COURT RECESSES

Criminal Docket Cleared Up in Two Days—Civil Cases Will Be Tried Next Week.

Cabarrus Superior Court recessed Tuesday afternoon until Monday morning, all criminal cases having been disposed of in two days.

When the last case on the docket was disposed of Judge A. M. Stack, the presiding officer, complimented the court on its behavior and added a word of commendation for those persons who were responsible for the establishment of the inferior court at Kannapolis.

"I have heard, Kannapolis mentioned only one time this week," Judge Stack said, "whereas under the old dispensation half of the cases tried in this court were from that town.

The case of State vs. C. L. Pate, charged with driving a car while intoxicated, was the last tried. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty after being out about twenty minutes.

The case of T. R. Brinkley, charged with seduction, was completed about noon Tuesday. Brinkley entered a plea of guilty to prostitution and was sentenced to serve eighteen months in the chain gang. Quite a number of witnesses were introduced by both the state and defense. The defendant and the prosecutor both took the stand. Notice of appeal was given by counsel for Brinkley and his appearance bond was fixed in the sum of $2,000.

Simon Pate plead guilty to simple assault on Tuesday and his judgment was continued upon payment of the costs.

A jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case against Theodore Woodward, charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Elmore Madison, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, was fined $50 and made to pay the costs.

Water Brown plead guilty and was fined $175 and made to pay the costs.

The cases against Charles Hatley and Robert Honeycutt were continued until the January term of court.

Not a true bill was found in the case against George Henry and the following cases were continued for bill:

DR. BUCHANAN SPEAKS AT P. T. A. MEETING

Explains to Parents and Teachers the Plans for Giving Examination to Children.

As the first step in his plan to secure parental co-operation in his campaign to examine every school child 10 per cent. or more overweight, Dr. S. E. Buchanan appeared before the Central Primary and Corbin Street Parent-Teachers Association Tuesday afternoon and outlined to some extent the manner in which the examinations are to be conducted and their purpose.

Funds have been secured by Dr. Buchanan for this work and he hopes he will receive such co-operation from parents that the work can be started about November first.

Children 10 per cent. or more overweight, experts agree, have a greater chance for their subnormal condition and Dr. Buchanan hopes through the examinations to find the cause of the trouble with the local and Kannapolis children.

Dr. S. E. Lee will assist Dr. Buchanan with the examinations and where it is possible for them to do so, Dr. Buchanan wants parents present when the examinations are made.

It will simplify matters if we can discuss with the parents at the time of the examination the trouble found, Dr. Buchanan said. "And of course after the cause is found the fight has just started. The parent will be responsible to a large degree for the remedy which we or a family physician can suggest."

Dr. Buchanan in his talk before the parents and teachers outlined to some extent the purposes of the examinations and described what he termed the "benefits" to be derived from the examinations.

UNUSUALLY GOOD MUSICAL PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR EXHIBITION ON FRIDAY NIGHT

An unusually fine musical program has been arranged for the "open house" at the Y on Friday night of this week. The program will begin at 8 o'clock.

The Davidson orchestra has been secured for the event by Secretary Blanks, and in addition "Harmonica Mike," the Radio Harmonica King, will render a number of selections.

During the evening those present will have opportunity to enroll in some of the many gym classes to be conducted during the winter. It is hoped that every woman, man and child in Concord who can do so will enroll but failure to do this need not keep any one from attending the social event Friday.

The "open house" will be a "come and go" event and those persons who find it impossible to remain throughout the evening can enjoy part of the program without interrupting the remainder.

The Davidson orchestra is always popular with Concord audiences and no doubt will render an excellent program in keeping with those rendered on other occasions here.

"Harmonica Mike," in reality Clyde Sullivan, has twice played around the world, living on the harp that has brought recognition to him. He has broadcasted from many of the leading radio stations in the United States and is called the "Harmonica Radio King." In addition to broadcasting in the United States he has been heard over some of the largest and best known stations in Europe.

