WANT FUNDS FOR NEAR EAST RELIEF WORK

C. W. Swink Appointed Treasurer of Campaign in Cabarrus—Golden Rule Sunday to Be Observed. Thousands of Armeian children are in need of succor, and they are looking to America as they have done in the past, to carry them through the great hour of need.

Golden Rule Sunday, when special contributions are taken for these orphans in all parts of the United States, will be observed this year on December 5th, with the campaign already formally opened in North Carolina.

Persons in Cabarrus who wish to give something to add to the comfort of these stricken orphans are asked to see C. W. Swink, at the Cabarrus Savings Bank.

J. B. Ivey, of Charlotte, state chairman of the Near East Relief, has sent the following letter to Mr. Swink, explaining the work that has been done, the work that must be done and the only means of carrying on the work: Mr. C. W. Swink, Concord, N. C.

Two hundred thousand orphan children have been cared for by the Near East Relief—most of them trained to be self-supporting at sixteen years of age. Last year over 10,000 became independent. They will make an impression on their generation. There are now approximately 35,000 children under our care.

North Carolina has always taken a leading part in this great humanitarian work. Our state should stand foremost in the ranks of those giving succor to that nation of little orphans of the Near East. We must carry on just a little while longer. We cannot emphasize too strongly the distress and need at the present time. You have no doubt read recent newspaper articles on the great earthquake which caused such destruction through this area. Conditions are appalling.

—zero weather and deep snows are just ahead, starvation is facing this area unless we open our hearts and come to their immediate assistance. I am taking the liberty of sending you a small package of broad-sides and checks. Please see to it personally that these are placed in the hands of your most substantial patrons. I am also enclosing a map showing the present area of Near East Relief activities. Please place this map in a prominent place in your bank. Speak a good word for the cause—help it along. It is deserving of your personal attention.

Let me suggest that you serve as temporary treasurer for Near East Relief from now until December 5th, which as you no doubt know is International Golden Rule Sunday. Then the week of December 6th you can remit to John M. Scott, state treasurer, all funds you have collected. Or if your patrons wish to make a contribution direct, tell them to mail same to John M. Scott, state treasurer, Box 1198, Charlotte, N. C., and an official receipt will be mailed them. Your county will receive credit for all funds received.

Let this be your motto to this great cause. J. B. IVEY, State Chairman.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE TO BE STARTED HERE SOON

Sale of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals Will Start First Week in December Under Direction of Mrs. A. Jones Yorke.

A campaign for the sale of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals will start in Cabarrus county the first week in December, it was announced today by Miss Elizabeth Gibson, chairman of the Cabarrus County Tuberculosis Society.

The sale of the Christmas Seals in Cabarrus county will be under the direction of Mrs. A. Jones Yorke as general chairman, and Mrs. W. L. Burns, school chairman. A chairman will be named to direct the sale of the seals in Kannapolis and Mt. Pleasant, it was said. Special attention will be given by the schools over the county to aid in the sale of the seals.

The supplies for the seal sale campaign have been received in Concord and will be distributed to the workers within the next week so that they will be able to start the sale during the first week in December.

The Tuberculosis Christmas Seal sale is conducted all over the United States. This year is the nineteenth annual sale of the seals to secure funds to aid in the prevention of tuberculosis.

Seventy-five per cent of the money that is secured by the sale of seals in Cabarrus county is used in the county. Part of the money is used to purchase milk for the tubercular patients of the county. Twenty-five per cent of the money secured is sent to the National Tuberculosis Society where it is used to carry on the expenses of the society in its national work of fighting the great "white plague."

A No. 10 Township Colored Farmer, Monroe Enquirer. David H. Black is a colored man, 60 years old, who lives in Cabarrus county. He brought two bales of cotton to Monroe yesterday for which he received 12 cents a pound. Uncle Dave, as he is familiarly known is a good citizen and somewhat of a philosopher, for he said: "We have no cause for complaint—the Lord is good to us for we have plenty to eat and we live in a powerful country. We should all be thankful for plenty to eat even if cotton is low."

Uncle Dave then recited how he carried three bales cotton to Charlotte when he lived with the late Robert Stewart in Vance township. "The three bales were sold for five cents a pound, and I had very little money left after buying 500 pounds of meat."

Add this talent of impudence to the gift of beauty and you have men of importance.

OFFICE BERNICE TALBIRT DIES AT HOME HERE

Had Been Ill For Several Months With Complication of Disease—Funeral Wednesday. Miss Effie Bernice Talbirt, daughter of Chief L. A. Talbirt of the Concord police department and Mrs. Talbirt, died this morning at 3 o'clock at her home on Mare street. She had been ill for about three months and her death was due to a complication of disease.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. Herman Truesdell. Interment will be made in Oakwood cemetery.

