

PROBLEM NOW IS TO GET OUT THE VOTE TOMORROW

Will Present Enthusiasm Be Sufficient to Make the Democrats Go to the Polls Tomorrow?

THE REPUBLICANS ALWAYS GO OUT

If the Democrats Work Half as Hard as the Republicans, a Great Victory is Theirs.

Tribune Bureau (By J. C. BASKERVILLE) Raleigh, Oct. 30.—With the campaign virtually ended and political enthusiasm at a satisfactory pitch, in fact, better than was expected, but one thing remains to worry the Democratic leaders. And that is the problem of getting out the vote!

For its well known from many years of past experience that one thing that the Republican voters do is to get out their vote almost 100 per cent. Despite the fact that in most cases there is little likelihood of winning...
