The contraband was in quart canse which no doubt had been suturnally alled and sealed. There were no labels on the canse.

While playing Tuesday along the banks of the creek behind Baffalo Mills some children found the cans, eleven at all. Thinking the cans contained something to eat the youngsters cut one one and then rushed home to tell their parents about it.

There was no mistaking the odor that came from the cans so the parents notified police officers who effects the goods to headquarters. Some of the stuff has been pourged jith bottles but most of it has been felt in the cans until officers decide to pour it all into the selver.

Officers stated they had no clue that might lead to the owner of the liquor.

While Teachers of County to Mess the stuff has been counting to Concord from the canse of County to Mess the self that the county of the self that the self that
