Buffalo, N. Y., July 28—(P)—Fedieral agent's and police today made six more arrests in the Niggara frontier poison liquor case, the death toll in which stands at thirty-seven. The action followed statements of authorities that James C. Voelker, alleged leader of the distribution gang, stood ready to make a full confession, naming those higher up in the wood alcohol traffic. He is to answer a charge of first degree murder.

Those arrested include: Carl Voelker, father of the principal, prisoner, who is held on a manslaughter charge, of the other prisoners four are Buffalo moonshine makers and handlers, and the fifth a drinkery owner who is accused of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition act, Hamilton, Ontario, reported two arrests as the result of the arrival in that city of some of the poison conceacled in a carload of coal.