Miss Talbirt recently underwent two serious operations, the first about three months ago and the second about six weeks ago. She never fully recovered from these although just after the second her condition seemed improved for several days. Her condition became grave several days ago and she became gradually weaker, her death occurring this morning.

The deceased was seventeen years of age, having been born in Cabarrus county on August 23, 1900. She had lived in Concord for about five years, and for several years had been actively associated with the work of the First Baptist Church.

Surviving are her parents, four brothers, L. B. A. W. M. W. and L. A. Talbirt, Jr., all of Concord, and three sisters, Mrs. Louise Talbirt Bass, Mrs. Annie Talbirt Tadlock and Miss Margaret Talbirt.

Great Crowd Expected to Hear "Schools and Fools." If the enthusiasm created by Congressman Upshaw among fifteen hundred school boys and girls today is any indication there will be a record crowd to hear this famous lecture on "Schools and Fools" at the High School auditorium tonight. He comes for the benefit of the athletic association.

The Georgia orator was given an ovation when he entered the auditorium at 7 o'clock, exercises this morning. He made a brief but captivating speech and then went to No. 2 school and Gen. Central grammar school, teaching the boys and girls to stand up and repeat the motto of his life: "Let nothing discourage you—never give up."

Gales of laughter and applause greeted his sparkling speech. The High School orchestra will begin the music at 8 o'clock.

Something Novel and New at the Concord Theatre. There will be a barrel of fun at the Concord Theatre Thanksgiving night from 7 to 9 o'clock. Several of the leading merchants of Concord, whose names appear on the big ad. on page six today, are contributing 14 valuable prizes to be given away "surprises" for everyone.

On the screen you will see Greta Garbo in "The Temptress," with Antonio Moreno and Lionel Barrymore, a Metro-Goldwyn picture.

Here is the brilliant, colorful tale of an amazing beauty who moves, flamelike, through the lives of men. Told as only Greta Garbo can tell a great story, directed by Rex Niles in "Ben Hur," with Greta Garbo as the empress, surrounded by a notable all-star cast.

Don't miss this evening of fun and entertainment. Olive Borden Gorgeous in Stylic Revue. Olive Borden, in "Fig Leaves," her latest release for Fox films, will be at the Concord Theatre again today, in this remarkably beautiful story, written and directed by Howard Hawks. Miss Borden appears in a marvelous fashion revue and wears some of the most elaborate gowns ever seen in a motion picture production.

In addition, there are countless scenes in the Garden of Eden. These, as well as many of the fashion sequences, were filmed in Technicolor. Miss Borden is supported by a excellent cast, headed by George O'Brien as masculine lead.

Congressman Upshaw Tonight. Congressman W. D. Upshaw, of Georgia, will appear at the High School auditorium tonight, in his newest and breeziest lecture, "Schools and Fools." The Elberton, Ga., Star says of Mr. Upshaw:

"The biggest crowd ever seen at lecture in Elberton, Sam Jones and Gen. John B. Gordon not excepted, heard Will D. Upshaw in 'Schools and Fools' last Monday night. Convulsing with laughter or stirring with eloquence he held his crowd from start to finish. Both the lecture and the orator were record-breakers."

Youths Ordered to Attend Sunday School. Judge A. B. Palmer, of the city recorder's court, believes the city school a great agency for good. This was proved Monday afternoon when during a session of his court he ordered two defendants to attend Sunday school for twelve months. The youths were charged with being intoxicated and were freed upon payment of the costs in their cases and their promise to attend Sunday school every Sunday for a year.

Black Bear's Scramble for Table Scraps. "Glasier Park, Hunt, Nov. 23.—The black bears in Glazier National Park have become quite tame. Many have come down out of the mountains recently to get their meals at the camp of road makers who are engaged in building a new highway to Waterson Lake near the Canadian boundary. The chief cook reported that as many as a dozen have appeared at the camp during the day at the table. They furnish the only entertainment these road workers have up there in the wilds of the Rockies.

The New Dodge, "The Carolina." New Orleans, La., Nov. 22.—The Charleston has not its mascot. It's a live dance, "The Carolina." Being Carroll, song composer and producer of musical revues, who has started the new dance believes it will sweep the country with as much popularity as the Charleston.

Practically No Change in Price on the Local Market Despite Forecasted Increase. The government cotton crop forecast, estimating the 1926 cotton market at 18,290,000 bales, failed to break the prices on the local market Monday.

