	anner an		· · · ·
A State of the sta	ASSOCIATED	The	Conc	ODD'	DATT	TRI		THE TRIBUNE PRINTS FODAY'S NEWS TODAY
	DISPATCHES		CONC	North Carolina's Lead	ling Small City Daily		DUNE	roday's news today
	VOLUME XXVI			ONCORD, N. C., FRIDAY				NO. 284
	NEW MEMBERS WILL	ALDERMEN CONDEMN	ATTORNEYS WRANGLE	Aii Around t	he Continent	Governor McLeod	Would Support Executive For Office	BELIEVE SCHOONER
	SIT IN CONGRESS	OVERHEAD BRIDGE;	OVER TESTIMONY IN			Tribune Bureau,	But no efforts to elicit any	TILL LAND AGENTS
	AT NEXT SESSION	WANT SOME ACTION	OIL CONTRACT CASE	farmer at	and the second	By J. C. Baskervill. Raleigh, Dec. 3.—Declaring in no uncertain terms that he was heartily in favor of any move in the direction	toward the proposed nomination of a smith as the next Democratic candidate for president were able to get him to express any opinion. With regard to the lynchings in Aiken recently, Governor McLeod and that the investigation was being maked bath by the granting and	AT HAVANA HARBO
	Seven Names Not Hereto- fore on Rolls of 69th	Will Force All Trains to Stop for Grade Crossing	This Attitude of Attorneys Shows Increasing Ten-	O Ora	1005	of naming Goverpor A. W. McLean of North Carolina as the Democratic nominee for president in 1928, but declining to comment as to whether	With regard to the inchings in Aikan recently, Governor McLeod said that the investigation was being pushed both by the executive and judicial branches of the state, and that he was convinced that the guilty	This Belief Does Not Ha Search for Vessel Whic
	Congress Will Appear as It Convenes Monday.	Which Will Be Used While Bridge Is Closed.	sion Now at the Doheny-		84-3431	Governor Al Smith of New York be nominated for president. Governor	interim oraneness of the state, and that he was convinced that the guilty parties would eventually be brought to justice. He declared there was no defense and no excuse for lynching	Has 2 Kidnapped Run Agents Aboard.
	FEW CHANGES IN THE SENATE, TOO	WHAT IS "FRESH" MEAT" FOR CITY?	BAIN TESTIMONY BEING ATTACKED	1 Aller	N STAL	lina, who was the guest of Governor McLean, yesterday, turned the ques- tioning of newspaper men into other lines by remerking that in South	any time or any where, and that it occurred only when there was a break down in the law enforcement washinger. All the batter people of	AID IN SEARCH
.4 . 	Walsh and Hawes Will Sit in Senate as New Mem- bers—Both Have Served	About Two Hours at Im-	Defense Seeks to Show the "Loan" to Fall Had Nothing to Do With Any			Carolina no one was thinking much about who might be nominated for president two years hence, since peo- ple down there were too busy think-	the state are interested in stamping out lynching, and are whole-hearted- ly behind the efforts to bring the Aiden lynchers to instice, he said.	Seen Since Tuesday De
	in Congress. Washington, Dec. 3.—(P)—Seven	Line Franchise Approved	Oil Lease.	HARRY L. CONN	WILLIAM BEBEE	ing about cotton prices now. He stated further that there was no pos- sibility of his entering politics again, since he had determined to refire to	stating further that the "good peo- ple of the state constitute the great majority of the people." Certain cir- cumstances combined with prejudice	ernment Ships.
	names not heretofore on the rolls of the 69th Congress will appear when it convenes next Monday while an eighth, that of Harry B. Haves, of	the board of aldermen wrestled with civic problems at their December meet- ing at the city hall Thursday night and when adjournment came shortly	stant, y increasing tension in the Do- heny-Fall oil conspiracy case was p'hinly visible today as the opposing attorneys wrangled over testimony of		1	It is interesting to note that Gov- ernor McLeod and Governor McLean	in the Aiken case most difficult, but the is confident that eventually the	French schooner Arsone T with tw
L	Missouri, will be called in the Senate instead of the House. Of the newcomers five take up their duties on Capitol Hill for the first	before midnight much important leg- islation had been written into the sec- ords of the city. So far as the public knew the meet-	witnesses who will prove to the jury either that Albert B. Fall and Ed- ward L. Doheny are guilty of con- spiring to defraud the United States		Conservation No.	byterians which might also be taken for granted. And when an effort was	real facts will be obtained. He commended the work of the South Carolina State Constabulary yeary highly for the work they work	today or tomorrow. Officials her expressed this opinion today after the vessel had not been heard from sine Tuesday.
