The condition of J. C. Cook, who suffered a stroke of apoplexy last week, shows little improvement. He spent a restless night, reports from his home state.

Police officers were called and it is understood that both men agreed to pay for their respective damages. One man in the Chevrolet was rushed to the Concord Hospital when he was pulled from the car with blood streaming down the side of his face. He was at the hospital only a short time, his injuries proving bruises and small cuts for the most part.

The crash of the Chevrolet against the curbing and post could be heard as a block and a minute after the accident occurred scores of people had gathered. There was no eye-witness to the actual meeting of the car, it is said, although several persons, attracted by shouts of the occupants, saw the Chevrolet as it turned and smashed against the street.

The closing sessions will be on Thursday, September 2nd. Election of officers will be taken up at the morning session while in the afternoon unfiled business and addresses will be featured. Miss Eva Peeler speaks on the intermediates and their work, with Rev. W. H. Greener of the Southern Theological Seminary of Columbia, talking on the work of the seminary.

Rev. Henry C. X. Roehner, of Mansfield, Ohio, member of the national executive committee and one of the outstanding Luther Leaguers of the country, delivers the closing address. The installation of officers, and closing vespers will mark the end of the meeting.

Roy Swearingen Dead. Roy, 3-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swearingen, died this morning at their home in the city. Funeral services will be held at the Grove Lutheran Church, of which he had been an officer for a number of years. Interment will be in the cemetery of the church.
