

The Defense Rests In Fall - Doheny Oil Conspiracy Charge

Attorney for Fall Abandoned the Proposal to Have Him Take Stand in His Own Behalf.

CASE IS SOON TO GO TO THE JURY

John McCormack is Character Witness for Doheny.—Sudden Ending Causes Surprise.

Washington, Dec. 11.—(AP)—The defense rested today in the Fall-Doheny oil conspiracy charge.

The case on behalf of Doheny himself was rested yesterday, and two character witnesses were called for Fall.

Then Owen J. Roberts, for the government, began the presentation of the prosecution's rebuttal.

The sudden termination of the defense case apparently surprised the prosecution.

The case on behalf of Doheny himself was rested yesterday, and two character witnesses were called for Fall.

Roberts then began the rebuttal by reading a letter from Admiral J. K. Robinson, who represented the navy in the leasing negotiations.

TAX LEGISLATION PROSPECTS RECEIVE OTHER SETBACK

Republican Floor Leader Tilson Favors Application of Treasury Surplus to Public Debt.

WANTS TO AVOID A CONTROVERSY

The Movement to Carry Out President Coolidge's Suggestion Would Open the Way for That.

Washington, Dec. 11.—(AP)—Prospects of tax legislation by the present Congress received still another setback today when it developed that Representative Tilson, of Connecticut, the Republican House leader, favors application of the treasury surplus to reduction of the public debt.

Mr. Tilson's view is that any move to carrying out the President's suggestion for a credit on next year's tax payment would pave the way for a protracted political controversy inasmuch as Democrats have announced they would press for action on a $325,000,000 tax reduction bill already introduced by Representative Garner, of Texas, Democratic financial spokesman in the House.

Mr. Tilson said "that the best thing to be done at this session of Congress is to immediately apply any surplus above the actual needs of the government to a reduction of the public debt, which as the President so well says, in his message, is itself a permanent tax reduction."