There was a variance of a cent or two on the New York and New Orleans markets, but the show for Monday was the same as on Saturday so there was no change in prices paid on the local market.

The new forecast carries a total of about 400,000 more bales than the report issued a fortnight ago, and it was feared in some quarters that such an increase would result in another break in the price.

Apparently the buyers are determined either that 18,000,000 bales will not be harvested or that the demand will be such that prices will not fall much below those prevailing now.

McTea Gets Five Months. Bruce McTea, negro, who assaulted George Daniels, another negro, was sentenced in recorder's court Monday to serve five months on the chain gang. He started his sentence this morning.

The negroes fought Saturday night at "Five Points," it being alleged that McTea used a rock to knock down Daniels and then cut him with a knife.

Daniels is in the county jail and attaches of the jail this morning reported his condition was improving.

Union Thanksgiving Service. The citizens of Concord will observe Thanksgiving in accord with the custom of many years and in harmony with the President's Thanksgiving proclamation by gathering for a service of worship, thanksgiving and prayer. This service will be held in Trinity Reformed Church at 10 o'clock.

Rev. E. M. Courtney of Central Methodist Church, will deliver the sermon. Other pastors will conduct the services.

At Hotel Concord. Guests registering at Hotel Concord Monday included: Charles Trammel and wife and sister, Bristol, Tenn.; A. J. Cutness, Lowell, Mass.; E. G. Paige, Belmont, Mass.; Josephine Brauer, New Hampshire; Miss Florence Paige and Mrs. Ella Paige, New Jersey; William B. Martin, Charlotte; J. A. Carr, Monroe; H. E. Konegny, Greensboro; P. P. Cline, Newton; E. F. Walker, Salisbury; J. B. Brown, Winston-Salem; R. E. Strain, Virginia; Harry Dell, Spartanburg; and T. S. Stallings, Asheville.

The soaring power of silence is only realized by the imaginative woman who blazes at her taciturn spouse.

Want Use of Paper Bags Discontinued for Shipping Meal and Flour. (By International News Service) Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 22.—The southern people should be boosters for cotton, cotton products and other southern products as the California people are about products of that state," declared Edward A. O'Neal, president of the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation, with headquarters in this city.

"California's have increased to enormous proportions the consumption of raisins, oranges, lemons and other California fruits, shunpy by boosting and advertising."

"People of the South should insist that the Interstate Commerce Commission change its ruling that meal and flour can be shipped in paper bags and revert back to the old ruling that required cotton bagging for the safe of life," declared O'Neal.

Cement manufacturers in the Birmingham district have assured the farm bureau that they would discontinue usage of paper bags in the shipments of cement and use cotton bags exclusively," said O'Neal.

Union County's Cotton Crop. Monroe Enquirer. Much conjecture has been made as to the number bales of cotton Union county will produce this season. Guesses have been from 25,000 to 35,000.

Now, here the middle of November only about 24,000 bales have been ginned. There are 5,000 farm homes in Union county, and there is today an average of a bale of seed cotton on the front porches of said homes.

And there are doubtless 1,000 bales yet in the fields unplecked. Summing up the total, Union county the present year will produce about 30,000 bales of cotton.

And I have as much right to guess, predict or conjecture as the other fellow.

W. O. W. NOTICE. Regular meeting of Elm Camp No. 16 W. O. W. Tuesday evening at 7:30. Every member urged to be present. GEO. S. GRABBE, C. C. R. C. LITAKER, Clerk.

With the recent good rains we are now able to proceed with our planting rapidly. As fast as possible with a good force of hands we will plant all new jobs entrusted to us and replant all shrubs, etc. which we lost from last year's planting.

To prospective buyers of shrubs and evergreens we invite you to call at our place on East Corbin street. We have a field with thousands of plants in to select from. They look better than painted pictures in highly colored plant books.

We have had ten years' experience in the tree and ornamental plant business and have given thought and consideration to various plants and their location in the job. Call us to make an estimate of your planting with a list of plants suggested.

We grow more than ninety per cent of the plants we use and plants moved direct from our fields to your place are always better than plants shipped a long distance and handled several times before they reach your planting place.

Our plants are (mostly varieties) and are especially suited to our climatic conditions. In confidence we have the various shades suited for any foundation or yard planting. In broadleaf evergreens we offer all the best kinds with the Azalea Indica (Brilliant Pink) English Laurel, Nandina and Mahonia included.

Roses, specimen shrubs, shade, pecan and fruit trees are to be had at our place in abundance. Call us or call to an us.