Mr. Sullivan arrived in Concord the first part of the week. He played for the local Rotarians today and will be heard at the Kannapolis Y during the week.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The Y. M. C. A. basketball team will be organized on the first Friday night in November. Several games already have been scheduled with big Y and college teams. All persons who will try for places on the team are urged to attend the first practice.

The wrestling team of the Y will be organized for the year next Monday night. Physical Director Denny will have charge of the team again this year.

The men's volleyball team will begin regular practice at the Y on Thursday night. Captain Hazel Allred has new plans for the team and all who have signed are urged to attend each practice.

Membership cards will be distributed Friday night at the "open house" meeting at the Y.

Physical Director Denny states that already 500 juniors have signed for the gym classes to be conducted this year. On Friday night it is hoped many adults will sign for the classes to be organized for them.

Penitentiary Printing.
Stanley News-Herald.

We know about everybody and every business in the country had decided to go into the printing and advertising business in competition to the struggling weekly and semi-weekly newspapers, but we don't think that the state penitentiary would enter the field. We have had to compete with orphanages, where labor and materials mean nothing. Now then the state is coming in under the auspices of the state penitentiary so everybody ought to be happy (except the penitentiary employees who must pay for stock and help instead of taxing the churches and the people for any losses which may be sustained.)

GRAND JURY REPORT

Finds Conditions Good at County Jail, Chain Gang and County House.

The grand jury for the October term of Cabarrus Superior Court submitted its report to Judge A. M. Stack Tuesday afternoon and was discharged. The report follows:

"We, the grand jury, beg to submit the following report on the county jail, chain gang and county house.

"We have acted on all bills of indictment sent to us by the solicitor and investigated all violations of the law that have been brought to our attention.

"We, as a committee, visited the county jail and various offices of the court house. We find the various offices neatly kept and in very good condition. We find the jail in first class condition with everything clean. The prisoners are treated all right, with shower baths, hot and cold, and a good supply of coal. We note some commodes not clean, also some broken window panes. Also the county building is neat and clean.

"By committee we visited the county home, we find the number of inmates to be as follows: 11 white men, 21 white women, 12 colored men, 6 colored women, 3 juvenile prisoners, (2 white and 1 colored). Three horses, 1 mule, 8 milk cows, 1 heifer, 1 stock cow, 4 calves, about 20 odd goats, and a number of these have been sick with cholera; about 400 chickens, and plenty of provisions, about 50 bushels of feed of all kinds, sugar, rice, sugar and meat, corn, potatoes, etc.; a barrel of kum, 3 barrels of apples, 1 barrel of disinfectant. We find the condition of the chain gang good. They have 32 prisoners, 15 black and 17 white, 10 bushels of wheat and other feed and about 100 bales of hay. We also find the following equipment for the chain gang: 2 horse wagons, 2 mule wagons, 1 mule, 1 mule, tractor, 1 Ford truck, 1 White truck, 3 Ford trucks, 2 large road machines and one small machine, 1 concrete mixer, 2 No. 90 tractors, 2 No. 20 tractors, 17 sets of harness, 1 set of blacksmith tools, plenty of shovels, picks, etc. We find 120 bushels of oats, 23 bags of sweet feed and 9 bales of hay. We had livestock as follows: 17 mules, all found in good condition. We find no complaint among the prisoners. We recommend a greater water supply at the county home and the chain gang. This is especially needed during the fair weeks.

"We, the grand jury, having fulfilled and completed our duties respectfully ask to be discharged.

W. H. BROWN, Secretary.

STEPHENSON BLACK BOX FOUND, BELIEVED EMPTY

Mildred Meade Leads Prosecution to Her Hiding Place.

Indianapolis, Oct. 18.—The Marion county grand jury which is trying to unravel the web of political scandal spun around the sinister figure of D. C. Stephenson, former Klan overlord of the Indiana O. P., almost laid hands today upon Stephenson's black box.

