Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—(AP)—Another man connected with Chicago's illicit liquor traffic has been "taken for a ride" and a new notch has been whittled on the pistol of gangland. At the very moment police were rounding up and questioning gangsters in connection with the recent slaying of Hymie Weiss, leader of the city's most powerful bootleg band, the body of a man identified as John Dano, a relatively unimportant figure in the "risky" business, was found near the intersection of two main traveled roads in Franklin Park, a suburb.

Frieda Hempel, opera singer, refused to confirm or deny a report that her engagement to August Hecksher, wealthy philanthropist, was off. She was photographed on her arrival in New York from a tour abroad.

"WET" RESORT TO BE PLANNED SOON

"Grand Bahamas" of Florida Coast to Cater to Boozers There. Washington, Oct. 16.—A prohibition oasis just off the Southern coast of the United States is to be created with the sanction of prohibition officials. It will consist of an island known as the Grand Bahamas, 60 miles off the Florida coast. British and American interests have obtained a lease for 150 years on the island from Great Britain. Those interested in the grant have pledged themselves not to violate the laws of any other country and it is understood that under these conditions Assistant Secretary Andrews has given his unofficial approval. A sort of restricted colony will be set up in the island and those living there will be expected to adhere rigidly to the rules laid down by the promoters. No smuggling into the United States will be tolerated, and as long as the residents stick to the pledge to "buy and keep" their stimulants on the island they have the unofficial promise of the American dry forces to let them alone.

This action by the dry organization has caused a split in the ranks of the dry advocates and has stirred up a sharp controversy in and out of Illinois. The national and state leagues have been assailed because of the testimony before the Senate committee last summer that public utilities officials largely financed Smith's primary campaign at a time when he was the chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commerce Commission.
