

the English church. Bishop Che-shire is president of the memorial as-sociation. An invocation will be pronounced by Bishop Thomas C. Darst of the East Carolina Endews, C. Darst of the East Carolina Endews, C. Marker, endews Compensation Thomas C. Parker, endews Compensation Compensation States and Compensation of the state. Parker made the inspection when he who will welcome Sire Esme to North Carolina and the first English ettlement in America. The program will be interspected with the program will be interspected to the state. The program will be interspected to the state.

The program will be interspersed with singing of patriotic airs and the music of a government baid. Sir Same's address will be followed by the Same's address will be followed by the singing of the 'International Hymn'' which has words appropriate to the it fully. They are immensely happy, occasion and which is sung to the time of 'America'' which is also the time shire will close the proceedings with a benediction. The entire party then will repair to the venerable oak grove where lunch sorts will go to the various historic spots on the island, including old For Raheigh, which recently has received federal recognition. Late in the area word advanced a total loss." Mr. Parker expressed pleasure not only that agricultural products show indy area as were that the gro Raheigh, which recently has received federal recognition. Late in the federal recognition. Late in the federal recognition the the pro-would not exceed 1,800 carloads have been moved. New System of Directing Tourists.

ternoon the government cutter will convey the party back to the main land. Triginia Dare was the daughter of two members of Sir Walter Raleigh and England's wars prevented his return for several years and when has do it is whereabouts. The colon has been given the name by historian of Sir Walter Raleigh's "Lost Col-ony". By some it has been held that creatin Indians of today indicate that the lost conoly was merged with state the lost conoly was merged with so finical report of the next expedition sont to Virginia witch was surveted by mistake at Roanoke Island on trace of the colony was found which would has been given the name by historian of Sir Walter Raleigh's "Lost Col-ony". By some it has been held that creatin Indians of today indicate that the lost conoly was merged with so ficial report of the next expedition of search for the Roanoke Island of search for the Roanoke Island

No Hope for Hopefield.

