came to an antic cannet to an antic cannet of an antic proper, of the board of comme sioners.

Four negroes—Cleo State, John Murchison, Jim Hudson and With Crutcher—were convicted and given life sentences in the Alabama peniteriating for the proper.

Charge of the special venire.

The four negroes were soon under supplied to the word of the hole.

The nation was repeated because of scruples and for the

JNALUSKA MAY I

Members of Present B of Management Th Church Should Take t Property.

GREATER SERVICE BIG QUESTIO

President John R. Pe Thinks Property Wou Do Greater Service U der New Plan.

Lake Junaluska, July 14.—A The Southern Assembly plant of Methodist Episcopal Church So may be turned over to the cha within the next few weeks, with

Then action was suspeaded and the convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for the McClendon mure and sentenced to life imprisonment for the McClendon mure and the mure of the murler language of the morning.

There were served the murler language of the murler language o