DESERTED BABE IS GIVEN NAME AND HOME

Month-Old Bay Left Here at Laffecty
Home Adocted by Mr. and Mrs.
Mason S. Johnston.
A permanent name and home are the proud possessions today of the rows-cheek habe test recently by unknown apersons at the home here of Dry J. S. Lafferty.
Tuesday aftermoon the baby, named
"fackle" by nurses at the Concord Hospital where he was kept, was legally adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Mason S. Johnston, of No. 3 township, and on the adoption papers his name was listed as "Mason S. Johnston, Jr."
Soon after they heard of the hopbeing at the lospital Mr. and Mrs.
Johnston skeed J. H. Brown, welfare officer, to allow from to adopt him.
If they agreed to make the child their legal heir and to provide for nin as the would a child of their own.
Other persons are and to have saked
for the child but none insisted as did Mr. and Mrs. Johnston. Several times they visited Mr. Brown and offiten they called at the hospital to see the youngster they hoped soon to claim as their own.
Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, went by the hospital Tuesday aftermoon, packed the boy, s. calning in a suitcase, carrich him with them to the court bones and filed with J. H. McAllister, clerk of court, a formal application for aloption.
The application was approved by Mr. McAllister, apon the recommendation of Mr. Brown, and soon, after Mason, Jr., left with his new and kinder parents for their home in No.
3 township.

ing his offerings far and often, will join his family at Mooresville for the winter. He is expected to make a re splendent record next year with a Fiedmont Club.

Of Smith, a popular sort of a fellow when it comes to lining up work, has four or five jobs in Winston-Salem, all of which offer attractive propositions. He thinks one bose will be lucky when the basehall season closes.

"Babbi!" Mexicon

closes.
"Tabbit" Motsinger, the debonair shortfielder, will likely return to the Camel City also. The dashing young felder needs a few more units to complete his high school course and since a glittering collegiate career awaits his graduation "Rabbit" will quite likely grace a school room this fall—and muke a school "mar"h."

Bob Kirk, clan boss, will stay at his home in China Geove with his family.

Red Irby will divide his time tween family responsibilities and cate business.

tween family responsibilities and acate business.

Jarrett, latest addition to the roster, is expected to lead a quiet life at his home near Moorgeville.

Mack McClain, who usually departs between suns and appears a finished eather at the first of the season, will doubtless follow the same course this year. And as for Mack Haynes the "sheik" of the aggregation, well, Salishiny has been established long ago as his stamping ground.

GREAT BASEBALL TALENT IS GATHERED FOR SERIES