Mildred Meade, the defiant, pretty girl of twenty-three who is described as a former friend of Stephenson in his palmy days, was taken before the grand jury; and before going into the jury room she led Prosecutor William H. Henry to safety deposit box No. 406 in the vaults of the Indiana National Bank.

Miss Meade, who had been sought by police for ten days and was arrested and held in $2,500 bond when she unexpectedly returned to the home of her parents Sunday night, appeared unconcerned about the disclosure of the bank vault hiding place. The deposit box, it is asserted, had been a repository for at least one set of Stephenson's papers.

Menace to High Officials

It is those papers, alleged contracts with high officials of such a nature as would cause wholesale impeachments should they become known, which Stephenson has used as a club from behind the bars of Indiana State prison, where he is serving a life sentence for murder.

Prosecutor Remy brought the deposit box before the grand jury when Miss Meade was called to testify. But the long black box, wrapped in paper, appeared so light it was generally assumed the contents had been rifled at an earlier date. Miss Meade's composure also supported this deduction.

Observers cannot longer doubt that Stephenson has struck some kind of deal and that it is the desire of his lieutenants to keep the incriminating papers out of the hands of the authorities. The documents, it is described, would have a high money value to Alleged Libeller Gets Suspended Sentence.

Winston-Salem, Oct. 16.—Convicted recently in Forsyth superior court of criminally libeling several lawyers and other leading citizens by word and fiction in the publication of two recent circulars W. B. Ellis, a former tobacco manufacturer here, was late Friday afternoon given a suspended sentence of 12 months on the county roads by Judge Ogleby besides being required to pay the costs in the case. Ellis was restrained from in any way, by publication, referring to any name appearing in the warrant drawn against him by the plaintiffs violation means; sentence becomes effective. The suspended sentence covers a period of two years.

Queen Marie Will Not Pay Visit to Mrs. Mebane.

Danville, Va., Oct. 17.—Queen Marie of Rumania will not pay a visit to "As You Like It," the home of Mrs. B. Frank Mebane at Spray, N. C. It is learned here. Correspondence has passed between Mrs. Mebane and Queen Marie, and since Mrs. Mebane is in deep mourning for her husband, who died recently a social event at Spray in connection with the queen's North Carolina tour will not be held.

Brother to Meet Brother

Brother will be fitted against brother when Charlie Borna, Army and Navy football player, and Arthur Borna, Navy football player, play in the Army-Navy football game. The Borna are from Hamlet, Wis.

the officials involved with Stephenson. One official is reported to have placed $250,000.

Naturally the prosecuting authorities and the committee of Republican editors, headed by Thomas H. Adams, of Vincennes, have no large sums to spend for incriminating documents, and if there were to be buying of the persons to whom Stephenson entrusted papers, the purchasers would be the officials involved in their agents.

However, Remy is working with zeal to ventilate the scandal and it is barely possible he may be able to develop enough leads to rebuild part of the evidence. And there is always the chance that not all of the papers are yet under cover and may fall into Remy's hands.

Mad Cows Gall p Through Streets.

(By International News Service.)

Leningrad, Oct. 19.—Galoping through the streets of the village and attacking savagely every living creature in sight, a herd of cows, infected with rabies after being bitten by a mad dog, kept by the inhabitants of the Leningrad suburb Lennoi in a picnic for twenty-four hours.

Militia corralled the mad bovines and sent for officials from the Veterinary Institute in Leningrad.

Professor Konge, rector of the Institute, and his assistants, Dr. Zmaloz and Dr. Chmelnik, replying to the call, incautiously approached the cows and were bitten badly. The doctors returned to Leningrad for treatment and ordered the cows shot.

Gene Tunney Will Not Marry While in Ring.

New York, Oct. 19.—Gene Tunney expects to avoid matrimony until he is through with the squared circle. "There is absolutely nothing to it," he said when told of a rumor that he was engaged. "I am not even keeping company with any girl. I am going to stay single as long as I am in the boxing game. Then if some girl comes along and looks kindly on me I may marry."