	of one session. The five strangers are: David W. Stewart, elected to the	fair, but city officials, merchants, groc- ers and others appeared without warn- ing and threw upon the aldermanic	government in the famous navail oil leases, or that they are innocent. The defense which seeks to prove that Fall's receipt of $100,000 from			of North Carolina had said to the Governor of South Carolina, Gover- nor McLeod replied that the language	doing, and said that he considered such a force essential in any state. There are but twelve men on the force now, and they work under the direct supervision of the governor al-	J. B. Matthews, assistant prohibition administrator at New Orlean and Chief Machinists Mate Handle of the coast guard base at Bfloxi, as from Iowa left vacant through the death of Albert B. Cummins. Arthur R. Gould, elected from	session finally developed into one of the longest and most important of the year.	Doheny while the lease for the Elk Tills, Calif., reserve was under ne- gotiation, was entirely apart from con- summation of the contract at the out-			was now a dead language since the Eighteenth Amendment and hence	though Governor McLeod said that it would be better if they worked un- der a chief constable, rather than un-	aboard the schooner. They we placed aboard as guards after the schooner had been sized 45 miles from shore, and the patrol boat which er
	Harry L. Englebright and Richard J. Welsh who fill the vacancies caus-	tion claimed the attention of the board members for about two hours and nev- er was satisfactorily answered.	set today allowed the government to try to break down the testimony of H. Foster Bain, who served under Fall as chief of the bureau of mines. Bain			ernors, especially since both of them are known to be teetotlers. Enroute to Creenshoro vesterday afternoon	When to'd that North Carolina has been considering the establish-	gineered the seizure had put back base for fuel, Twenty Vessels in the Hunt . New Orleans, Dec. 3.—(P)—Twent place of Hawes in the Missouri House	bridge at the Southern passenger sta- tion? That question also received due attention and probably will not	testified that Fall was not in Wash- ington during much of the time the project was being considered by the interior department, of which Fall		La Art	ham, in which the historic remark of the Governor of North Carolina to the Governor of South Carolina—or	and constabulary, he declared that he did not see how the state managed to get along without such a force, and that in his opinion a good sized force of state police, highway patrolmen.	French rum schooner Arsene J.
	The other two names are familiar on Capitol*Hill. David I. Walsh re- turns to fill the seat of Senator Wm.	The fresh meat controversy arose when H. A. Graeber, owner of a meat	Owen J. Roberts, special prosecu- tor, showed by his more spirited cross examination that every point in the	of the National Association	ALEXANDRIA VICTORIA , Ohio, was re-elected president of Insurance Commissioners	Although much of the conversa- tion with the newspapermen was in	or whatever they might be called, was essential in any state today. In South Carolina these constabulary officers are assigned on request to	BERGEN EXPLAINS ACT IN HALL-MILLS CAS Tells Why He Used Jersey City Po
	tive Frederick W. Ballinger takes the place of the late Representative Har- ry I. Thayer of Massachusetts By	asked that grocers who sell sausage, livermush and backbone be required to pay the $25 eity privilege license fee	assumed the character of a hammer- ing attack centered around Bain's part	meeting at Los Angeles. Will ist, planned to explore the f cylinder. A shot was fired in	liam Beebe, New York natural- loor of the Atlantic in a steel to the home of George B Dale	by Governor McLeod that he did not intend to be a member of the next Democratic national convention	when ever they ask for their assist-	lice to Aid Him in Prosecution. Somerville, Dec. 3.—(47)—Franc Bergen, prosecutor of Somerset cou ty, today began summing up the cas
		A veterinarian, a lawyer, several grocers and numerous laymen were called upon by the aldermen for a	waii, naval oil storage plant contract, which was awarded Doheny's Pan- American Pertoleum and Transporta-	andria Victoria, ex-wife of A	ugust Wilhelm, fourth son of ton for a six-months' American	a convention that might nominate Al Smith, or that might last for a large	Governor McLeod was to return to Columbia today, after accompany- ing Governor McLean to Greensboro last night, where they attended a birthday dinner given in honor of	Stevens Hall and her brothers, Will and Henry Stevens, which have been of trial one month on charges of having
	and Hawes who won in the last elec-	tors of stores selling the meats de-	Roberts read to the Jury several excerpts of Bain's testimony in the	CHARGE MAN HELD	THE COTTON MARKET	agreement similar to that which ex- isted in the last national convention.	Julian Price of the Jefferson	Alexander Simpson, special deput attorney general, who has conducted were holding by virtue of appoint- ments. The republicans, however, rained ovote in the House as Engle- ments, a republican, takes the Onli-	T. Hartsell appeared to the	nullifying the Doheny contract, and asserted that in his direct examics	GIRL AGAINST WISHES R. T. Madra Held For Kidnon ba and Attempted Assault on Girl.	Renewal of Recent Selling Movement Featured Opening, Prices Being Steady.	