

Buck's Mahogany Enamel Heater

Another Popular Number in the BUCK'S Family

Mahogany enamel that will not come off. Beautifully trimmed with a high grade of nickel that will not tarnish.

For both Beauty and Comfort there is not a heater on the market today that will compare with this Buck's Parlor Heater. Carries fire over night. Heats one to four rooms. Consumes less fuel than one open grate. Heats by circulation, warming every nook and corner of the rooms.

Requires no polishing. This heater is guaranteed, and you may try it before you buy it. Terms if you like.

LOCAL MENTION

The Ministerial Association will meet at the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 6 o'clock.

One new case of typhoid fever was reported this morning to the county health department. The patient lives in Concord.

Louis Williams and Clyde Wilhelm entered the Charlotte Sanatorium Saturday, where they submitted to operations for hernia.

All applicants for places on the Y baseball team are urged to meet at the Y tonight at 8:30 for the first regular practice session of the year.

Eleven cases are to be tried in recorder's court this afternoon. The defendants are charged with intoxication, gambling, resisting arrest and assaults.

Hi Y and Hi G clubs will meet at the Y tomorrow night at 7 o'clock. The meetings will be concluded in time for members to hear the lecture at the high school.

Marked improvement is reported today in the condition of Ebb White, who underwent an operation at the Concord Hospital last week. He is now considered out of danger.

The Sunday edition of the Greensboro Daily News carried an attractive portrait of Mrs. Robert Dick, Jr., a recent bride. The portrait was made by Boyd W. Cox, of this city.

Register of Deeds Elliott Saturday issued marriage licenses to the following couples: Wilmer Hunsucker and Miss Ethel R. Beacham, both of Concord, and William H. Austin and Miss Etta Wilson, both of Kannapolis.

There was a rise in temperature during the night and with the warmer weather came overhanging clouds with threats of rain. The higher temperatures became noticeable during the afternoon and there was a further rise during the night.

Firemen were called to the plant of the Concord & Kannapolis Gas Co. yesterday morning about 8 o'clock. The alarm was sent in by one who mistook smoke at the plant for a fire and the firemen found nothing to do when they reached the plant.

Dr. S. E. Buchanan, county health officer, is checking up now on the reports of Dr. Adams, the dentist who conducted the clinic here for school children. The number of children treated and the approximate value of the work done will be ascertained by Dr. Buchanan.

George M. Fagart, Harris Emerson and R. D. Goodman left this morning for Raleigh to attend a conference called by Governor McLean to discuss the cotton situation. It is believed diversification and reduced acreage will be the chief topics discussed at the conference.

Members of the board of county commissioners are meeting at the court house today, this being a called meeting. During the morning the board members accepted the report of Sheriff Caldwell for last year's collection of taxes, this being the most important matter to come before the meeting.

Nevin (Nick) Sappenfield, first string quarterback for Davidson, wrenched his left knee in the game with Hampden-Sidney in Charlotte Saturday and had to leave the game. Friends of the fine field general hope that he will be fully recovered by Saturday in time for the game with Carolina at Davidson.

Mrs. Beulah Barrier has sold property in Concord and No. 11 township to Pink P. Motley for $2,000, according to a deed filed at the court house Saturday. Two other deeds record the transfer of land in No. 4 township by Mrs. Mary E. Brown to Evelyn Brown and E. Y. Brown, the purchase price in each being given as $10, love and affection.
