Opened Steady at Unchanged Prices to Advance of 3 Points and Sold 10 to 13 Points Higher.

New York, Nov. 22.—OP—The cotton market opened steady today at unchanged prices to advance of 3 points and sold 10 to 13 points above Saturday's closing figures in the early trading. A little Southern hedging was reported, but offerings were light and the advance of 12.70 for January contracts was attributed to further pro-bureau covering and some local of commission house buying promoted by relatively steady Liverpool cables. The advance met a little realizing which caused reactions of 6 or 7 points from the best, with the market comparatively quiet at the end of the first hour is if traders were waiting for the government crop report.

Liverpool cables reported hedging light in the market there, with prices steady on covering and trade calling.