What Brought About Death is Un-	left her home as her parents alept. Erdman, at home at the time, san- sequently was missing for accord days	the case for the state, announced the Bergen would speak first to reply the vituperation which had been co lained in the address of conuset a fornia seat held by the late John E. Baker, a democrat. Bring Secretary Wilbur Into Trial. Washington, Dec. 3.—Declaring	support him. The board finally agreed unanimously, after a discussion con- tinuing for almost two hours, to ex-	Bain explained he had worked on a great many government projects since 1922, and found it impossible to	8 years old, that she was injured and held captive for several hours yester-	of the recent selling movement fea- tured the opening of the cotton mar- ket today and prices were barely	I known. Found Near Absent Youth's Home.	Then he returned to cellege but on September 27 he left again, telling his professors he was "going to La- cross for an operation on his throat."	the defense. "I think I should explain as pro- ceutor of this county," Bergen sai "now the Jersey City police came int
	Navy witnesses are being prompted from Secretary Wilbur's office regard- ing their testimony, defense counsel in the Fall-Hoheny oil Conspiracy trial	1926-27 "fresh meat" dealers selling sausage, livernuch, backbone, spare ribs, game and poultry.	Further, he had been out of the gov- ernment service for about two years.	day, R. T. Madden, 39 years old, a railroad switchman, today faced charges of kidnapping and attempted assault.	All months made new low records for the season, January selling off to 11.87 under further liquidation of old	day yielded the body of Cara Olson 22-year-old farmer's daughter, tor whom more than 1,000 men initiated 1 a search here early today, follow-	The girl was known by her parents to be in expectation of motherhood, and her father had urged Erdman to	ming up?" Robert H. McCarter, set ior member of defense counsel asked today called on the Secretary for an explanation. New Line of Attack Opened. Washington, Dec. 3.—(P)—An en-	The matter of maintenance of the overhead bridge was called to the board's attention by a city official who described the present condition of the	Others Went to Greenville, S. C., and	last night, and denied the charges. The girl was with her parents suffer- ing from severe shock. Dorothy said	long accounts, continued hedging and local selling. The latter was en couraged by relatively easy Liverpool cables and reiterated reports of in-	i ing several weeks of unsuccessful ef- fort to locate the girl, and her col- lege boy sweetheart, Erdman Olsou, for whom a murder warrant was is-	This wood	should be allowed to reply to the "vi uperation of the state," but Justi Parker said there was nothing in the
E.	tirely new line of counter attack was opened up today by defense attorneys in the Fall-Doheny oil trial. They announced that within the	bridge as "dangerous." Where the bridge ends on the south, it was said, there is a decided off-set and this has	Greensboro to Inspect Plans There. Charlotte, Dec. 3(P)-Seventy- five chemists, prominent in the textile world, who arrived here today for the	the man approached her while she was on her way home from school, told her he knew her father, and vol- unteered to take her home in his auto-	Creased spot offerings in the Soula.	The body was accidently discover- ed when one of the searchers stumb- led into a clump of brush and his	"If there is anything between you	argument of the defense which we not evidenced in the testimony. Bergen was permitted in a short a dress, however, to state when the can be be a state when the can next few hours they would ask Secre- tary Wilbur on the stand whether naval officers listed among the wit-	motorists using the bridge. The bridge will not be used after the fourteenth of this month until re-	opening tonight of the annual con- vention of the American Association of Textile Chemists and Colorists, spent the day visiting dye plants and	mobile. Her playmates begged her not to go but she accompanied him.	less active than yesterday and there was enough covering to steady the market toward the end of the first hour.	fresh earth which barely covered the partially clothed body. No marks of	girl's disappearance and the boy's be- havior were matters only of casual neighborhood gossip. Only a few days ago the girl's father, however, exsince they were summoned to testi-	ing a resolution which reads in its last paragraph:	textile mills in the famous Gaston county textile zone. Thirty other	JOHN J. BRENNAN IS ELECTROCUTED IN PRISON	Cotton futures opened barely steady.	death was not indicated and tonight while efforts were made to locate the Ol on how a corner prepared for up	pressed the belief that she was dead, and persuaded officials to take the	the investigation required.

ce of Norway, confesses that had the investigation required.

the investigation required. Chief Justice Gary Improving. Atlanta, Dec. 3.—(49)—Chief Jus-tice Gary of the South Carolina Su-ureme Court, a patient in a local sau-atorium, is continuing to improve, his physicians reported today. Justice Gary has been confined to the hospital here since November 21, suffering from a mervous breakdown. His tempera-ture and pulse are now normal and her-rested well last night, the doctors said.

IN HALL-MILLS CASE

Match Company Wants Muscle Shoals, af-washington, Dec. 3,—(49)—The Dia-mond Match Company is negotiating rege for a part of the power at, Muscle Shoals, with a view of manufacturing ns matches. Inst The negotiation has not b minated, but it is understood the com-pany is anxious to locate a plant in